IMMENSE UPRISING OF SALT LAKE'S CITIZENS

GREATEST GATHERING IN THE CITY'S HISTORY

Theatre Densely Packed and a Thousand People Were Turned Away.

Demonstration That Presages a Great Democratic Land-slide Today—Eloquent Speeches By Party Leaders.

The Democratic enthusiasm, that has increased every day as the municipal fight has grown hotter, reached its climax last night in an outpouring of voters that crowded the Salt Lake theatre from pit to dome, that crowded the aisles and monopolized every foot of standing room even on the stage, that surged against the doors long after it became impossible for another person to squeeze in.

mean. Never in its history did that old theatre contain a greater crowd, and never was a party urged on to victory by a more hearty demonstration of good will.

Mrs. Richards Presides. The meeting was called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by Mrs. J. Fewson Smith, who in a few well chosen words presented Mrs. S. S. Richards as chairman of the meeting.

Another feature of the evening that called forth great applause and added to the enthusiasm was the singing of a song by the double quartette in behalf of silver, with a beautiful tabernacle was formed of seventeen handsome Democratic girls, sixteen dressed in pure white and having silver crowns on their heads, and one dressed in rose-tinted gold.

While the crowd was gathering the eight young ladies, dressed in white, were seen sitting here and there trying to find seats for a few more Democrats. The crowd had invaded the stage; every chair was taken and prominent speakers and ladies who had worked up the meeting were forced to stand in the wings or behind the scenes.

When the names on the Democratic and Republican tickets are compared and when the principles for which the men stand are considered there is no reason that any man can find in his conscience why he should not vote for the Democrats.

It is difficult to separate the issues in the balance and not found wanting; they have proved their fitness and are worthy of the people's confidence.

The Republican platform adopted recently in this city contains one plank that says their party has all the patriots. There are various kinds of patriots. We had patriots here in 1856 who loudly offered to sacrifice their all for Bryan and his cause.

And he got the office. If he had ad-ded on his card, "all the patriots are in my pocket," he would have been a success.
