NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—In the Rising Generation stake at Brighton Beach today there was a rattling finish. EFFECTED A FUSION.

Democrats and Populists of Kansas Come Together.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., Aug. 6.—The Democrats and Populists of Kansas have practically effected a fusion of interests in the coming election. Since Tuesday last the Democratic convention has waited upon the Populists at Abilene. The Democrats held two sessions today. The morning session was adjourned until evening, the Populists at Abilene having at that time taken no action as to the proposed fusion. When the Democrats re-assembled this evening word was received from their ambassadors at Abilene that the Populists had accepted the ticket recommended by the Democrats for election. This ticket, which was agreed upon last Tuesday, was then formally placed in nomination. The Democrats took up the question of a state ticket, and there being practically no opposition, the Populists' nominee for governor, State Senator J. W. Leedy, was nominated by acclamation. The other Populist nominees, Frank Doster, chief justice; Rev. J. D. Borkin, for congressman-at-large, and A. M. Harvey, for lieutenant-governor, were as cheerfully nominated. But here the Democrats were again forced to wait upon the convention at Abilene, and at 10 o'clock, no further nominations having been reported from the Populists, the convention took a recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the other Populist nominees will undoubtedly be endorsed.

SIMPLY AWFUL.

Eastern Cities Suffer Intensely from the Heat and Wind.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 6.—Dispatches from all cities in Wisconsin and northern Michigan of extreme heat followed at several points by severe wind and thunder storms. The temperature ranged from 96 to 102 degrees. At Racine, A. Parkinson, aged 66, was prostrated. Mrs. J. Ramsey was also prostrated and is in a critical condition. Two persons were overcome in Milwaukee, but there were no deaths. In this city outdoor work was largely suspended. Mrs. Martinette the intense heat caused the closing of many factories. The storm last night was severe in northern Wisconsin and in northern Michigan. At Escanaba the Chicago & Northwestern viaduct, 400 feet long, was demolished. Damage to buildings and crops is reported at many other points.

Heat, Wind and Rain.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 6.—Following the excessive heat this morning a terrible storm of lightning, wind and rain came up this afternoon. For a time all telegraphic communication was cut off. The wind reached a velocity of forty miles an hour. Just before the storm the thermometer reached 92, the highest point of the summer.

Local Record Broken.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 6.—The heat record of 1896 was broken today, the mercury turning 95 degrees. One death and many prostrations have been reported. There were much suffering among the mill workers and many mills were closed.

Deadly Effects.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—During a heavy thunder and rain storm this evening Walter Scott, 27 years old, of the firm of Bauer & Scott, stone dealers, was instantly killed by lightning on Cuyameta avenue. While the thermometer did not register as high as during the previous two days, the effects of the great heat were more deadly. During the day there were four fatal cases of sunstroke and nearly a score of more or less serious prostrations.

Simply Awful.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 6.—Today was even hotter than yesterday, the thermometer rising to 99 degrees in the shade in the signal service observatory. This is the highest point reached. The heat was suffocating. There were twenty prostrations and of this number seven were fatal. Several others are serious. The dead are: Alexander Murphy, cable splicer; John George Schweiser, cook; Charles Ehlman, cooper; John Schnell, tailor; Charles Frank, tailor; Joseph Smith, builder, and an unknown man.

CARPET DEALERS FAIL.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 6.—Robert H. Boyd, Milton Parry and George C. Boyd, carpet dealers, made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors. A dated August 5, was filed today. Counsel for the firm said: "The liabilities are about $250,000, and the firm has on the books upwards of $150,000, but owing to business depression and a number of failures, some of which have proved uncollectible, in addition to this they have a considerable amount of stock."

URGED TO SUPPORT M'KINLEY

metal can only be obtained by international agreement. We fearlessly advocate the restoration of silver to its constitutional right to have a redeeming power co-ordinate with gold. We reaffirm with emphasis the belief of Utah Republicans that the platform of their last convention "in a bimetallic which is the full recognition alike of gold and silver and their free coinage in the mints of the nation at the ratio of 16 to 1, but further enter our protest against the proposition that free silver in and of itself will give this nation the needed relief from present deplorable and distressing conditions. We agree that its rehabilitation would alleviate conditions greatly, but there are other and important economics that must go hand in hand with this issue in order to attain that prosperity so earnestly desired by all. Conservative statesmanship is necessary in our present emergencies, and above all, confidence in the abilities of an administration is pre-essential. The masses cannot safely be entrusted to the Democratic party, constituted as it now is, with divergent interests, which of necessity will force themselves to the front immediately after an election. If that party be victorious, and will, in our judgment, create such division in the administration of governmental affairs, that chaos only would be the result.

REPUBLICANS FRIENDS OF SILVER.

The Republicans of Utah were first among her people to demand justice for silver, and its point out the absolute necessity of its restoration. They have never abated their zeal in this respect. They are as pronounced in their belief in the absolute need of its restoration as they ever were, or as it is possible to be. So intense, indeed, is this feeling that were they sure that the Democratic party, if continued in power, could fulfill its promises it has recently made, many of them would, doubtless, waive their party convictions and support the opposition.

DEMOCRATS UNFAITHFUL TO PROMISES.

But the Republicans cannot recall any time during the past generation when the Democratic party has ever held faith in any great issue entrusted to it to settle, and hence Republicans will never recede before the prospect of again trucking with power a party which has wrought such ruin and desolation as has the Democratic party since the 4th day of March, 1893.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Believing the Republican women of Utah fully realize the important position they occupy in our new state, and that in the future they will, with confidence, look forward to their earnest efforts in the protection of their homes against the demoralizing effects of free trade, and the needs of the present time require as they never did before, woman's moral and spiritual force in the solution of the great questions that confront the people of this nation. This is woman's opportunity to show to the world such an example of courage in their convictions of right, as has been unequalled in the history of the women of the century. In the adjustment of political matters, and the influence of honest, patriotic sentiment, the new class of voters of the state should stand forth by the party that has made them participants in all that pertains to the welfare of the state, the nation and humanity.

The people of our country are looking forward to see what a school and new conditions will develop. Therefore we appeal earnestly to the Republican women of our new state to advocate our principles, which will add in bringing peace and prosperity instead of ruin and disaster.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We regret that the St. Louis platform is such that all Republicans of the state cannot agree upon it. Some lifelong Republicans, while in full accord with all other planks of the St. Louis platform, regard the silver question as the paramount issue of this year, and feel that they must therefore support Mr. Bryan upon this one issue, yet disagreeing with him and the Chicago platform upon every other issue, while other Republicans of the state regard protection, reciprocity and the judicious granting of bounties as paramount, and fearing the safety of the government in the hands of the Democrats, with its Populist tendencies and alliance, feel that they must be loyal to the national ticket. Knowing the conscientious motives actuating all Republicans of the state and believing that all Republicans will unite for the purpose of protecting through the legislative departments of the government, state and national, those vital principles of Republicanism that have made this nation so great, we recommend that the Republican party of Utah place in nomination McKinley electors, the national organization in preference to the recognition from the state organization, irrespective of individual action upon the pending issue, and that all Republicans of the state unite in the nomination and election of a congressman and local officers and that at the primaries and the convention for the nomination of such officers, no test shall be made that would disintegrate any true Republican from allegiance to the organization.

There is no manifest disposition to erect barriers in respect to membership. We want a united Utah Republican party and urge conservatism of thought and action upon its members. By direction of the state executive committee.

JOHN E. DOOLY, CHAIRMAN.

JULIA A. FARNSWORTH, Secretary.

Political Prattle.

R. B. Wahlquist, editor of the Adams County Democrat of Hastings, Neb., is in the city health seeking for a few days, and is naturally sizing up the political situation, being an ardent Bryan supporter. Mr. Hastings said to a Herald reporter yesterday that notwithstanding Republican claims to the contrary, Bryan would carry his state by the largest majority ever given a presidential candidate in Nebraska.

It is rumored that the friends of Gilbert M. Evans are urging him to become a candidate for sheriff.

J. M. Dickinson, assistant attorney general of the United States, spent yesterday in Salt Lake. He is one of the important administration officials who propose to support the Bryan ticket.

The ways of some people are past finding out, but not so the members of the Republican executive committee. Instance The Herald's exclusive report yesterday of the address, notwithstanding that the members all agreed not to divulge anything.

Interest among politicians centered yesterday in the Republican executive committee's address and little else of a political nature was thought or spoken of.

Judge H. P. Henderson and C. C. Doy are expected to arrive home today from the east.

Considerable talk is heard these days of David Evans for the senate. Since Mr. Rawlins' withdrawal Mr. Evans is favorably spoken of and apparently has a great many admirers here who would like to see him thus elevated. The gentleman himself has not been heard

KILLED BY THE CARS.

ANDREW TAYSEM CRUSHED TO DEATH BY THE SALTIAK TRAIN.

It is supposed He Fell Between the Cars as the Train Was Backing Out from the Station—The Coronor Will Hold an Inquest—Funeral Will Be Held Saturday at 2 p. m.—Deceased Was a Man with Many Friends.

Andrew J. Taysun, Jr., a well-known young man of this city, met with a shocking death at the Rio Grande Western depot last evening at 10:45.

Mr. Taysun had been to Saltlak, where he had been employed a portion of the time, returning on the train which arrives here at the hour which was made, a storm broke out, rather what the immediate incidents preceding it were, will never be known. Conjecture, however, would indicate that in alighting from the cars he fell between them and was run over when the train backed out from the station.

The train came into the depot and discharged its passengers, and then backed out of the depot, as is the custom. About fifteen minutes after he had gone a young man named Clarence Arden was crossing the tracks on the south side of Second South street, when he noticed the body lying across the rail on the east side of the track. He raised the alarm, and Officer Fitzmorris and a number of the employees of the Rio Grande Western responded. Lights were brought and from the indications it would appear that the unfortunate man had fallen a distance of at least twenty feet, and then run over and completely cut in twain. All along the distance were found portions of his clothing, his buttons and other articles of wearing apparel.

Although he is a well-known young man, the result of the accident, rolling in the coal dust and the discoloration of the features, had so altered the face of the body that those who were intimate with him failed to recognize him until after the coroner's arrival and the discovery of his pass to the beach in his pocket. Then it was that the black grime was washed from his countenance and the friends of the deceased were enabled to tell that it was Taysun.

The remains were taken to the morgue and from thence to the establishment of Joseph William Taylor.

None of the witnesses on duty at the scene knew that an accident had occurred until after they returned from the beach. It was at first believed that the young man was at the rear of the train and had been struck while crossing the tracks. This theory was disproved when it was stated that when the train backed out, there was a brakeman on the rear end and that he gave the signal to the engineer. The accident, it is believed, occurred as he was to be right in the glare of the electric light and on the same side as the brakeman was standing, so if Taysun had been there the train would have seen him.

So it may have been that he fell between the cars somewhere in the middle of the train.

The engineer and fireman must have been looking ahead, else they would have seen him in the glare of the headlight.

Mr. Taysun was 30 years of age and was the son of the late Mary Ann and Andrew J. Taysun. He was single. He had a great many friends in this city and was liked because of his happy disposition. His brother, Rollo G. Taysun, is the telegraph editor of The Herald; Alonzo is a linotype operator on this paper; George, another brother, is a druggist; Mrs. B. P. Thornberg and Mrs. O. P. Pratt are sisters and there are two more sisters at the old home in addition, to mourn his loss.

The funeral services will be held from the funeral chapel of Joseph William Taylor, on West Temple street, at 3 p. m. Saturday.

No inquest will be held, the coroner being satisfied as to the cause of death.
