TARIFF BILL HAS PASSED THE SENATE

Vote Was Thirty-eight For and Twenty-eight Against It.

CANNON CASTS HIS VOTE IN THE NEGATIVE.

Knows the Influences Under Which the Bill was Prepared.

Gives Advantages to Certain Classes at the Expense and Oppression of the Tilling Masses—Teller Says the Bill is the Worst Tariff Measure Ever Framed, in That It Takes Care of All the Trusts of the Country—Combinations and Syndicates Have Had Too Much to Do With It.

Washington, July 7.—Senator Cannon was the only Silver Republican who voted against the passage of the tariff bill today. Senators Teller and Patterson did not vote, and Mantle voted for the bill.

Senator Cannon explained his vote, briefly, with considerable stress and feeling, which partook of a dramatic nature. His words in defense of his position were attentively listened to by his colleagues and by the crowded galleries.

"I believe in the principle of protection, and have always been devoted to that principle," he said, "knowing the manner in which this bill was framed, and the influence which directed the duties which it contains, I shall vote against it. The interests of the great masses of the common people are not represented in the bill. Any request that has been made by these people for protection to their interests have been denied. To vote against this bill means a great deal to me. No one except myself can appreciate how much. I was elected here by the people who believed in protection from the bottom of their souls. But I say again, that, knowing the influences under which this bill has been prepared, the advantages which it gives to certain classes at the expense and oppression of the toiling people, I shall cast my vote against it."

"Senator Mantle explained his vote in the following language: "The tariff bill does not meet my approval in all respects. I denounce the annual favors shown the sugar trust—a monopoly which has forfeited all right to any favorable consideration at the hands of congress, and which neither needs nor deserves protection. I regard also that some effective legislation has not been appended to this bill looking to the curbing of the great and growing evil of unlawful combinations and trusts. I am sorry, too, that the interests of the wool growers have not been more fully protected according to their wishes. But with all of its defects, and they are numerous and serious, the pending bill is, in my judgment, upon the whole, a much more equitable and a far better measure, viewed from the protective standpoint, than the existing law, in that it affords some measure of protection to a large number of interests which have no protection whatever under the present law, and I shall, therefore, give it my vote. I cannot, however, refrain from adding that in my private opinion it will prove a disadvantage to those who are expecting an era of prosperity to follow its enactment. The tariff of the existing law, and beyond the power of any tariff to correct. In my opinion, they are to be found in much greater degree in our inequitable financial system, which fails to maintain a just relation between the value of money and other forms of property."

AN ANALYSIS. An analysis of the final vote shows that the affirmative vote was cast by 35 Republicans, 2 Silver Republicans, Jones of Nevada and Mantle, and one Democrat (McEnery). Total—38. The negative vote was cast by 25 Democrats, 2 Populists, Harris of Kansas and Turner, and one Silver Republican (Cannon). Total—28.

STORY OF THE DAY. The champion gave thanks for the singing of the national anthem, and brought "out the tariff bill and dismantled the fears of its opponents and excused the house of its advocates. In effect upon public prosperity and activity."

HOW IT WAS DONE. Last Day of Tariff Debate in the Senate. By the decisive vote of 38 to 28 the tariff bill was passed in the senate shortly before 5 o'clock today.

SALT LAKE MAY GET THE N. E. A.

There is a Merry War on in Milwaukee. MANY SCHOOLMA'AMS WEAR UTAH'S BADGE

Our Delegates Untiring in Their Efforts. "Salt Lake Stands Unique Among American Cities," Says L. M. Gillilan, in Its Historic and Scenic Attractions—Board of Directors Said to be Casting a Kindly Eye Toward the City by the Great Salt Lake.

(Special to The Herald.) Milwaukee, July 7.—The campaign for the 188 convention of the National Educational association has become a merry war.

Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, Omaha, Washington and Boston are in the race and their chances seem to be in the order in which they are here placed.

The Utah delegation have been exceedingly wide awake. They have opened headquarters at both the Frisco and Plankinton hotels, and the yellow badges of their favorite city, with the famous Mormon temple, has been pinned on the bosom of many a fair schoolma'am and decorates the lapel of probably a majority of the male teachers who have come within reach of the persuasive eloquence of the Utah workers.

"Our claims," said L. M. Gillilan of the committee of Salt Lake citizens who are here to advocate its advantages, "are that our city stands unique among American cities in its historic and scenic attractions. We have more and better scenery than anywhere."

There is no question as to the energy and ability of the Utah delegates in working and talking for their city. The board of directors of the association has not yet taken any action, but it is said a majority favor the Utah city.

SALT LAKE OR OMAHA. Late tonight the fight for the next convention has come down to Salt Lake City and Omaha, with chances in favor of the former. The directors will probably decide on the choice tomorrow.

The Salt Lake delegation is making every effort to get the "backed off" in Hynd's gambling house at Rock Springs, losing all his ready money. Kinney had three certificates amounting in all to $500. These he cashed at the bar, one after the other, quickly losing them on playing faro.

THE GAMBLING DECISION IN WYOMING. Under the State Law the Gambler is Entitled to Everything He Wins—Similar Case in Salt Lake.

(Special to The Herald.) Cheyenne, Wyo., July 7.—A novel case and one of the most sensational in the history of the state is now pending in the supreme court today.

The case was that of Henry W. H. Hynds, a gambler, against the State of Wyoming. Hynds is a resident of the State of Wyoming, and is a gambler.

JUDGE POWERS TALKS OF GOLD

Delegates to Denver's Convention Given Points. POWERS SETS THE PACE FOR OTHERS

What Utah is Doing in the Production of Gold.

One of the Important Features of Yesterday's Work Was the Adoption of a Rule Excluding Politics From the Consideration of the Convention—John Fern and Angus M. Cannon Elected Officers—Governor Alva Adams' Speech—Ex-Governor Prince, of New Mexico, President.

(Special to The Herald.) Denver, Colo., July 7.—The first international gold mining convention opened today with a large attendance, and an enthusiasm extremely gratifying to those who first suggested the affair, and have since been working assiduously to make it a success.

The most important action of today's session was the adoption of a rule excluding politics from the consideration of the convention.

A permanent organization was effected with ex-Governor Prince, of New Mexico, as president.

A resolution was adopted asking congress to put aside the petroleum on the free list, and a committee was chosen to draft a memorial to congress to create a department of mines and mining with a place in the cabinet.

John Fern, of the University of Chicago, read the first paper, "The Kindergarten and Child Study," which was listened to with great interest.

Miss Bertha Payne, an associate of John Fern, read a paper on "The Kindergarten," which was listened to with great interest.

Dr. J. M. Morrill, kindergarten supervisor of the New York public schools, read a paper on "The Kindergarten," which was listened to with great interest.

PRES. WOODRUFF IS VERY ILL

His Physician Says He is in a Most Critical Condition. HIS CASE IS COMPLICATED

Fatty Degeneration of the Heart the Worst Feature. Has Also Dropsical Symptoms Complicated by Inflammation of the Bladder—Was Taken Seriously Ill on Saturday—The Excitement Consequent to the Laying of the Foundation Stone of the Brigham Young Monument Too Much For the Aged Veteran.

For the past few days President Woodruff has been quite unwell, and last night he was reported to be in a very critical condition indeed. For some time he has been gaining flesh and from his normal weight of about 130 pounds he has increased to 155 pounds and is threatened with fatty degeneration of the heart and has also developed dropsical symptoms complicated by inflammation of the bladder and thrombosis.

The venerable president was present at the laying of the foundation stone of the Brigham Young monument, and although he took no active part in the ceremonies, the importance of the occasion was productive of considerable excitement to a man of his active temperament and years, and since then he has been confined to his bed. His heart is very feeble and the great danger is that it may stop at any moment. He has also suffered a good deal from inflammation of the bladder, and altogether he is in a most critical condition.

Dr. Snow is attending him, and besides making frequent visits to the bedside of the aged veteran, is kept advised of his condition almost hourly. He has also suffered a good deal from inflammation of the bladder, and altogether he is in a most critical condition.

PROSPERITY FOR THE TRUSTS.

In the United States Senate yesterday, during the progress of the vote on the tariff bill, Senator Teller, of Colorado, a life-long Republican, said:

"In my judgment it is THE WORST TARIFF BILL EVER PASSED. It takes care of all the trusts in the country, and I say it without offense, the trusts and combinations and syndicates have had too much to do with this bill."

Generally, these cautious, wise and conservative views prevail in railroad and other securities circles. It is not surprising, therefore, that the large number of delegates on the floor by telling them what Utah is doing in the way of gold mining. He took Utah in general and Mercury in particular, for his theme, and made one of the most stirring addresses of the day, in which he took occasion to get the pace for California, Montana and Colorado, and he did it in a way that challenged the direct interest of the large number of delegates on the floor by telling them what Utah is doing in the way of gold mining.

WYOMING BANDITS CAUGHT

HOLE-IN-THE-WALL GANG IS NOW BROKEN UP. Most Villainous Gang of Desperadoes That Ever Infested the State—Cattle Men Are Happy.

(Special to The Herald.) Cheyenne, Wyo., July 7.—Sheriff Coates of Weston county, who is here, received word tonight from New Castle that Sheriff Inspector Lewis of Summit county had captured a gang of desperadoes known as the Hole-in-the-Wall gang. They were George Currie and the Roberts brothers. Currie is the leader of the gang, and has been a terror to the cattle men of this county since he was captured in Johnson county, Wyoming, and the Roberts brothers are members of the Hole-in-the-Wall gang.

The Hole-in-the-Wall gang was captured at the time of the robbery, and the only one who was not captured was Currie. He was captured at the time of the robbery, and the only one who was not captured was Currie.
