Colorado Minister Scores Legislature Because It Did Not Demand Congressman Roberts' Expulsion—Wants Mines to Close on Sunday—Meets Next Year at Hill Church.

Three sessions of the Methodist conference were held yesterday, although the day was not as busy as one for the preachers as the preceding one. Religious services at 8:30 started off the day, and at 9:45 the business meeting was opened by Bishop Joyce.

The first business disposed of was the reading of reports from mission school teachers. Miss Marietta Lippson, Dr. T. L. Hill, for Miss Laura Hill reported upon the work of the past year in the Murray school. Miss Mae Glaze of Payson, Mrs. Mary Passmore of Fairview, Miss Mattie Merrick of Carbon and Miss Agnes Baboo of Spring City outlined the missionary work that is being done by them in these various places.

Reports from Ministers. Ministers from the clergy throughout the district were then listened to. Rev. W. M. Hansen reported most encouragingly on his work in Salt Lake. Henry Parker of Beaver and Rev. P. M. Lapham of Eureka, both found the situation in Utah hopeful.

District Secretaries. District missionary secretaries were appointed as follows: Rev. Joseph W. Smith, Salt Lake; Rev. J. M. Provo; Rev. J. M. Hansen, Richfield.

Scored Colorado Legislature. Dr. Daniel Rader of the Colorado university was introduced, and told the audience something of the distressing condition of the church in his home state.

The morning session was adjourned by the bishop at the close of a brief devotional exercise.

Sunday at the Mines. The committee on Sabbath observance sent in their report.

Women Missionaries. The conference adjourned until evening, and the missionary women were called to order by Mrs. R. T. Eaton, president of the local organization.

Everything too good, too old, that in anyway we can pick a quarrel with, has to walk the plank. We weight its feet with a low price and overboard it goes. That's why we've gone through our stock of Boys' Long Pants Suits and picked out all the odd suits and put prices on them that ought to move them out of the house in a few days.
