SALES OF RESIDENCE REALTY

S. C. NEWHOUSE BUYS THE TEASDEL PROPERTY.

The Daynes Corner, Also on Brigham Street, Bought by Another Mining Man For $10,500.

Another demonstration of the beneficial effect the mining revival is having on real estate investments and mansion building came to light yesterday...

The first sale is that of the S. P. Teasdel property, fronting nine rods on Brigham street and fifteen rods on O street...

The purchase is by Mr. S. C. Newhouse, who recently came from Denver to get nearer his very extensive mining interests at Bingham.

Another purchase reported is of the 5x10 rods of ground owned by Mrs. Rebecca E. Daynes and Ida M. Daynes-Cannon...

It is asserted that the person who will improve the corner by erecting a fine residence thereon is none other than a prominent mining man, whose interests are now centered in Utah.

Mr. John Weir, Jr., the real estate agent, negotiated both these deals, but he declined last evening to furnish any particulars of the deal as fixed by law...

When the intent of the law is evaded by some technical construction of departmental rulings, use your every effort and exert your influence to correct the condition existing by securing favorable rulings, or by amending the law.

In response to the questions of the Utah Ore Producers' association, Judge Powers said he had but one answer.

Of course, my answer is "yes" to all the questions," continued the judge, "that would be exactly on the lines laid down in the Chicago platform, a duty on the raw material. A duty on manufacturing lead would do us no good here."

One of the legislators present suggested that perhaps the judge would better wait until he heard whether his answer would do us no good here.

Blissings that brighten are our Men's Shoes. Ever try them for that tired feeling? They are a most perfect panacea; never a case but has yielded to the treatment. The feet shod with these scientific, foot-form shoes may walk miles the first day as easily as the last day they are donned and never know foot weariness. The designing, cutting, fitting, sewing, soling are illustrative of that trite saying, "there's nothing like leather, if it's well put together." The put together is the main thing.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS. Did Nothing, As They Met to Be Come Acquainted. A sad-faced, homesick half dozen Republicans gathered at Republican headquarters yesterday and spent three hours in low-voiced communion, one with another. The meeting was dominated by a caucus by the faithful few, but what was determined by them refused to divulge. Said one of those who were there: "Oh, we just wanted to get acquainted with each other, that was all, and find out where we stood. We didn't expect to do much but talk over the situation. Of course, we shall ask for some of the patronage, but asking is one thing and getting it is another."
