REDUCING THE GRADE. Western's Broad Gauge Line to Park City. S. J. Morris, the engineer in charge of the party making the survey through Parley's canyon for the reduction of the Rio Grande Western branch to Park City, was at the Cullen last night.

The present length of this heaviest grade to the summit is three miles, but this will be lengthened to four miles, and the curves will be decreased, though the road will when constructed in the new route wind about the canyon more than now does.

In making the reduction from the present 6 per cent grade a tunnel at the summit will be necessary. It will be about 300 feet long, some of which, at least is believed, will be through solid rock.

Today the Atlantic is filled with ships of all descriptions—it is, in fact, a veritable steam ferry, and the lines now running can for the present handle all the business which is offered them."

You know I believe that all women should take an active interest in every matter pertaining to the country's welfare. Even in the states where women cannot vote they can do much good, and I want them to show some initiative and take an interest in public affairs. There are so many women who say that a woman's place is in the home, and that she has no place in outside affairs, that I am very glad to see them take an active interest in politics. I want them to study politics and belong to a party. Of course, I am a staunch Republican, and would like to see everyone else one, but I would rather see a woman a thorough Democrat than that she would remain inactive."
