

HANNA GANG ON TOP

Republican Boss Owns the Ohio State Convention. GROSVENOR'S "KEY NOTE"

NONE BUT HANNAITES ARE GOOD CITIZENS. Mouthpiece of the Administration Will Not Fraternize With Any Man Who Is Not a "Loyal Republican"

Columbus, O., June 21.—The Republican state convention today was almost free from the factional fighting of former years. The "national administration" Republicans were so strong that the opposition to them was not felt anywhere.

When Hon. H. M. Daugherty called the convention to order at 4 p. m., the only disturbance was that of the Twenty-first congressional district. The Hanna delegates got in early, through the indulgence of an unscrupulous chairman, and were seated in the front of the hall.

GROSVENOR'S BLAST. On being introduced as temporary chairman, Congressman Grosvenor at once entered upon a review of the administration of the present national administration.

Referring to the policy of the administration in Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines, Mr. Grosvenor said in part: "We are confronted with some new questions; new questions of national policy. One of them relates to the question of whether or not we will hold and fortify and eternally, with the blessing of God, defend the Hawaiian Islands as part of the territory of the United States."

"It will be the policy of the administration to plant the flag of the United States in Hawaii; to occupy it and to fortify it and make it a part of the territory of the United States, and when the war is over we will then settle the question of what sort of a government we shall have over there. (Enthusiastic cheers.)

"Momentous issues are before us. Great questions of policy, growing out of the capture of territory, questions that will be new in American politics; questions that will challenge the statesmanship of the hour; questions that will be settled before the party that made McKinley president, than by any other party that can be formed in the United States. Let us wait. It is not until the Philippine Islands now. It is not important to settle the character of the government, the stable government which we shall have over there, until proper just now to settle the status of Porto Rico, for we have not got soldiers on the soil of Porto Rico, but when the time comes, you must be prepared to settle all the world knows that William McKinley, backed and supported by the Republicans of this country, will settle all these questions in the most judicious and from the standpoint of American progress in the career that God has marked for us in the world. (Applause.)

"I make no pronouncement except this: I doubt much whether you and I will live to see the day when, by the order of a Republican administration, and surely not by the order of McKinley's administration, the sturdy banner of your country's glory shall be pulled down from any flagstaff where conquest of arms has placed it." (Great applause.)

OHIO SITUATION. Continuing, Mr. Grosvenor touched upon the situation in Ohio, in the following words: "In the light of these mighty surroundings, the quiet of your country, in contrast with the other countries of the world, the pressing duty of the citizens of the country to stand by the administration of the government, how contemptible, how small is the factional fight that singles out men to punish for some supposed political error of theirs. (Applause.) How contemptible is the greedy rush of political power and domination when the ultimate wish and hope of every American citizen is that the republic in Ohio shall be strengthened and uphold the loyalty and patriotism of the American people. (Applause.)

"I am ready to bury a tyrant, but that happened in the past if the man who was guilty of some wrong at the time will be an honest Republican today. (Cheering.) I am not willing to fraternize with any man who is not a loyal Republican today. (Continued applause.)

READY-MADE RESOLUTIONS. The original programme had Senator Hanna for temporary chairman today, and Senator Foraker for permanent chairman tomorrow, but neither of the senators could leave Washington, pending consideration of Hawaiian annexation, and Congressman Charles H. Grosvenor was substituted for each of them. His keynote speech has been anticipated with interest, as he is recognized as a confidante of the national administration. General Grosvenor did not arrive until today. It is understood that the national administration has certain resolutions that were endorsed by the senators and others, among them being a resolution favoring the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands.

PORTO RICO PLAN POSTPONED

ABANDONED. Active Influences at European Capitals and in Spain. PEACE AT ANY PRICE. STRONGLY URGED BY THE BARCELONA PRESS.

Even the Madrid Newspapers Are Calling Attention to the Injury Caused by the War—Premier Sagasta May Resign and the Queen Regent Has Sent Her Jewels Away

Madrid, June 21, midnight.—The ministerial El Correo, without openly championing peace, which would be considered unpatriotic, calls attention to the injury the war is causing trade and industry, especially in the Catalan districts, where the factories are closed or running on half time. It also points out that the government's decision to pay the exterior coupons and the interest on Cuban bonds in pesetas will leave the treasury no resource except to increase taxation.

In the chamber of deputies today Senor Sagasta declined to give his consent to a declaration of the government's international policy. London, June 22.—The Madrid correspondent of the Times says that El Diario de Barcelona, one of the most important of the provincial newspapers, strongly urges the immediate conclusion of peace. "Because every day's delay raised the price at which peace is obtainable, and the American resources are such that even if all the American squadrons are destroyed, Spain ought still to demand peace at a price."

London, June 21.—The correspondent at Paris of the Pall Mall Gazette telegraphed this afternoon that he learns from the principal promoter of peace negotiations on Cuban bonds in pesetas will leave the treasury no resource except to increase taxation.

He adds that some of the ambassadors in Paris were instructed yesterday to remain on the alert and in readiness to receive the news of the conclusion of peace. The correspondent says it is expected that an event of importance in opening negotiations with the United States and Spain will occur within a few days.

M. Hanotaux, the French minister for foreign affairs in the Melne cabinet, backed by the Czar, has, it seems, been the principal promoter of peace negotiations, hence President Faure's desire to retain M. Hanotaux in the foreign office.

SAGASTA MAY RESIGN. Would Be Succeeded by a More Energetic Government. Madrid, June 21.—There are rumors current here today that the cortes may suspend its sessions the coming week, when Senor Pulgarver, the minister of finance, is expected to resign. It is thought the premier, Sagasta, will be compelled to submit to the queen regent a question of confidence in the ministry, and if the cortes should vote against him, he will be obliged to resign.

QUEEN WILL NOT ABDICATE, But Has Sent Her Jewels and Valuables to Vienna. London, June 22.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: The Spanish queen regent's jewels and valuables were brought to Vienna, but it is declared in official quarters that, though the situation is precarious, she will remain in Spain until her post becomes untenable.

Rumors as to abdication are quite baseless. It is said, however, that Emperor Francis Joseph has recently written to the pope on the subject of intervention.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS. Luther Benson, the noted temperance lecturer, died at Rushville, Ind. Congressman Mason Peters was re-elected by the populists of the Second Kansas district.

Congressman Irvin P. Wanger was re-elected by the populists in the Seventh Pennsylvania district. Statement of the condition of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $38,000,000. The fourth annual convention of the Commercial Law League of America will be held at Philadelphia, Pa., on July 1.

The supreme lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen is holding its 23rd annual convention at Astor Park, N. J. The flour mill and elevator of Isaac Staples burned at Stillwater, Minn., causing a loss of $150,000, with $40,000 insurance. The fire was caused by a short circuit in the machinery.

The Sultan of Turkey, according to the Frankfurt Zeitung, has purchased 2,000 square yards of land at Jerusalem, which he will present to Emperor William as a site for a German monastery. A raft containing 3,200,000 feet of lumber, the property of the Pacific & Co., was started down the Willamette river on route to San Francisco, and followed by 74 feet of water.

The Illinois state building at the Omaha exposition was dedicated in the presence of Governor John D. Edwards and his full staff, the exposition committee of that state and probably 10,000 citizens of Illinois. The Indian appropriation bill now pending on the conference report retains an amendment making the article of the Coville Indian reservation in Washington, subject to entry under the mining laws.

During a military review today at Dutschka, near Opatowitz, east Prussia, a soldier of the 10th Prussian Infantry, who had been established, fired at General von Rast, wounding him in the leg and killing his horse.

Owing to the refusal of former Premier Dupuy to accept the French foreign office portfolio, the late M. Loubet, as decided minister of finance M. Sarrien has decided to relinquish the task of attempting to form a cabinet.

The secretary of the navy has ordered a general court martial to meet at the navy yard at New York on July 1, on charge of neglect of duty and culpable disobedience of orders by the crew of the U. S. S. Albatross, a gunboat, which was captured by the Spanish navy in the Philippines.

TAX ON CLUBS INCREASED BY THE FEDERATION COUNCIL.

CLUBS WILL WITHDRAW. LARGE ORGANIZATIONS WILL NOT STAND THE RAISE. Dark Horse Candidate for the Presidency Is Mrs. Lowe of Georgia—More Wire-pulling That at a Populist Convention—Curtailment of the Proclivity to Talk.

Denver, Colo., June 21.—Important action was taken this afternoon by the council of the general Federation of Women's clubs on the increased taxation of clubs. This advisory body will recommend to the national convention of individual clubs at the rate of 10 cents per capita, and state federations at the rate of 25 cents per club, beginning with 1900. Under this new ruling, an organization of 100 women would pay $100, for instance, would have its taxation raised from $10 to $100 biennially. Many large clubs declare they will withdraw unless the rate is reduced.

Dark Horse Candidate for the Presidency Is Mrs. Lowe of Georgia—More Wire-pulling That at a Populist Convention—Curtailment of the Proclivity to Talk. Mrs. Lowe of Georgia, a dark horse candidate for the presidency, is expected to be nominated at the Populist convention in Chicago. She is a woman of considerable influence and is believed to have a strong chance of success.

At the same time Mrs. Julia B. Shattuck of Chicago, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported that she had a minimum estimate of the money needed to expenses the next two years. There would have been an indebtedness at this convention had not the officers borne many expenses out of their own pockets, one woman having given $2,000.

This afternoon at the union meeting of state presidents and state correspondents, the subject of holding individual clubs from the general federation came up for animated discussion, the idea being to make the national organization a system of state bodies.

This evening in the parlors of the Brown Palace hotel was held a reception for the federation officers, the state presidents and the state chairmen of correspondence. At the Central Presbyterian church there was also a complimentary lecture on "Colorado vs. Switzerland" by C. M. Hobbs of Denver, arranged by the women's biennial local board.

DARK HORSE CANDIDATE. The dark horse candidate for the presidency of the general Federation of Women's clubs, within 12 hours there has been a decided turn of affairs, and the name of Mrs. W. B. Lowe of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Georgia federation, has been mentioned everywhere. Though not known far beyond the borders of her state, she is declared to be fitted in every way for the position.

Mrs. Alice B. Platt of Boston, who has been the office if she wanted it, but she stated positively today she would not accept the nomination. If her decision remains unchanged, the west will go solidly with the south and a large portion of the east, with the exception of the coteries that will support Mrs. Alice B. Platt of Boston, will follow suit.

Mrs. Ellen Hendon, by virtue of her present office, is non-committal on the matter, but Mrs. Platt may accept the nomination for vice president, maintains that the south needs the impetus that the honor would give it.

This is a vital question which is buzzing in the bonnets of these brainy women has induced more wire pulling than at a Populist convention. At break of day candidates presented for nomination, and the women were divided into two camps, the one favoring the one and the other favoring the other.

As preliminary to the opening program tomorrow today was devoted to a little of everything, from securing a hall for the convention to the election of officers. The plan for the convention is now being carried out in every way, and the women are greatly pleased with the prospect of the hospitality for which the women of Boston are noted.

CURTAINMENT OF TALK. One important move is the efforts to curtail the feminine proclivity to talk. The rule is no woman can talk more than once on a matter longer than three minutes. Fraternization is prohibited, such as the suffrage societies and the Daughters of the Revolution keep open house for their sisters. Social affairs were held over the day, and the important one being a luncheon this noon by Mrs. James Walker to Mrs. Ed. Bennett of New York. Among the conspicuous delegates is Mrs. William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska, who gets in free silver doctrine on the side.

Mrs. Hendon's face fairly beams at the sight of her loyal following. This fourth convention she believes will be marked by co-ordination of forces, as the first convention in Chicago was marked by the same thing. Philadelphia to state federations, the third in Louisville to the espousal of education.

A PERILOUS VOYAGE. Sixty People Start For Alaska On River Steamers. Seattle, Wash., June 21.—Sixty men and women left here tonight for the mouth of the Yukon river in two river steamers, the Alford and the W. H. Evans, in tow of the steamer Noyo. The trip is considered to be a hazardous one, but the people comprising the expedition are well equipped and are getting to Alaska to consider the risk.

The terms of the contract under which the Noyo is towing the boats provides that the towage is to be made in a storm if the strain is too great. In this event the river boats expect to get up steam and run on their own engines.

On the Alfred H. Beach are 23 men and two women, comprising a company known as the Alaska Mutual Transportation & Mining association, nearly all of whom are from Chicago. The Evans carries 35 people, members of the Evans Klondike Expedition company. It is expected to make the trip in 15 days, if good weather holds.

MINING CONGRESS DELEGATES. Prominent Citizens Appointed By the Governor of Missouri. Jefferson City, Mo., June 21.—Governor Richardson B. Ross has appointed the following well known Missourians to represent the state at the international mining congress, to be held at Salt Lake, Utah, July 6, 7, 8 and 9, 1898: Mayor Henry Zoeglein, Hon. William J. Stone, Charles D. McClure, Alexander G. Cochran, John Hartman, L. C. Nelson, Harry B. Hawes, St. Louis Joseph B. Shannon, Frank Decker, O. G. Young, Kansas City: J. C. Fisher, R. Dallameyer, Jefferson City: Dr. L. J. Misner, Smithville: Charles McElroy, Booneville: M. R. Smith, Farmington: Dr. John Hall, Marshall: J. Todd, Maryville: W. T. Baird, Kirksville: Professor George R. Dean, Dr. J. E. Carpenter, Rolla: John McNeill, Potosi: E. D. Ake, Fronton: M. M. Pryor, Glasgow: John M. London, Caseyville: George Wilson, Lexington: G. G. Linton, Clinton: W. S. McHittie, Monroe City: Elijah Miller, Denver: W. P. Lyon, Kansas City, and John S. Clay, Farmington.

NO CONQUEST SAYS GROVER

EX-PRESIDENT IS IN LINE WITH BRYAN. Dangers That Threaten American Citizenship at This Time—Course of New and Strange Adventure.

Princeton, N. J., June 21.—Grover Cleveland delivered the annual Founder's day address of the commencement exercises of the Lawrenceville school here today. His address was entitled "Good Citizenship," and in the course of his remarks he said: "The American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

He said that the American people are tempted every day and every hour to abandon the principles of our government and enter upon a course of new and strange adventure. Never before in our history have we been beset with temptations so dangerous as those which whisper of conquest and expansion, and point out to us fields bright in glory. I only recently saw a very interesting book, which I have contained a statement of numerous things which should not be done. I am inclined to adopt the plan of this book as a guide for our people, and to warn you against certain dangers which threaten the soundness and safety of our government."

THIRTY-FOUR PEOPLE DROWNED

TERRIBLE DISASTER AT ENGLISH SHIP YARDS. Launching of the Battleship Albion Submerged a Stage and 200 People Were Immersed.

London, June 21.—During the launching of the British first-class battleship Albion of 12,500 tons at Blackwall today by the Duchess of York, a ceremony in which the United States ambassador, Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

A PICNIC EVERY WEEK

At home on wash day by using STERLING WASHER. All the horrors of wash day transformed into a day of real pleasure—for it is really a picnic to run one of these machines. A little child can easily run it. So much has been said about the merits of washing machines that we do not wish to multiply words in praise of this, but only ask you to call on us and we will show you one, when you will be convinced of its superiority. We are selling more STERLING WASHERS than any we have ever handled.

H. DINWOODEY FURNITURE COMPANY. 117 MAIN STREET.

all Paper

Remnants, Common, - 5c Double Roll. Golds, - 10c. Ingrains, - 10c Bolt.

Elegant Line of Regular Goods at Lowest Possible Prices.

THIRTY-FOUR PEOPLE DROWNED

TERRIBLE DISASTER AT ENGLISH SHIP YARDS. Launching of the Battleship Albion Submerged a Stage and 200 People Were Immersed.

London, June 21.—During the launching of the British first-class battleship Albion of 12,500 tons at Blackwall today by the Duchess of York, a ceremony in which the United States ambassador, Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.

The Duchess of York and Colonel John Hay and Mrs. Hay, and Lieutenant Colwell, the United States naval attaché, were present, a terrible disaster occurred. A stage upon which the ship was to be launched collapsed, and 200 people were immersed.