

WINTER ON THE SHEEP

A Number of Bands Are Perishing Near Milford.

WEATHER VERY SEVERE

TWENTY BELOW ZERO AND THE SNOW IS DEEP.

Death of the Oldest Citizen of Richfield—Beet Raisers Hold a Conference with Manager Cutler—Madame Mountford's Photographs—Old Jail Bird Convicted—Logan Politics.

(From the Herald's Correspondents.) Milford, Jan. 4.—The winter of 1892-93 will long be remembered as the severest for many years in this section of the country.

A number of bands of sheep are perishing for want of feed, and some of Milford's men are sending men out to search for herbs, and are hauling in all they can buy. In nearly every instance the price paid is not more than one-fourth of the value of the sheep when they were sent to the valley which have a few tons of lucern and straw will reap the fruits of the sheepmen's necessities.

Inasmuch as this suffering has come upon the herds so early this winter, it is a matter of grave concern as to how it will be possible to get the sheep through another storm of this kind, should it come in the month of February or March.

SUGAR BEETS AND SEED.

Farmers' Union Committee and Manager Cutler Hold a Conference.

Lehi, Utah, Jan. 4.—The committee appointed by the Farmers' Union some time ago to confer with Manager T. R. Cutler of the Utah Sugar company concerning the price of beets, met this afternoon, and the old choir will participate.

The committee consisted of W. H. Winn, William Southwick, B. Latt, C. Schaefer and M. Woodhouse. A friendly discussion, lasting for three hours, ensued, and it was agreed that the German and Utah seed principally should be supplied to the farmers here this season. The company has about 1,500 pounds of French seed on hand, which it will use itself, as it desires the farmers to have the best, and at the best possible price. To guard against the possibility of their old poor seed getting into the hands of the farmers, $200 worth was destroyed last year, and $800 worth will be destroyed this year. The company has prepared contracts for this season, and sent them out to the south and to Salt Lake county to be signed by the farmers. They are the same as last year, with two exceptions. The price of beets are $1.25, and the seed 15c per pound. It was represented to the farmers that the Sugar company is trying to do right by them, and that they get a good price for their beets, and were doing much better than the beet-raisers of Europe. Where they get 14 to 15 tons to the acre they have a good crop.

The committee will meet the Union tonight, and these matters will be discussed, and the matter, perhaps, settled. It is reported that the committee from the cities in the south were to meet the Union today, but they have not yet shown up.

In the cross-examination the prosecuting attorney asked Lewis, "Blackie," had you ever been in the penitentiary?" "Yes, that's me, and I guess you have got my record along with it." RECEIVER FOR WATERWORKS.

PLAINTIFFS IN THE BIG FIGHT MAKE A NEW MOVE.

Petition for the Appointment of a Receiver and Alleged That the Bear River Company Is Insolvent.

Moves in the game for the possession of the Ogden waterworks system are made rapidly. Monday Judge Marshall denied the motion for the defendants to have the case heard.

The motion was made on the ground that the plaintiff's have an interest in the property and the proceeds derived from it; that the property is in danger of being diverted or lost if it remains in the custody of the plaintiff. The claim is made also that the Bear River Irrigation and Ogden Waterworks company are insolvent.

E. M. Conroy, L. N. Pierce and H. C. Wardle make affidavit setting forth first, their interest as taxpayers and the old claim they were members of the waterworks company. They allege that the waterworks company collects about $100,000 per annum and about half of that sum becomes due Jan. 1, according to the system of collecting in advance.

The affidavit recites the efforts of the defendant company to have the case transferred from the district court and further, that the defendant company is insolvent, having no property not covered by trust deed or mortgage.

Judge Rolapp set the time for hearing the motion for tonight at 7:30 p. m. E. M. Allison of course succeeds H. H. Henderson in the conduct of the case with C. C. Richards, C. C. Day and J. H. McMillan.

The case of the Commercial National bank against the treasurer of Weber county, was heard yesterday by Judge Rolapp.

The decision was for the defendant, giving the judgment in the sum of $1,275.85. However this was something of a victory for the bank people, as the amount assessed against them was $2,455.55.
