

THE PIONEER JUBILEE

Trans-Mississippi Congress Delegates Will Be Here. CONSTRUCTION DEPARTMENT WILL COMMENCE WORK ON MONDAY.

The Proposed Cowboy Tournament—Children's Day—Ten Thousand Copies of Bulletin No. 3 Distributed—Jubilee Notes.

FEATURE that will add dignity to the Pioneer Jubilee will be the presence in the city of nearly 1,000 of the most distinguished men of all the 24 states and territories west of the Mississippi river. Men who themselves are pioneers in the building and civilization of the west, and who are thoroughly identified with the pioneer spirit that pervades it.

FORGOT HIS IDENTITY.

One who has entirely lost his identity is confined in the insane cell of the county jail. He is a young person, apparently, not more than 25 years of age and is suffering from an utter lapse of memory.

VERY STRANGE CASE OF MENTAL ABERRATION.

A Young Man Who Knows Not Who He Is, Whence He Came or Whether He Goeth Applies to the Police to Enlighten Him.

He walked into the police headquarters yesterday afternoon and asked for assistance to find himself. Although familiar with various degrees of insanity, Desk Sergeant Smith was astonished at the strange request as asked the applicant's name.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE THEATRE.—It used to be said that anything with the stamp of Charles Frohman on it could be guaranteed in advance. A few more entertainments like that at the theatre last evening and the Frohman trade mark is apt to lose a very considerable part of its magic.

THE COAST OF BARBARIE.

Two gallant ships from old England came— Blow high, blow low, and so sailed we; The one was Prince of Luther and the other Prince of Wales.

POTTER OF TEXAS.

"POTTER OF TEXAS."—The run of prosperity the Grand has lately enjoyed showed signs of being interrupted last night. There is a wide gulf between the "Silver King" and "Potter of Texas" and last night's audience seemed to perceive it.

The reason for fresh-roasting tea every day is: it makes it good. That's why Schilling's Best is daintier and more charming than any other tea at anything like the price.

In packages at grocers. A Schilling & Company San Francisco paring opera is found to be too onerous for frequent repetition. The gross revenue of the last venture were about $50 less than those of the "Mascoot."

THE DECISION.

The following is the dispatch received from Washington in regard to the decision. Washington, April 12.—In the case of the American Publishing company vs. Fisher Brewing company, appealed from the supreme court of the state of Utah, the court through Justice Brewer rendered an opinion obliging as invalid the state statute validating the verdict in civil cases in which only nine jurors concurred.

DECLARED INVALID BY UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

APPLIES TO TERRITORIES AND DOES NOT AFFECT VERDICTS SINCE STATEHOOD.

THE SUPREME TRIBUNAL, HOWEVER, REFINES FROM EXPRESSING ANY OPINION IN REGARD TO THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE EIGHT-JUROR SYSTEM.—THE CASE IN POINT IS THAT OF THE AMERICAN PUBLISHING COMPANY VS. THE A. FISHER BREWING COMPANY.

The opinion handed down yesterday by the United States supreme court declaring invalid a verdict in which only nine jurors concurred in the territory of Utah in the case of the American Publishing company vs. the Fisher Brewing company, is of great importance to litigants who had civil jury cases in the courts from 1892 to the time of the admission of the territory to statehood.

A MODERN PROVERB.

Life: A man is happiest when he is giving a woman advice on a subject which he knows nothing about.

DYING BY HUNDREDS.

SAD CONDITION OF THE NATIVES OF IOCHANG, CHINA.

Much Help Has Been Extended, But It Is Far Short of That Which Is Actually Needed—For Those in the Interior There Is No Help.

San Francisco, April 12.—According to advices brought by the Gaelic, natives in the vicinity of Iochang, China, are dying by hundreds of starvation. The main crop last year was almost a total failure, and as the people exchanged their maize for rice to last them through the winter, food has been scarce for a long time. Supplies are now completely exhausted, and the harvest of death has begun. The officials are making efforts to furnish food for the starving people by sending in rice, but the supplies they are able to contribute are so small and the number of those in direct need is so large that little good is accomplished. Owing to the difficulty of transporting the rice in the famine district, only those living along the waterways are aided. For those in the interior, there is no help, and the mortality is great, and is growing steadily.

Even in the sections that the relief supplies reach, the amount given to each family is so small that it serves barely to sustain life, and does not relieve the pangs of hunger. No estimate of the loss of life is given, but it is reported to be heavy.
