

lary Algor, sent out one regiment of troops tonight.
Boston, Mass., April 25.—The concentration of the army at Pimlico has actually begun, and by night troops of the First Brigade will be under canvas, and awaiting orders of the war department. The first command to reach the camp grounds was the first separate company (colored) of Baltimore. The streets are filled with uniformed men, scurrying in every direction.

No one is allowed on board the cruiser.
BLOCKADE OF MATANZAS.
Position of Ships—No New Captures and All Quiet.
Matanzas, via Key West, April 25, 7:45 a. m.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The Dauntless, the dispatch boat of the Associated Press, arrived at Havana this morning at the squadron at Matanzas. Just after the flag-ship New York sailed, presumably for Key West. She followed the flag-ship for an hour and then gave up the chase, as the destination of the New York was apparently clear. She was alongside the Indiana for a while.

Are More Mortal Than Those We Can Inflict.
TWENTY THOUSAND
SIGH FOR A REPUBLIC
Significant Address to Senor Castellar, the Republican Leader.
Forthcoming Address in the Cortes Will Be a Panegyric on Spain's Past Greatness—Spaniards Are Really Puzzled to Know Where the Money to Conduct a Gigantic War Is to Come From—Memorandum to the Powers.

There has been no incident worth noting since the capture of the Spanish steamer Catalina and two schooners in the early morning.
The United States line are doubtless still off Cienfuegos.
On her way from Havana to Matanzas, the Dauntless passed the torpedo boat destroyer, going to report to the flag-ship.

AT NAVAL BUREAU.
News Carefully Guarded—Asiatic Fleet Has No Home.
Washington, April 25.—There was a dearth of news from the seat of hostilities off the Cuban coast, so far as the navy department was concerned, or if it was in possession of information it was so carefully guarded that nothing leaked out.
A few telegrams came from Key West announcing the arrival there of the prizes whose capture has been reported through the press. Nothing could be obtained as to the intentions of Commodore Schley in so hastily rushing the United States cruisers, and Minneapolis from Hampton Roads, but it is believed that their purpose is to shelter the Paris or some of the liners from attack by the Spanish cruisers. There are talks of establishing a supply depot in the Philippines to meet the conditions in Asiatic waters.

Its Past Greatness.
Senor Castellar's speech will be a panegyric of Spain's past greatness.
The newspapers of this city are all provincial with rumors of captures made by the war vessels of Spain or the United States and with reports of the movements of American warships, combined with patriotic utterances from all quarters of the kingdom.
DIPLOMATIC POINT LOST.
A new point has been raised relative to the non-delivery of the ultimatum of the United States. The view now taken is that its non-delivery leaves the United States pledged in regard to the Cuban independence. Thus, it is pointed out, while her pride is gratified, Spain has lost a diplomatic point.

More Colored Troops.
The Tenth cavalry (colored) from Forts Ashtabula and Keosee, Mont. 450 men, in command of Colonel Guy V. Henry, with Captains Hunt, Reed, Woodward and Jones, arrived today.
In compliance with an order without much delay and unloaded. This is the third regiment of colored cavalry to arrive at Chickamauga.
The Twenty-fourth Infantry, which arrived at Fort Douglas, Mo., on Monday, April 20, and went into camp today in the south end of McDonald field, known to the veterans of the Chickamauga conflict as the "field of confusion." This regiment will be organized by Major C. K. Colley, second brigade of infantry.

OPENED FIRE ON THE FOOT.
(Continued from Page 1.)
take back any mail. In ten minutes a boat returned with this message:
"Captain Chester's compliments, and he will be obliged if you will take in the mail. You may go. We see that you steam due west six miles when you make your first course, or you may set into more trouble."

NEW YORK AND ST. LOUIS.
Rumors Concerning the Part These Ships Will Play Soon.
New York, April 25.—The American line steamers St. Louis and the New York of the United States Steamship Company, are being coaled today, every inch of space usually used for freight being filled with coal.

TO PROTECT THE PARIS.
Cruisers Columbia and Minneapolis at a Convenient Point.
Boston, Mass., April 25.—The cruiser Minneapolis arrived off Cape Cod at dusk tonight. The cruiser Columbia is at Newport. It is thought the government has stationed the two cruisers at a convenient point to protect the Paris on her way from Grand Banks to New York.

Male Nurses Wanted.
Cleveland, April 25.—Recruiting Officer Day, located here, received orders from Washington today to enlist all the men he possibly could for the hospital corps. Men between 21 and 35 are wanted. Experience in nursing is not required. The men are to be enlisted at the hospital branch of the service.

WAR BILL SIGNED.
Before the Sun Went Down Yesterday It Became a Law.
Washington, April 25.—The war bill was brought from the capitol by the clerk of the enrolling division and reached the White House yesterday morning. The White House was almost deserted at the time, not one of the cabinet being with the president. The bill was signed by the president in his office immediately after the signing of the bill.

Yacht and Battery of Artillery Offered by John Jacob Astor.
Washington, April 25.—John Jacob Astor of New York, not content with offering the government free his splendid yacht, the Northampton, and free transportation for troops and supplies over the railroads in which he is interested, has come forward with notice that he has raised and equipped at his own expense a battery of artillery which he desires to offer to the government under his own plans, for service in Cuba.

ALASKA BOUNDARY ISSUE.
Modus Vivendi Agreement Will Be Signed Shortly Concluded.
London, April 25.—Mr. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, announced in the house of commons today that the proposal to refer the Alaskan boundary to arbitration was under consideration upon the part of the government of the United States and Great Britain. Mr. Chamberlain added that there was good reason to believe that an agreement for a modus vivendi in regard to the passes leading to the mining districts will be shortly concluded pending a final adjustment of the boundary.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

PAINTED DARK GRAY.
Nothing Else to Identify Five War Ships Passing Hayti.
Port Au Prince, Hayti, April 25.—Haytien coasting vessel which has just arrived here reports having sighted five warships painted dark gray, passing the point of the northern part of Hayti, Saturday.

UNLUCKY BOAT SOMERS.
London, April 25.—The officials of the United States embassy here the United States torpedo boat Somers, now at Falmouth, is destined to remain in England for some time to come, as the neutrality proclamation will be issued tomorrow, and no convoy for the little craft, without which it is impossible for her to attempt to cross the Atlantic, has been secured.

NAVY RESERVE FORCES.
Washington, April 25.—The house committee on naval affairs has agreed to report favorably to the house the administration resolution creating an additional reserve force of 10,000 men. The measure vests the number of volunteers so called out in the discretion of the president, and the men are to be used for the coast guard, in the defense of harbors on the coast line.

NAVY MATTERS AT FRISCO.
San Francisco, April 25.—Within another 24 hours three government boats will have been assigned to patrol service in and about the local harbor. Today the cutters Itish, Corwin and Grant lowered their revenue flags, and hoisted the navy ensign instead.

TELEGRAMS TO BUENOS AYRES.
New York, April 25.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: The Spanish gun vessel Téméraire is still lying at anchor in the outer roads at Montevideo, and it is believed that she will remain there for the present. The United States battleship Oregon and the gunboat Marietta have not been sighted.

TELEGRAMS TO BUENOS AYRES.
New York, April 25.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: The Spanish gun vessel Téméraire is still lying at anchor in the outer roads at Montevideo, and it is believed that she will remain there for the present. The United States battleship Oregon and the gunboat Marietta have not been sighted.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.

ABOARD THE NEW YORK.
On Board the Flagship New York, off Havana, April 25, 1898.—(Copyrighted, 1898, by the Associated Press.)—The early morning hours today were taken up by a vigorous chasing of moving lights. The only vessel spoken was the British schooner Iolanthe, of Windsor, N. S. She was allowed to proceed, she being bound for Matanzas. No shots have been fired since yesterday morning, on either side.