

PREFERS TO FIGHT AT LONG RANGE

No Truth in the Story That Weyler Will Take the Field.

HE GIVES HIS REASONS

THINKS HE CAN DO MORE GOOD AT HOME.

Still, if it Ever Becomes Absolutely Necessary, He Will Not Hesitate One Minute to Sharpen His Sabre and Get Into His Boots—Proceeding Against the Competitor Prisoners.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A special cable dispatch to the Herald from Havana gives the following account of an interview with General Weyler by the correspondent of that paper on Monday evening:

"What do you think about the prospects of putting down the insurrection in the province of Pinar del Rio?" was asked.

The general replied that he thought the chances were excellent for the complete success of the Spanish armies in that province. He has been in this opinion for some time, he said, and the recent victories of General Huesos at Cacaajicara, and of General Arolas at Artemisa, had only confirmed him in his belief of freeing the province of all insurgents.

"Washington dispatches have alleged that General Lee is to return to the United States. Have you talked to General Lee on this subject, and do you attach any significance to the fact if true?"

The general replied: "My relations with your consulate are of the most friendly nature. I have had several conversations with General Lee on the subject of his return."

At this point the reporter determined to ask the general a leading question. "Do you think it is all doubt on a much mooted topic."

"Is it a fact that you have decided to take the field in person, General Weyler?"

"I have my hands on the arms of his chair, and leaning back, as if to give emphasis to his words, the general replied: "There is nothing absolutely decided on that subject here in Havana. I am in telegraphic connection with my generals everywhere, and can direct the movements of all my forces. Here I can follow the subject with all the political and military. I have so far believed that my best work could be done here."

"Here I can better direct operations, and I have in my hands the control of telegraphs, telegrams, railroads and steamships—in fact, everything which can further my efforts to bring the war to a close. Only in the field my scope would be limited by the orders of a commander of an army corps."

"Still, if the exigencies of the situation should in any opinion demand my taking the field, I should not hesitate to do so, but I do not believe that that effect is, to say the least, premature."

In reply to a question about the proceedings against the competitor prisoners, General Weyler said that at present simply a preliminary hearing had been accorded, the nature of which would not be made public. When the military tribunal should have taken the regular inquiry, the testimony taken, the general said, would be given out.

Spanish Engagements.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A Havana letter to the Sun says a Cienfuegos correspondent writes: "The Spanish are boasting of having captured the entire cargo of war supplies recently landed near the entrance of San Juan river. The way beyond this port and Casilda. The statement is not true. Most of the munitions had been taken to a safe place when the Spanish man-of-war saw and seized two open boats on the river. The Spanish boats had just returned to unload them, but the Spanish got ahead of them and seized the boats, which contained 43 valises, the personal baggage of the filibusters. The rifles, the cartridges, the boxes of cartridges and a quantity of clothing and drugs. But though 92 rifles were captured, 1100 were safely placed in the hands of the patriots."

Lee on Leave.

HAVANA, Oct. 28.—General Fitzhugh Lee, United States consul, who has been granted leave of absence, will sail on Saturday next for Tampa on his way to Washington.

BECK'S BAD BREAK.

Action of the District Attorney Called to the Attention of the President.

ALLENSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 28.—Congressman Souden today sent the following telegram to President Cleveland: "Hon. Grover Cleveland, Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C.: Dear Sir.—District Attorney Beck of Philadelphia made an offensive partisan speech here tonight in which he attacked the regular Democratic party, Messrs. Bryan and Sewall, the regular nominees of the party, and whose supporters made a noble stand for the party, and without which Mr. Beck would not occupy his lucrative position. Among the Democratic ticket in his state is a man of high ability, integrity and loyalty on next Tuesday. He seems to be an offensive partisan. He has been kind, and by such utterances gave offense to more than nine-tenths of all the loyal and faithful Democrats here. As an officer of the law, he certainly shows no taste, and demonstrates his unwillingness to uphold law and order, however able he may be otherwise. I will be glad if you removed several of these officers in the department of justice for much less offenses, and I will be glad to see you send a message to the President, asking for their removal. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, W. H. Souden."

JUDGE DUNDY DEAD.

Was ill but a Short Time—His Age Was 83.

A VICTIM OF HIS OWN BUBBLE BLOWING.

THROWN OUT OF COURT.

Sugar Planter Element of Louisiana Has No Standing.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28.—In the mandamus proceedings instituted in the civil district court by the Howell or Hly white sugar planter element of the Republican party, praying for an order compelling the board of election supervisors to give them representation at the polls, on the ground that they are Republicans of Louisiana, Judge Moore, in a lengthy verbal opinion, held that there was but one Republican party in this state or in the United States; that the Republican party had maintained an unbroken organization from Fremont to Lincoln, and from Lincoln to the present time; that the recognized Republican party of Louisiana recognized on the national committee by A. T. Wimberly had been accorded three representatives at each of the polling places, and as the sugar planters had no right to the regular Republicans on the electoral ticket named by the latter, they had no right to ask for additional representation. In fact, they had no standing in court.

THE TURF.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Riley Grannan made his appearance at Morris park yesterday and was admitted to the grounds. He drove up to Westchester about the time the third race was to be run and purchased two badges, one for himself and one for Otis Harlan. They presented themselves at the gate and Grannan was allowed to enter. When he reached the grandstand, he was warmly welcomed by his friends.

LATONIA, Oct. 28.—Results: Seven furlongs—W. W. won. Mother of Pearl second, Melbie third. Time—1:32.

Five and one-half furlongs—Belzara won, Mammie Callan second, Earth third. Time—1:24.

One and one-sixteenth miles—Imp Skate won, Sessbrook second, St. Helena third. Time—1:51.

Seven furlongs—Carnero won, Remondino second, White Frost third. Time—1:30.

One and one-half miles, hurdle—Uncle Jim won, Zaidivar second, Herman third. Time—2:45.

WINDSOR, Oct. 28.—Results: Five furlongs—Merry Saint won, Infelice second, Sussie Hawse third. Time—1:27.

Seven furlongs—Mrs. Morgan won, Sagwa second, Partner third. Time—1:32.

Five and one-half furlongs—Bloomer won, Royal Prince third. Time—1:54.

Five and one-half furlongs—Bombard won, Lottie second, Lottie Altar third. Time—1:52.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—At the Newmarket-Houghton meeting today, the Cambridge stakes were won by Windfield's Pride, Yorker second and Laodamia third.

The New Nursery plate, a high-weight handicap for 2-year-olds, Rous won, five furlongs, was won by Colnet Fossesilly by a length, the filly of Lady Helen. Mr. H. Sandgate's filly by Right Away, out of Flower of Dunblane was second, and Mr. C. Littlefield's (American) bay colt David II. was third.

MEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 28.—Today has been a great one at Combination park. Guineas made a new record, going the mile in 2:08, and Joe Patchen beat his record today, his track of 2:05 1/2, going the quarter in 32 1/2, the mile in 1:01 1/2, and the three-quarters in 1:32 1/2, and the mile in 2:04 1/2.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Ingle side track opened its gates today with a crowd of 3,000 people to witness the sport. The weather was chilly and the track heavy.

Five and one-half furlongs, purse—Alma won, Lou Lou R. second, Dolores third. Time—1:50.

Opening day handicap, purse $1,000; one mile—Sir Play won, Wavona second, Damon third. Time—1:45.

Five and one-half, over six hurdles—Colonel and Captain third. Time—2:55.

Six and one-half furlongs, selling—Callewa won, Hazard second, Encino third. Time—1:54.

Three and one-half, purse—Libertine won, Casarain second, Hanetta third. Time—1:30 1/2.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—At Belmont Driving park this afternoon John R. Gentry, the fastest horse in the world, paced a mile in 2:03 1/2. In view of the adverse atmospheric condition, a steady rain, and the fact that the track was a holding race, and the fact that Belmont's course is naturally from three to four seconds slower than that of which he made his mark of 2:00 1/2, this performance is regarded by many of the ablest horsemen as the most wonderful of his career.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The treasury gold reserve at the close of business today stood at $18,720,000. Today's withdrawals at New York were $388,810.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY.

F. W. Sweet and J. W. Smith Charged with Robbing a Drunken Miner From Thistle of His Watch and Money.

F. W. Sweet and J. W. Smith were the names given by two young men arrested early this morning by Officer Roberts and booked on a charge of robbery. The alleged victim was a drunken miner from Thistle, Utah, so drunk he was unable to give his name.

PROF. BARR EN ROUTE.

HERE'S A CHANCE.

Republican "Patriots" Given an Opportunity to Show Their Nerve.

THE RING.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 28.—W. S. Stratton, the rich gold mine owner of Cripple Creek, today made an offer to bet $100,000 against $500,000 that William J. Bryan is elected president. Mr. Stratton agrees that if he wins he will give the money to the Colorado Springs free library, and if the others win they are to have the money.

A syndicate of rich men of the city is trying to raise the $500,000. Mr. Stratton says that he does not make the offer through any pointers that he has on the election, but believes that the masses, who will sense will arouse the workmen to the necessity of voting for Bryan.

Mr. Stratton is the Colorado Springs banker who became a multimillionaire in Cripple Creek. He says that the maintenance of the gold standard would be better for him, but not for the masses, and he believes in the masses.

A few days ago Stratton offered to bet $100,000 to $300,000 with Cashier W. S. Jackson of the El Paso bank, but Mr. Jackson, although an ardent Republican, declined to wager the money.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

HERE'S A CHANCE.

Republican "Patriots" Given an Opportunity to Show Their Nerve.

THE RING.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 28.—W. S. Stratton, the rich gold mine owner of Cripple Creek, today made an offer to bet $100,000 against $500,000 that William J. Bryan is elected president. Mr. Stratton agrees that if he wins he will give the money to the Colorado Springs free library, and if the others win they are to have the money.

A syndicate of rich men of the city is trying to raise the $500,000. Mr. Stratton says that he does not make the offer through any pointers that he has on the election, but believes that the masses, who will sense will arouse the workmen to the necessity of voting for Bryan.

Mr. Stratton is the Colorado Springs banker who became a multimillionaire in Cripple Creek. He says that the maintenance of the gold standard would be better for him, but not for the masses, and he believes in the masses.

A few days ago Stratton offered to bet $100,000 to $300,000 with Cashier W. S. Jackson of the El Paso bank, but Mr. Jackson, although an ardent Republican, declined to wager the money.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

HERE'S A CHANCE.

Republican "Patriots" Given an Opportunity to Show Their Nerve.

THE RING.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 28.—W. S. Stratton, the rich gold mine owner of Cripple Creek, today made an offer to bet $100,000 against $500,000 that William J. Bryan is elected president. Mr. Stratton agrees that if he wins he will give the money to the Colorado Springs free library, and if the others win they are to have the money.

A syndicate of rich men of the city is trying to raise the $500,000. Mr. Stratton says that he does not make the offer through any pointers that he has on the election, but believes that the masses, who will sense will arouse the workmen to the necessity of voting for Bryan.

Mr. Stratton is the Colorado Springs banker who became a multimillionaire in Cripple Creek. He says that the maintenance of the gold standard would be better for him, but not for the masses, and he believes in the masses.

A few days ago Stratton offered to bet $100,000 to $300,000 with Cashier W. S. Jackson of the El Paso bank, but Mr. Jackson, although an ardent Republican, declined to wager the money.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big crowd at the party were concerned about the effect which Bryan's campaign in Cook county might have on the election day result in the state and city. To all such inquiries, the reply was that the answer was that the election would be won by the Chicago voters would not change any material number of votes already cast on the Republican side, and there was no fear expressed at any headquarters that the Chicago vote would be affected.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Telephone messages and personal callers kept the campaign managers in a constant state of activity today at Republican national, state and county headquarters.

The big