ELECTION AFTERMATH. Chairman Lloyd Reviews the Battle In This County.

THE REPUBLICAN FIGHT. PERSONAL ANIMUS BEHIND THE BITTER ATTACKS MADE.

Importance of the Victory—Talks With Arthur Brown, Chairman Walton, Chairman Eichner and Candidate Foster and Others—Republicans Looking For Comfort.

Chairman B. T. Lloyd of the Democratic county committee was asked yesterday for his opinion of the result in Salt Lake county. Mr. Lloyd replied that it could not be otherwise than gratifying to him as it must be to other members of the party.

"Right here is where the Republicans concentrated their efforts," said Mr. Lloyd, "not only for the purpose of getting possession of the county government again, but in the hope that it would decide the state election and compass the defeat of Messrs. Roberts and Baskin. If they had carried this county it would have made the state legislature Republican and would have resulted in the election of a McKinley man to the United States senate. There were a number of reasons why the Republicans were particularly anxious to carry Salt Lake county. The control of the legislature, the county printing, the prestige in the center of population, and the influence it would have had on the state election in two years from now."

"Are you satisfied with the majority received by the county ticket?" was asked. "Perfectly satisfied in view of the fight that was made against us," replied the chairman. "It was a pretty hard combination to meet. A special effort was made by Republicans to work the personal feelings of voters, but this was weakened, of course, to some extent by the obvious animus behind it. A personal grudge against some of our leading candidates was worked through the ballot box. Then the whole state election was thrown into influence and gave its time to the Republican campaign, which was a refreshing and taking, after the brazen exhibitions which too often accompany a canvass. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd said they did not believe the Republicans are able to get together as well as the Democrats had succeeded, but while they had less sympathy, the Republicans depended largely upon secret work which in some instances was very effective."

Mr. Lloyd believes that the activity of the state officers in behalf of the Republican county and legislative ticket was in preparation for the next campaign at which time state officers are to be elected.

He complimented the members and employees of the county committee for the valuable assistance rendered in the campaign and speaks in the highest terms of all the party workers and particularly the ladies who contributed so much to the success of the party.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS. Arthur Brown, Chairman Walton and Arthur Thomas Discuss Matters. Arthur Brown, Arthur L. Thomas and Wesley K. Walton constituted a gold standard trio at state headquarters yesterday afternoon. All three gentlemen were inclined to be jovial in their moods, the ex-senator being especially happy.

"We have carried enough members of the party to enable us to combine with the Cannon men and elect a senator," remarked Brown, with a twinkle in his eye. "You Democrats are sure to get into combination with him," was asked.

"Oh, we are Republicans," was the reply. Chairman Walton, however, took all this as serious, and looked grave. Asked what his claim was concerning the state, he replied that he believed members of the legislature had been elected and that Roberts' majority was cut down to about 2,000. Beyond that Wesley had very little to say.
