GOV. ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH

Refers to the Heroes Now Fighting in the Philippines.

New York, May 30.—The sarcophagus of General Grant in the tomb at Claremont was covered with flowers this afternoon after a service in which while U. S. Grant, Gen. G. A. R., of Brooklyn, an address by Governor Roosevelt and a salute of twenty-one guns fired from the United States cruiser Brooklyn, which lay in the Hudson, just below the hill, with all her battle flags flying.

Governor Roosevelt received an ovation when he arose to speak. He delivered an eulogy on General Grant. Of him he said: "Mercy and peace go hand in hand. If General Grant had shown mercy at Fort Donelson it would have meant years of destruction and devastation, and it had not shown mercy at Appomattox, a breach of peace would have widened between us and our brethren which never could have been mended. Continuing, Governor Roosevelt said: "Here I stand in this beautiful spring weather in our beloved country and state, with quiet peace prevailing, while in the tropics, with the heat of the Philippines, fighting for the glorious flag with the same motive you Grand Army men fought with in 1861, are your sons and their brave comrades."

General Porter, the United States ambassador, opened the ceremony with a brief address. Mr. Porter was followed with an oration that was frequently applauded. He spoke of the respect shown to Decoration day in the United States and the reverent care taken of graves by the American people, remarking that the chief value of such observances was in impressing the hearts and minds of the people with the lessons of self-sacrifice and devotion.

CEMENTED NORTH AND SOUTH

Dead Soldiers of All Were Honored by People of Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 30.—Memorial day was more elaborately observed in this city than for any other year. Prominent local orators delivered addresses during the ceremonies by the G. A. R. at the various cemeteries. The trend of all the speeches was that the north and south in a bond of fraternal sympathy never again to be broken. The National cemetery in Germantown, a suburb of the city, where the bodies of 224 Confederate soldiers are buried for the first time, the graves of the men who were the way were decorated with a flag and a floral emblem by the soldiers of the United States Army and the graves of other southern soldiers in Mount Moriah cemetery. TALK OF ARBITRATION

One Subject of Discussion at the Peace Conference.

SCHEME OF AMERICANS

Proposals to be Submitted to Committee Today.

United States Delegates Have Still Another Scheme, One of Mediation, Distinct from Arbitration Proposition—Work of Conference Yesterday—Flags, Truces, Etc.

DEALS WITH ENTIRE QUESTION

Arbitration Tribunal as Proposed by the Americans.

London, May 31.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at The Hague says: "The American scheme deals with the entire question. Not only does it accurately specify the type of permanent tribunal that has been proposed, but also the mechanism of such court in all its details. The Americans, however, are willing to have the best features of the British, French, and Russian proposals amalgamated in a homogeneous whole."

AMERICANS' NEW SCHEME

One of Mediation to be Submitted to Conference.

London, May 31.—The correspondent of the Daily News at The Hague says: "The Americans will submit tomorrow a scheme of mediation distinct from their arbitration scheme. I understand it is entirely original and full of interesting and practical ideas. The Americans refuse to consent to compulsion in and category of cases for arbitration, or at any stage of the procedure. Disputes, however, can only be referred to the permanent tribunal by the desire of both litigant states. They also hold that to oblige independent states to accept such a tribunal is to violate the principle of international law and the Monroe doctrine."

TO FIND PACIFIC SOLUTION

Two Disagreeing States May Apply to a Tribunal.

London, May 30.—The Times correspondent at The Hague says: "A proposal will be submitted at the meeting of the drafting committee of the arbitration committee today (Wednesday) under which a nation which sees danger of grave disagreement with another state may apply to some third state, not having an immediate interest in the dispute, to act as mediator. The other party to the dispute will then have an opportunity of taking a similar course, and the mediating state will investigate, and in a view of finding a pacific solution. If, despite this, war should still break out, the mediating state shall continue to represent the belligerents, without affecting the rights of either party, with a view of bringing about the speediest possible cessation of hostilities. I understand several delegates of the drafting committee are favorable to this proposal."

WORK OF CONFERENCE

Questions Discussed by Delegates at The Hague.

The Hague, May 30.—The Brussels conference section of the international peace congress after adopting the section reading of articles 23 to 24, which dealt with prisoners of war, discussed questions relating to flags of truce, capitulation and armistices, as contained in articles 25 to 27, inclusive, upon which an agreement was reached. The Red Cross convention considered the extension of the Geneva convention to naval warfare and adopted slight modifications of the articles relating to material, leaving the other two categories for future consideration.

IS URGED

Strong Pleas Are Made in Behalf of Dreyfus.

NEW FACTS BROUGHT OUT

All Go to Show Innocence of the Prisoner.

New Trial is Asked For, Not an Acquittal From the Court of Cassation—Anti-Dreyfusites Realize That Their Cause is Lost and Are Furious.

Paris, May 30.—There were few indications of excitement in the vicinity of the Palace of Justice today before the court of cassation resumed its sittings for the hearing of arguments in the Dreyfus case and for the examination of MM. De Rouleau and Marie-Henri. The same precautions were observed as on yesterday for the preservation of order. The arrival of the judges and others connected with the two celebrated cases was marked by no unusual incident. The interior of the court of cassation presented today the same aspect as on yesterday. Behind President Mazeau there were seated many judges and other court officers, public men and distinguished men of letters. The same indifference of the public generally to the revision proceedings was shown in the attitude of spectators to the hearing of a public hearing, and court ushers had to go out into the street and gather ideas to go to the court room. CANADA WILL REMAIN FIRM

NO RETREAT FROM THE ALASKA BOUNDARY POSITION.

Construction of the Treaty of 1825 and the Territory Claimed by the Dominion Government.

Ottawa, Ont., May 30.—In the house last night, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier, replying to a question relative to the Alaska boundary question, said that Canada's position today was exactly what it was when the commission adjourned. There had been no change, and there would be no change, he said, until the boundary line should be drawn so as to place in a satisfactory position the strip of territory which was given to Russia by the treaty of 1825, beyond and above the Alaskan coast, which was maintained along by both parties, and it may be assumed that the line is maintained by the British commissioners.

ASKED FOR NEW TRIAL

"I do not ask you to proclaim the innocence of Dreyfus, but," cried he with profound emotion, "it is with a firm conviction that I say that the responsibility that I say there is reason to grant revision of the trial of 1894, and I have no doubt that the court-martial, whose task will be to give a decision with a full knowledge of the facts."

WANTS THE TRUTH

M. Manseau congratulated himself that he had been able, despite the campaign of insult and abuse to pursue unflinchingly the truth, and that now the point was being made plain since the reporter of the court, M. Bailot de Beauvergne, had been forced to state the conclusions that the speaker, M. Manseau had previously reached.

GRAIN RATE CHANGES

Hearings of Interstate Commission Will be Resumed.

Chicago, May 30.—Chicago railway officials have received notice from the interstate commerce commission that an investigation of the rates upon export and domestic traffic in grain and grain products would be held in Chicago, June 12. Three days later the commission will hold a similar hearing at St. Louis. The notice states that it is proposed to secure evidence showing all important changes which have taken place in rates to the Atlantic and Gulf ports upon shipments of grain and grain products, and the reasons why such changes were made.

COLLAPSE OF THE CHARGES

The news that M. Bailot de Beauvergne had directly ascribed the authorship of the bordereau to Major Esterhazy produced a condition of intense excitement among the members of the League of Patriots in the precincts of the court. They made no attempt to conceal their indignation.

TWO GAMES FOR EACH CLUB

LIVELY DAY IN BASEBALL CIRCLES YESTERDAY.

Notable Gathering of Mutual Improvement Officers.

STAKE BOARDS PRESENT

ELOQUENCE, WIT AND A SPLENDID FEAST.

Representatives Present From All the Utah States and From Surrounding States—Members of the First Presidency and Other Notables—A Boquet of Sentiments.

The third annual reunion and banquet of the Young Men and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement associations stake boards was held last evening in the sixteenth ward assembly hall and was a most successful affair. The large assembly room had been appropriately decorated for the occasion. The stand at the west end of the hall was covered with beautiful potted plants and palms and these with the stand itself were tastefully draped with bunting and flags while the walls and ceiling were hung with long strips of red, white and blue bunting. Back of the stand was the motto, "We onward press forever."

Six long tables extended the entire length of the hall, upon which covers were laid for about 200 guests. The tables were nicely arranged and a very neat banquet card containing the menu and location of each table was placed before each arriving at 8 o'clock and were cared for by the reception committee. When the president of the banquet called them to order there were in the neighborhood of 500 people present.

A Representative Gathering.

It was truly a representative gathering, those being present from every county in Utah and surrounding states. Prominent among the faces around the table were those of the following: Rev. W. W. Woodruff, president of the Mormon church; Congressman R. H. Roberts; Brigham Young, Jr.; J. W. Taylor; J. W. Woodruff, and other prominent people from all over the state.

President of the banquet, Joseph F. Smith delivered the address of welcome. After inviting all to make themselves at home he called to the attention of the guests the fact that the banquet was being held in the city of Salt Lake City, which was the birthplace of the prophet Joseph Smith, and that it was a fitting place for the reunion of the people of the church.

Mr. Todd for Toastmaster.

President Smith introduced Hon. Douglas M. Todd of Idaho, whom he characterized as a man of high character, a scholar, and a gentleman. Mr. Todd acted as toastmaster.

The banquet was arranged as a boquet of flowers, the first being mistaken, which means to surmount difficulties. The banquet was a success, and the guests were all well pleased with the arrangements.

FEMALE MAIL

That sounds more contradictory than it is, when attention is called to its being a description of the largest mail received by any man in the United States exclusively from women. This "female mail" is received by Dr. R. V. Pierce, the celebrated specialist in women's diseases, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

It is fair to say that it is not the man that women write to, but the doctor. One of the remarkable features of this correspondence is that years after a cure has been effected, grateful women continue to write to Dr. Pierce, being thankful for health and for the kind and fatherly advice, which was blended with the physician's counsel, and which was so helpful in preserving the health when regained.

The offer of a free consultation by letter is extended by Dr. Pierce to every sick and ailing woman. Every letter received is read in the private and confidential manner, and the physician's counsel, and which was so helpful in preserving the health when regained.

PLAQUE CASTS CLOUD

May Complicate the Home-Coming of Admiral Dewey.

IS NOW RAGING IN CHINA

VARIOUS GOVERNMENTS HAVE QUARANTINED HONGKONG.

This Extends to Warships, as Well as Merchant Vessels—Olympia Out of Dry Dock, and It Is Expected She Will Start for Home Next Week.

Hongkong, May 30.—Since his arrival here on May 23, on board his flagship, the United States cruiser Olympia, Admiral Dewey has improved in health though he still refuses all invitations of a social nature. The admiral has also relinquished all official duties, and the date of his departure for home is still uncertain, his intention being to remain here until he has thoroughly recuperated. The admiral's health, however, is much cooler than it would be found at any other place between Hongkong and the Mediterranean sea.

The program for the Olympia's voyage to the United States has not been definitely decided upon. It has been determined however, to make a stop at the Pireaus, from which port Admiral Dewey is expected to return, pay his respects to King George of Greece.

The Olympia is being painted white instead of dark blue color, which was applied to it before the last war.

Plague May Interfere.

The plague is likely to complicate the home-coming of Admiral Dewey. Various governments have already declared severe quarantine regulations against all Egyptian Red sea ports and the number of deaths have nearly doubled in the past week, the new cases numbering 143 and the deaths 154. Admiralty officials say that warships have no privileges as regards quarantine beyond those of merchant ships, the main point to be considered being whether the ship is infected or there be sickness aboard.

By the time Admiral Dewey will have arrived at the Mediterranean, his ship, the Olympia, having been so long out from Hongkong, if there are no cases aboard, she will probably be regarded as immune and the inspectors will pass her without delay.

Out of the Dry Dock.

New York, May 30.—A dispatch to the World from Hongkong says that Admiral Dewey's flagship, the cruiser Olympia, came out of dry dock Monday, and the needed repairs being finished and her war paint removed. She is now ready for her leisure trip to New York. The admiral is regaining his health rapidly, but he is kept indoors at his hotel in the Peak district by the heavy rains.

Will Start Next Week.

New York, May 30.—A copyrighted cable to the Evening World from Hongkong says that Admiral Dewey expected to continue his homeward voyage early next week.

Gambling Debts No Good.

Promissory notes hereafter given to cover margins in the speculative operations of the Exchange and collected by law in Iowa, under the terms of a recent supreme court decision in that state, are held to be void, says the court in "gambling" and debts thus contracted cannot be enforced at law. What is said is that the law is not to be construed so as to give legal status to promissory notes, which are given to secure margins, which margins must be paid in cash. That is all.
