TO RECEIVE A FITTING RECEPTION

Mr. Bryan Will Reach Lincoln, Neb., Tomorrow Morning.

SILVER PARTY NOTIFICATION

Senator Teller Expected to Be Present.

The Candidate's Reception Will Rival the Demonstration Following His Return from the Chicago Convention—Confident of Carrying New York State—Never Had Doubts About His Election—Spent a Quiet Sunday in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 6.—Mr. Bryan spent a quiet day at the residence of E. C. Wall, Democratic national committee man from Wisconsin. In the morning he attended service with Mrs. Wall at Emanuel Presbyterian church. He will leave Milwaukee at 7:15 tomorrow morning on the North-western, and reach Chicago at 9:30 o'clock.

Welcome Home.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 6.—J. Bryan will receive a fitting welcome home on Tuesday, and the occasion of his notification of his nomination at the hands of the silver party, which it was at first thought would prove a very small affair, promise even to rival the demonstration following his return immediately after the Chicago convention.

The Bryan party will reach here at 10 a. m., most of the members of the silver notification committee, it is supposed, being on the same train.

At the depot a parade will be formed and the march begun to the Bryan residence, a mile distant. Marching clubs, composed of men of the candidate's political faith, will be numerous, and many bands of this city and from all over the state will help swell the crowd and the chorus of noise.

The notification proper will occur at the state capitol grounds in the afternoon. Mr. Grant of Ohio will make the principal address at that time, but it is confidently expected that Senator Teller will also be present and speak.

In the evening there will be more marching and some extra temporary speeches. Many excursion trains will be run to the city during the day. Polk county Populists have chartered a special Union Pacific train and will bring all it can carry. No programme has been outlined for the other days Mr. Bryan is in the city.

The First Interview.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The Chronicle will tomorrow publish a dispatch from Milwaukee giving an interview had by its correspondent with Mr. W. J. Bryan, the free silver candidate for the presidency. In the interview Mr. Bryan says:

"I feel confident of carrying New York state. About my election I have never had any doubt. I have always felt that the American people know that bimetalism is for their best interests. Knowing this, they will vote the silver ticket rather than to perpetuate the gold standard."

Tillman a True Prophet.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.—Senator Tillman of South Carolina, who is to address meetings in various towns in the Pennsylvania coal regions during the next ten days, arrived here tonight in response to questions made some predictions regarding the presidential election.

"The Democratic party," said he, "will carry every state south of Ohio. After the election nothing will be heard of the Jefferson party, as it will merge into the Republican. The silver sentiment is strong in my state and per cent of the Democrats there are for silver. Bryan will have a majority of 75 or 100 votes in the electoral college and he will be elected. We expect to carry New York state and will have a large majority in New York City. The Republican majority of 40,000 to 50,000 above the Harlem river will be reduced one-half, and I feel confident that the convention at Buffalo will endorse the Democratic platform and candidates."

LI HUNG CHANG LEAVES THE UNITED STATES.

The Viceroy and Party Visit Niagara Falls and Cross the River.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Li Hung Chang and party arrived in this city at 11:45 o'clock this morning, accompanied by the United States army officers who are escorting the party about the country. He came direct from Washington in a handsomely appointed Pullman vestibled train of seven coaches. All night and this morning a drizzling rain fell, and when the party arrived it was coming down in torrents. The viceroy and the army officers occupied the last car, and about five minutes after the stop Major-General Ruger stepped out on the platform, followed by the other officers. Li making his appearance last. He was gowned in his gorgeous yellow jacket and wore the famous peacock feather in his hat. His appearance was the signal for a burst of applause from the crowd of fully 4,000 which gathered to see him and wish the viceroy good-bye with difficulty in keeping in order. After being assisted down the steps, he walked to the carriage, twenty feet distant, leaning on the arm of Major-General Ruger, and Major-General Schoellkopf of this city. The carriage was entered by the three and Lo Ping Lih, the viceroy's official secretary and interpreter. The army officers with their families and some extra temporary speeches. Many excursion trains will be run to the city during the day. Polk county Populists have chartered a special Union Pacific train and will bring all it can carry. No programme has been outlined for the other days Mr. Bryan is in the city.

VIEWING THE FALLS.

Upon their arrival at the Cataract house, which was headquarters, the party retired to their rooms, the whole second floor of the hotel having been reserved for them.

All of the suite ate luncheon prepared by the regular staff, but Li had his in a private dining room, his food Hohenlohe, the imperial chamberlain, served by his own servants.

About 3:30 o'clock the start was made to see the falls. The rain had ceased and the sun was shining brightly. Thousands of people filled the hotel corridors, verandas and the streets outside. The falls reached, the viceroy watched them for a short time, his face bearing a curious expression. He turned to his interpreter and addressed him. The latter said: "His excellency is very much delighted and greatly impressed."

Next the party was driven to the power house of the Cataract Construction company, where they saw the most interesting he had seen on his travels. He inquired the cost of the work and the revenue, and other things. The interpreter then returned to the hotel.

LI MARVELED MUCH

at the American railways, saying they were the greatest he had ever seen. Asked if he would, upon his return to China, have the English engineers who are building a railroad in that country, adopt the American system he said he certainly would. This important announcement was received with much enthusiasm by the many prominent men in hearing distance.

At the power house Li held out his hand toward one of the rapidly revolving dynamos and it was hit by a projection and knocked out of his hand like a flash. He was startled, but said nothing. He came near being badly injured when the accident occurred. The party remained in this city tonight and will cross the river there tomorrow morning. They will be escorted from here by Sir H. G. Jolly De Lothbriener, president of the Niagara Falls, and at present a member of the Laurier cabinet, and Sir W. C. Parmale, Chinese agent of Canada.

A PLAN FULL OF DIFFICULTIES

The Sick Man's Reign Is Likely to Cease Soon.

Family Influences Are Being Brought to Bear Upon the Czar and Emperor William Looking to an Effective Stopping of the Horrors in the Ottoman Empire—Breslau Exceeded Vienna in Decorations—Many Injured During the Parade Crash

(Copyright, 1896, by the United Associated Presses.)

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—The conferences which have taken place between the czar and the emperor and their accompanying Russian and German diplomats, which at first were alleged to be devoid of anything more important than mere ceremonial conversations, are now reported to have taken the character of initiating a new concert of powers, which is to have a bearing of unusual importance upon the future events in Turkey. It is not known definitely who originated the proposal, but it is, however, a matter of positive knowledge in Berlin that Prince Hohenlohe, the imperial chamberlain, and Count Von Osten-Sacken, the Russian ambassador to Germany, are discussing a plan, the purpose of which is to place the sultan under the tutelage of ambassadors of the powers to Constantinople, who will be empowered to control the sultan's selection of ministers and also his appointment of provincial governors. The statement of the treaty, which is now being prepared in Berlin, appears to have been the keynote of this scheme, which at least would maintain the nominal integrity of Turkey and for a time enable the powers to escape being dragged into a European war over the division of the spoils of the Ottoman Empire.

THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE.

Practically the foreign ambassadors are already treating Turkey as a government existing wholly upon sufferance, but they do not take the responsibility which ought to be assumed by the powers to escape being dragged into a European war over the division of the spoils of the Ottoman Empire.

The nature of the friendship of the two emperors as cemented by the meeting of the monarchs in Breslau, is shown by the fact that the kaiser will go to Darmstadt on October 8, when the czar and the empress are there. Upon that occasion there will be a family convale, several important functions will be held, functions that will be very elaborate, for Darmstadt, at least. The imperial parties will stay at the Residenz Schloss.

REBATES FROM WHISKY HOUSES

Commissioner Mixson and His Son Implicated.

Governor Evans Stirs Up the Biggest Scandal That Has Occurred Since the Days of Negro Rule in the South—Mixson's Son Pleads Guilty, but the Commissioner Says He Is as Innocent as a Lamb.

COLUMBUS, S. C., Sept. 6.—One of the biggest state scandals that has occurred since the days of negro rule in South Carolina was sprung last night by Governor Evans. If his statement is correct, the dispensary system seems to have been a gold mine to those in charge of it. Governor Evans, it seems, has been in possession of the information he has given for a long time, but was entirely unsuspected and it appears that the governor's exposure was due to the fact that he had been goaded for not denying a charge made in the stump in his campaign for the senate that he said that Tillman had lined his pockets with liquor rebates. This charge had been made by one of the former friends of Evans and Tillman that had threatened the former in the race for the senate.

The election comes off Friday. Evans held off until 1 o'clock this morning, when he came out with a denial of the statement. He explains that he had had the denial upon bad advice, and then proceeds to make his revelations.

The commissioner, Mixson, and the commissioner's son, an official court stenographer, are to be the objects of his ire. The governor says he could go whenever and where he pleased on such a mission. After telling of his discovery that Mixson was taking higher prices to one house than other houses of the good, he proceeds to tell of a visit of Mixson's son to Cincinnati, where he was entertained by whisky people. Then he proceeds thus:

But to return to the efforts of Mr. Scruggs to catch the guilty parties. Mr. Scruggs proceeded to Cincinnati and returned with evidence, as he assured me, to convict Mixson of having received rebates from the whisky houses of the party. Upon his return, he saw Mixson and Secretary Tompkins before he did me and they humbly begged me to let them remain in the city. I refused to do so and stated to me that the boy had confessed, but that he had been forced to do so by the money. Mixson soon called upon me and stated that the boy had confessed, but that he had been forced to do so by the money. Mixson soon called upon me and stated that the boy had confessed, but that he had been forced to do so by the money.

SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCES.

he was satisfied that Mixson was dealing with certain whisky houses exclusively and was obtaining rebates in consideration thereof. I replied to him that he was state officer as well as Mixson and Tompkins, and that if he saw anything going on that he thought was wrong, he should go and secure the evidence to convict them. Mr. Scruggs reported to me that he was satisfied that Mixson had secured evidence to convict these men if I would allow him to leave the state. I replied that I would not do so, and that I would go wherever he pleased on such a mission.

RETURNED WITH EVIDENCE

that Mixson's son had received thousands of dollars from the whisky houses of the Live Oak Distilling company and asked me what to do. I told him that I would go to Cincinnati and see Mixson and Tompkins before he did me and they humbly begged me to let them remain in the city. I refused to do so and stated to me that the boy had confessed, but that he had been forced to do so by the money. Mixson soon called upon me and stated that the boy had confessed, but that he had been forced to do so by the money.

REMOVE HIM FOR CAUSE.

and that if he could show his innocence that we could not remove him. I saw Mr. Tompkins and he agreed with me in this, and stated to me that Mixson's friends had advised him not to resign. I told Mr. Norton that I feared that something was going on, and that I had never heard him the written evidence, but the boy's confession made it unnecessary to require it. The meeting of the legislative committee was determined in the absence of proof direct against Mixson, to drop the matter, but to take away from him any chance of temptation, and recommended that the entire control be taken from his hands and from the hands of state house officers and placed in the hands of a board consisting of five members elected by the general assembly.

THE DISPENSARY LAW

and the reform movement. But in justice to my friends, who require it, and the public, who are attempted to be deceived, I make this statement. The parties connected with this matter are not interested in this primary, but have another tribunal to which they can and must appeal.

AMALGAMATION ASSURED.

COMPLETE UNION OF IDAHO'S SILVER FORCES.

THE ARKANSAS STATE ELECTION—HON. THOMAS WATSON IN DALLAS—PRIMARY IN FIRST KENTUCKY DISTRICT.

(Special to The Herald)

BOISE, Ida., Sept. 6.—It now seems that amalgamation of the silver forces of this state is assured. When the Democratic and Populist state conventions met, Senator Dubois, as he now admits, made the mistake of antagonizing the fusion of Democrats and Populists. He and his friends were very active in opposition to the fusion of these two parties, but they made no formal application to be included. Both Democrats and Populists declared after they had arranged a fusion that they would never let Dubois and his followers in. The visit of Mr. Johnson, Democratic national committeeman from Kansas, has resulted as was hoped it would.

First the Democratic leaders gave in, and now the announcement is made that the men who control the Populist state committee have announced that the Populists will renounce their claims to the senatorship, as fixed by the Democratic-Populist fusion, consenting to the election of Dubois. This action means a complete union of Idaho's silver forces, the election of a Democratic governor, a Populist congressman and Republican senator.

ARKANSAS CAMPAIGN.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 6.—The state campaign closed in this city last night, when Colonel Dan W. Jones and Hon. H. L. Remmel, Democratic and Republican candidates for governor respectively, addressed a large audience at Glenwood park.

The election will take place tomorrow. For the past four weeks the entire state has been flooded with speakers, assigned by the Democratic and Republican state central committees. The Populist candidate for governor did not make a canvass or take any part in the campaign.

Two years ago the following vote was cast for governor: Clark, 74,839; Remmel, 26,855; Barker, 21,541. Clark's plurality, 48,724; Clark's majority over both Remmel and Barker, 24,183. The total vote cast in 1894 was 125,358. No doubt it will reach at least 150,000 tomorrow.

The records in the state auditor's office show that 208,000 poll tax receipts are held throughout the state. The Democratic committee claims that Colonel Jones will receive over 100,000 votes at Monday's election, or 50,000 majority over both opponents. The Republican candidate is confident of increasing his vote over 1894 by at least 10,000.

MR. WATSON IN DALLAS.

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 6.—Hon. Thomas Watson of Georgia, Populist candidate for vice-president, arrived here tonight. He will deliver a Labor day address to the Dallas Trades Council at the state fair grounds tomorrow.

Mr. Watson was met by a large party of Populist leaders and ex-governor Barnett Gibbs. He will be Mr. Gibbs' guest while he remains in Dallas.
