

SOCIETY

The devotees of society are keeping Lent this year in a manner that must be encouraging to those interested in society's religious welfare. So little has been done in a social way that no Lenten restrictions have been violated. There were, however, a few spots in the social horizon of the past week. The visit of the governors of Wyoming and Colorado added much to the social activity of the week. Tuesday afternoon Governor Wells gave an elaborate luncheon in their honor at the Alta club. The same afternoon Mrs. N. W. Clayton entertained at luncheon at her home in honor of the wives of the visiting governors, while the same evening witnessed a brilliant reception at the Knutsford, at which the visitors were again the guests of honor.

Miss Lottie Holmes, Miss Winnie Sprague, Miss May Roberts, Miss Schettler, Mr. Sam Porter, Mr. Fred Armstrong, Mr. Otis Cross, Mr. Ralph Watterman, Mr. Roy Brown, Mr. Charles Braff, Mr. Sprague, Mr. M. Sprague, Mr. Charles McFadden and Mr. Herman Schettler. The members of the Cottillon club will give a German at Christensen's Friday night. The Monday Afternoon Card club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Brink. "Sixty-three" was the game of the afternoon. Mrs. Scarff and Mrs. Bennett won the club prizes, and Mrs. Archer the visitors' prize.

matinee, yesterday her reputation amounted to an enthusiastic ovation. Mrs. N. W. Clayton was the hostess of a very pretty appointed luncheon Tuesday afternoon, which was given in compliment to Mrs. W. A. Richards of Wyoming and Mrs. Alva Adams of Colorado. THE "QUEEN" SKIRT SUPPORTER. A GREAT INVENTION! No more parting of Waists and Skirts, INVISIBLE, worn under any kind of belt; all strains removed from exterior; no more cracking or stretching of leather. Made from fine metal, very soft and pliable, with catches fitted into catches for the purpose. Belt and six catches, enough for 25c three dresses.

SOME SHOE CHANCES. What kind of shoes? The very, very best. Never fear the consequences, but depend on what we tell you about them. We can only afford to care for your interests. These shoes alone will protect our business reputation. MISSES' velveteen lace shoes, all sizes and widths made by Dugan & Hildner, of Rochester, N. Y., no leather manufactured; we sold them for $2.50; this week $1.68 they are. WOMEN'S Dongola, button shoes, patent leather tipped, colored toes, this week will sell for 98c. CHILD'S velveteen lace shoes, turned soles, patent leather tipped, colored toes, sizes 6 to 8, this week for 75c. Men's Bicycle Shoes. Made by Norman & Bennett, hand-sewed, in black or tan. These sell the week over for $1; as a special for one week they go at $2.45.

KNIT UNDERWEAR. We have received a great stock of knit underwear for spring and summer—sweaters, T-shirts, all former gatherings—every stock of underwear worn by women and children is represented here, and we should like to make the acquaintance before purchasing for the season. This week women's spring weight, long sleeve vests, crew and white, drawers to match, per garment. 25c and 35c.

WALKER'S STORE. MILLINERY OPENING Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 21, 22 and 23.

NEW SPRING MILLINERY. This announcement of the first view of our New Spring Millinery contains an invitation to you to visit our Store and examine the collection. We think not even Paris, that proverbial birthplace of the creative genius of beauty, could show a more superb gathering of the richest and newest in millinery art. While many are direct Parisian imports, the very nobility of artistic headwear, bearing the proudest names known to the millinery world, still charming and original ideas by our own clever designers, who go east for a post graduate course each season, are not less admirable. MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

SPRING SUITS FOR YOUR BOY. A WATCH FREE WITH EACH! We have been casting about some time for an article with which to present our boys that would not only be appreciated, but lasting. Footballs, baseballs, skates, etc., have been tried, but are useful only in seasons. So this time a WATCH is decided upon—a good time-keeper with a guarantee of one year; nickel-plated, Arabian dial. It is a duty you owe the boy to see that he gets one. Suits are all new, stylish, well made, carefully lined, water-tight, are attractive, "correct," in fact, throughout. This week, A Watch Free with each suit from $3.50 up, for ages 2 1/2 to 15 years.

THE CARPET STORE. Here is an interesting spot these days for lovers of the house beautiful. New carpets, new loom productions, both in color scheme and designs for spring from gorgeous royal wiltons down to 15c lamp. New rugs, the finest on earth, Oriental and domestic; made from all kinds of handsome carpets, all sizes. New concepts in draperies have come from companies from Germany, France and Switzerland. Illustrations of artistic weaving and color effects—when Americans make them equally well though, we do not have foreigners' best of all in their small productions. See them early.

FOR THE TOILET TABLE. Excellent bristle hair brushes with hard wood backs, large size reduced from 60c to 35c. Patey's cold cream reduced from 25c to 10c. Witch-hazel, 8 ounce bottle, regular price 15c, for 10c. Odonthal, for the teeth—equal to Odontol, 25c bottle this week 35c.

NEW UMBRELLAS. Our collection just now is worthy an especial visit to the store if for nothing more than to see the great variety, or rather unique concepts in handle fashions, for which all kinds of woods are utilized, carved and plain, bone, china, metal, etc., and this season we are making a specialty of one line, whose equals were never sold here there. Steel rod, right, left, red, excellent quality covering for 75c.

SPRING SILKS AND DRESS GOODS. That this store is headquarters for the world's best has long since been conceded. NEW ARRIVALS THIS WEEK are some rare things in jewelry and spangled effects for fronts and bodices—black net with fish scales in black and steel, very well-black and turquoise, black and gold. New crackle nets and beautiful grenadines have just come in rich profusion.

RARE SILKS. For elegant gowning a favorite this season is black taffeta. We carry the Swiss goods, which do not crack, and retain their beauty always; selling as high as $2.50 and various prices, down $1.15. Plain and changeable taffetas in all colors, beautiful waist silks in ombre blacks—all the rich greens, yale and army blues in saty dresses, so popular this season for waists and trimmings, are here in rich profusion. NEW ARRIVALS—15 pieces of silk and wool Umbrellas, fine similes of the new waist silks; make elegant shirt waists for women, and "misses' suits; just the right thing for those wanting silk and wool mixtures $1.00.

SPRING DRESS GOODS. Our spring collection of dress goods is certainly the largest ever gotten together in the west, and one which offers the most extensive range of choice. Scores of splendid novelties appear—here is a little group for the coming week, commencing Monday: Displayed on First Table—Handsome English Coat Suits, beautiful 33c mixtures, the yard at 37c. On second table will be 50 pieces spring fabrics, styles the equal of $1.00 37c. Besides three hundred bolts of handsome spring dress fabrics, the 50c.
