

TALKS OF CLARK CASE

Brother of Montana Senator In Salt Lake.

CHARGE IS DENOUNCED

DENIES THAT FRAUD WAS ATTEMPTED

J. Ross Clark, Banker and Beet Sugar Manufacturer, Declares That the Entire Matter Was Trumped Up by Enemies of His Brother in Montana—Opinion of Jackson.

J. Ross Clark, brother of Senator Clark of Montana, came in to Salt Lake yesterday and registered at the Kenyon. Mr. Clark, who travels to and from his home in Los Angeles and Butte at stated intervals, proposes to stay in this city a few days, as he says, to imbibe the mountain breeze...

Talks of Bribery Charges.

In course of conversation last night Mr. Clark said the subject of the alleged bribery scandal.

"Anyone who has been conversant with the political status in Montana for the last ten years can readily understand and grasp the situation of the trumped-up charge, and when the other side goes to the extent of sending a man like C. M. Jackson to Washington to testify in their behalf, commences to suspect that the matter is not as simple as it is made to appear."

Mr. Clark intends to stay in town for a few days, and he is continuing his journey to Butte to look after the interests of the banking house which he manages by himself and brother. Coming down to the sugar factory near Los Angeles, of which he is vice president and general manager, he said:

"The farmers have just started to plant their beetroot in Orange county, and everything promises a successful run this season. The first two years they were inclined to feel discouraged, owing to the dry seasons, but they have now taken over the industry in earnest. Our factory has a running capacity of 700 tons of beets per day; we bought some 7,000 acres in 1899, on which we raise beets, which are fully as good as those grown in Utah."

"We intended to branch out further, but the Cuban and Philippine situations made the beetroot business for domestic sugar somewhat dubious. Although we may erect other factories in the future, which was our original intention, at present we are content to operate the single sugar factory in California."

J. McLACHLAN IS MISSING

BUILDING CONTRACTOR HAS DISAPPEARED.

Creditors Don't Know What Has Become of Him But Would Be Glad to Hear.

James McLachlan, the contractor and builder, is missing, and a goodly number of his creditors would be glad to know of his whereabouts. He has been considered a thoroughly reliable man, and was largely credited, but he disappeared from the city about ten days ago, and has not since been heard from.

W. H. Bradford, who was on the building board for the missing man, is a loser to the extent of $200. Some of the creditors, when they heard of McLachlan's disappearance, hurried to his bank, the Utah National, to investigate his bank account. They found 11 cents to his credit there.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

BANK CLEARINGS.—The bank clearings yesterday were $29,730.69 compared with $31,526.61 for the corresponding day last year. Thursday was considered by bankers as one of the duller in the history of their business in Salt Lake.

REDS DOWN THE BLUES.—The Reds and Blues, the two teams who were to play the Y. M. C. A. played an interesting game last evening, the Reds winning by a score of 39 to 29. There is much rivalry between the two teams and some hot contests are looked for in the future.

TRANSPLANTING FISH.—Within the next month Warden Sharp will transplant from the state fish hatchery about 80,000 lake and brook trout to the Utah fishing streams. The fish are being raised in pens, but attended with splendid results thus far, in Warden Sharp's estimation.

PUBLIC DEBATE.—A general invitation is extended to the public to attend a debate to be given by the Enterprise Debating society, in the Second ward assembly hall, Thursday evening, Jan. 25. The subject is: "Resolved, that vaccination should not be practiced." Affirmative, John Stray and Hemming Mortenson. Negative, Freeman Bassett and Erin Kutz.

TRUST DEED.—A trust deed was filed for record yesterday with the county recorder, conveying to the Dalton & Lark Gold, Silver and Lead Mining & Milling company the Dalton, Camp & Old Washach mining properties to J. H. Woodman, trustee. The conveyance is made to secure payment of a promissory note of $5,000 to William C. Staines on Nov. 25, 1899, with interest at 10 per cent.

JENSEN IS COMPLIMENTED.—Inspector Robert Towne of the inland revenue bureau is in the city on one of his periodical inspection trips of public officers and other county officials. He has stamps in large numbers and in high denominations, yesterday he inspected the county recorder's office and complimented Recorder Jensen by declaring his record of stamp cancellations is beyond unfavorable criticism, and in many other respects the office is ahead of any other recorder's office he has visited officially.

Utah Commercial and Savings Bank. General banking business; interest paid on savings deposits. W. F. Armstrong, president; J. E. Caine, cashier.

Utah Coal. Castle Gate and Winter Quarters lump, nut and slack; anthracite, all sizes. D. J. SHARP, AGY, 78 South Main, Telephone No. 429, 24 East First South street.

Phone your candy orders to Koltz. Buttercups half price Saturday, at Koltz's.

Painless extraction of teeth by Dr. E. M. Keyser, 162 Main street, Auerbach building.

Attend Saturday sale, 2 to 6, Koltz's.

MARRIAGE OF MISS BEATTIE AND MR. JOY H. JOHNSON

William H. McIntyre Buys Handsome Lot.

PRICE PAID WAS $19,000

ELEGANT RESIDENCE TO BE ERECTED SOON.

Lot is on the Corner of First South and Fourth East Streets—It is 165 Feet Square and is Considered One of the Best Residence Properties in the Entire City.

MRS. J. H. JOHNSON, nee BEATTIE

The marriage of Miss Nellie Catherine May Beattie and Joy H. Johnson took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on East Second South street.

The local adornment of the home was elaborate and most artistic. The general color scheme was soft, delicate pink, carried out in the wealth of fragrant roses with which the rooms were lavishly decorated.

Throwing the pink into relief were white roses and marguerites and tall, stately palms and graceful ferns.

The drawing room was done in green and pink. Across one corner a canopy of smilax and roses was suspended over the improvised floral altar, before which stood the bridal party.

The chandeliers were imbedded in green and tied with satin streamers. The mantel was covered with roses and banked with palms, while the corners of the room were filled with palms and bunches of La France roses.

The lights throughout the room were shaded in pink and lent a fairy-like glow to the beauty of the rooms and gave to the guests the appearance of figures in some beautiful tableau.

The ushers, Mr. Cleaver and Mr. Skinner, preceded the bridal party down the stairway, and through the hall to the floral altar. The bride was gowned in a creation of white crepe de chine, the skirt was trimmed with exquisite old lace. The bodice was high in the neck, with long sleeves, and was almost entirely covered with the lace.

A tulle veil fell in graceful folds to the hem of her gown. She carried a bouquet of light roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss McMillan, who wore pink liberty silks, and carried pink roses. Mrs. Bickford, as matron, wore a Paris gown of white Renaissance lace over pink chiffon. She also carried pink roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Judge, was exquisitely gowned in pink and white brocade. Her flowers were roses. The best man was Mr. William Frederick Meyer of Denver. The solemn services of the Episcopal church were read by Rev. Ellis Bishop of St. Paul's. During the ceremony a string orchestra, concealed behind banks of roses and ferns, played the Lohengrin wedding march. The bride was given away by her father.

A reception, which was attended by over 250 guests, followed the ceremony.

TO BUILD FINE HOME

William H. McIntyre Buys Handsome Lot.

PRICE PAID WAS $19,000

ELEGANT RESIDENCE TO BE ERECTED SOON.

Lot is on the Corner of First South and Fourth East Streets—It is 165 Feet Square and is Considered One of the Best Residence Properties in the Entire City.

A real estate deal was consummated yesterday that means another beautiful home for Salt Lake. The property is the lot, 165 feet square, on the corner of First South and Fourth East street, diagonally across from the First Congregational church. The buyer is William H. McIntyre, president of the Mammoth Mining company, and one of the wealthy mining men of the state.

The price paid for the property was $19,000 and it is Mr. McIntyre's intention to build there a beautiful home, perhaps within the coming season. He said at evening that he had no definite plans formed, but intended to build in the near future. He may be relied upon to build one of the finest homes in the city.

The lot was the property of Charles H. Deere, the wealthy plow man of Moline, Ill. A rumor was current early in the week that Mr. Deere would build a fine terrace on the property but this was without foundation. The sale to Mr. McIntyre was made by George T. O'Neil who looks after Deere's interests in this state. The property was long known as the Wagner Wagner property. It is recognized as one of the most beautiful building sites in the entire city.

A NEW HOTEL Cause and Effect.

Don Porter has stood manfully behind "The Kenyon" since its opening, a year ago, pouring out money like water to make it the best, in the few months since its opening "The Kenyon" has proved a very successful venture, which is now a delightful reminiscence that will bear a moral and a lesson to a tale, and the traveling men take great pleasure in analyzing things and pointing how each effect naturally grows from appropriate cause.

The Knutsford Hotel Is the new, elegant hostelry of Salt Lake City.

Assisting in receiving were Dr. and Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. E. A. Druell, Mrs. Charles Read, Mrs. F. A. Vincent, Mrs. H. J. Dinny, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. L. L. Terry and Mrs. H. P. Holman.

Punch was served in the hall, which was elaborately decorated with palms. The punch table was covered in roses and from the arch overhead hung a basket of plumosa and ferns.

The color scheme of pink and green was also carried out in the dining room. The table was covered in Battenberg. From the chandelier overhead drooped ropes of smilax, which were fastened at the four corners with but-terfly bows of pink ribbon. The center piece was a graceful arrangement of La France roses and ferns. The sideboard was covered with carnations, and the room was otherwise beautified with palms and plants.

The bride is the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Beattie. She has for a number of years been identified with the social life of the city and is a general favorite. The groom came to Salt Lake from Denver four years ago. He is a representative of the well-known drug firm of Park, Davis & Co. of Detroit.

STORY OF FAMILY SKELETON THAT DANCED IN JUDGE TIMMONY'S COURT

A family row of large dimensions was given an airing before Judge Timmony yesterday afternoon. Harry Mandor and his mother, Mrs. Mandor, were arrayed on one side against Mrs. Jessie Hill, who is a sister of Harry and a daughter of her mother.

Harry claimed that Harry did not show toward her the brotherly kindness and love that he ought to. He had tried to steal her pillow slips, and when she demanded back what was her own, he struck her in the face. A black eye of recent manufacture was evidence that there was something in the latter part of her allegation as to Harry's conduct toward her.

By the etiquette of police court proceedings, Harry was called first to enter his plea. The charge was read to him in full by Prosecutor Diehl.

"Guilty or not guilty?" asked the court.

"Let me tell you how"—

"Guilty or not guilty?" reiterated his honor.

"Well, judge," began the accused.

"Will you please answer my question?"

"Not guilty; but it was this"—

"Sit down!" and Harry sat.

Mrs. Hill was called to the stand.

"He tried to steal my pillow slip," she said, and her brother cut in with the remark that she didn't have one to steal. He was admonished by the court to keep still, and he did—for a few moments.

"When I wouldn't let him have the pillow slip he struck me; he beat me; he treated me shamefully," went on Mrs. Hill, and Harry interrupted her with a denial. He was again sat upon by the court.

"I would not let him have the pillow slip he struck me; he beat me; he treated me shamefully," went on Mrs. Hill, and Harry interrupted her with a denial. He was again sat upon by the court.
