

EIGHT HUNDRED WALTON
Many Republicans Want Him Ousted.
NOT A STRONG CHAIRMAN

INSURRECTION IN THE STATE COMMITTEE

Enemies of Wesley claim He Has Made a Failure of His Campaigns and That He Is Too Much Under the Control of Salt Lake Manipulators.

There is an insurrection on the Republican state committee. The bone of contention is Wesley K. Walton, the chairman. His enemies say that he was put in as chairman when the party was in utter collapse and no one else would take the job, that he demonstrated his unfitness for the position in every election since he took charge, and that he is under the complete control of three politicians.

They even go to the extent of threatening to resign if Walton is retained. Others are in favor of making the fight under Walton; others are in favor of permitting things to drift as they are until the regular reorganization of the party. If this last is done, Walton and his committee will be ignored and the campaign conducted wholly from this city.

Lindsay R. Rogers is out for Walton's scalp, and as the candidates for the United States senate are deeply interested in the election, he has promised to be a complicated one. And back of all this there assumes a determined effort in this city to crush Walton. In the Republican club in this city Walton's name was proposed for director, and although it was not carried, the party in the state, he was rudely turned down by the silk-stockings.

The present indications are that Walton and his committee will be ignored as much as possible, and the campaign run by the coteries who ran the city campaign in Salt Lake last fall.

ROAR OVER CITY JOBS.
Republican Committeemen Express Great Displeasure.

It has just leaked out that there was a roar in the Republican county committee meeting at the Knutsford on Wednesday. Members of the committee demanded to know why Deputy Mayor Dennis C. Eichner why Democrats had been appointed to good jobs since the election. A Democratic proponent of George W. Bowers, who is out of the health office came in for a broadside, and the appointment of Joe Pugsley from the Third precinct was thrown in the face of the deputy mayor.

Members of the committee stated that good work had been done in their respective bailiwicks, but under-stand that every Democratic head would fall, and that none but Republicans would be put on guard. If these pledges were to be broken, if Democrats were to be left in while the faithful went hungry and cold, if Democrats were to be put into office at the expense of Republican workers, then it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

Deputy Mayor Eichner, in his own eloquent way, explained things. Every Democrat, he assured them, would walk the plank in good time. Of course, it was necessary to recognize those Democrats who worked under cover for Republican success, as their aid was many times needed, and they had worked straight out in the open. All would come out right in the end, Dennis assured the boys. If Democrats were to be put into office, it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

PARLEY P'S CHANCE.
Christensen's Friends Want a Place For Him.

The fight for private secretary to Congressman Hammond, in the very remote contingency of his ever becoming a congressman, will not be confined to Fred Leifvold and Jodie E. Fredrege. The friends of Parley Christensen have begun plugging for him for the same job. They argue that Fred and Jodie are out on guard, if Parley is elected, that they have no state acquaintance and that they are too factious.

On the other hand they argue that Parley is known everywhere, that he is a big man as Hammond himself, and that if he were elected, a Mormon is elected to congress, they argue, a Gentile should be permitted to play second fiddle to the Mormon. It is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $2,000 with mileage and other perquisites, and Parley could cut a wide swath in Washington society on that amount per annum.

WESTERFIELD'S GATE.
How He Lost Old One and Had It Replaced.

Good demonstration of his strict ad-Samuel B. Westerfield is making a herence to Republican principles these days. It is stated that some miscreants a few nights since stole a valuable gate from in front of Mr. Westerfield's residence on Seventh South street. Sam had no time to waste, it is said, but bore his loss like a man, and then ordered John C. Sanburg, the city carpenter, to make him a new gate. Of course, it is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $3 or $4 per day.

pleased, he writes, to stump the state in the interests of Democracy.
Soren N. Christensen was out again yesterday after two days of very severe illness.

Judge A. C. Hatch of Heber who has been in town for some days past, departed for home yesterday evening.
William M. Roylance of Provo was in town yesterday on legal business and took occasion to feel the public pulse as to a Democratic candidate for congress.

Judge Shirriff of Ogden was in session yesterday. He held a political situation but little thought, he said, as he had been away much of the time lately.

Judge S. R. Thurman of Provo was in Salt Lake yesterday on legal business. He said that the Utah county Democrats were backward about stating their choice for congressman and seem to have decided to give the matter careful thought.

There is an insurrection on the Republican state committee. The bone of contention is Wesley K. Walton, the chairman. His enemies say that he was put in as chairman when the party was in utter collapse and no one else would take the job, that he demonstrated his unfitness for the position in every election since he took charge, and that he is under the complete control of three politicians.

They even go to the extent of threatening to resign if Walton is retained. Others are in favor of making the fight under Walton; others are in favor of permitting things to drift as they are until the regular reorganization of the party. If this last is done, Walton and his committee will be ignored and the campaign conducted wholly from this city.

Lindsay R. Rogers is out for Walton's scalp, and as the candidates for the United States senate are deeply interested in the election, he has promised to be a complicated one. And back of all this there assumes a determined effort in this city to crush Walton. In the Republican club in this city Walton's name was proposed for director, and although it was not carried, the party in the state, he was rudely turned down by the silk-stockings.

The present indications are that Walton and his committee will be ignored as much as possible, and the campaign run by the coteries who ran the city campaign in Salt Lake last fall.

ROAR OVER CITY JOBS.
Republican Committeemen Express Great Displeasure.

It has just leaked out that there was a roar in the Republican county committee meeting at the Knutsford on Wednesday. Members of the committee demanded to know why Deputy Mayor Dennis C. Eichner why Democrats had been appointed to good jobs since the election. A Democratic proponent of George W. Bowers, who is out of the health office came in for a broadside, and the appointment of Joe Pugsley from the Third precinct was thrown in the face of the deputy mayor.

Members of the committee stated that good work had been done in their respective bailiwicks, but under-stand that every Democratic head would fall, and that none but Republicans would be put on guard. If these pledges were to be broken, if Democrats were to be left in while the faithful went hungry and cold, if Democrats were to be put into office at the expense of Republican workers, then it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

Deputy Mayor Eichner, in his own eloquent way, explained things. Every Democrat, he assured them, would walk the plank in good time. Of course, it was necessary to recognize those Democrats who worked under cover for Republican success, as their aid was many times needed, and they had worked straight out in the open. All would come out right in the end, Dennis assured the boys. If Democrats were to be put into office, it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

PARLEY P'S CHANCE.
Christensen's Friends Want a Place For Him.

The fight for private secretary to Congressman Hammond, in the very remote contingency of his ever becoming a congressman, will not be confined to Fred Leifvold and Jodie E. Fredrege. The friends of Parley Christensen have begun plugging for him for the same job. They argue that Fred and Jodie are out on guard, if Parley is elected, that they have no state acquaintance and that they are too factious.

On the other hand they argue that Parley is known everywhere, that he is a big man as Hammond himself, and that if he were elected, a Mormon is elected to congress, they argue, a Gentile should be permitted to play second fiddle to the Mormon. It is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $2,000 with mileage and other perquisites, and Parley could cut a wide swath in Washington society on that amount per annum.

WESTERFIELD'S GATE.
How He Lost Old One and Had It Replaced.

Good demonstration of his strict ad-Samuel B. Westerfield is making a herence to Republican principles these days. It is stated that some miscreants a few nights since stole a valuable gate from in front of Mr. Westerfield's residence on Seventh South street. Sam had no time to waste, it is said, but bore his loss like a man, and then ordered John C. Sanburg, the city carpenter, to make him a new gate. Of course, it is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $3 or $4 per day.

pleased, he writes, to stump the state in the interests of Democracy.
Soren N. Christensen was out again yesterday after two days of very severe illness.

Judge A. C. Hatch of Heber who has been in town for some days past, departed for home yesterday evening.
William M. Roylance of Provo was in town yesterday on legal business and took occasion to feel the public pulse as to a Democratic candidate for congress.

Judge Shirriff of Ogden was in session yesterday. He held a political situation but little thought, he said, as he had been away much of the time lately.

Judge S. R. Thurman of Provo was in Salt Lake yesterday on legal business. He said that the Utah county Democrats were backward about stating their choice for congressman and seem to have decided to give the matter careful thought.

There is an insurrection on the Republican state committee. The bone of contention is Wesley K. Walton, the chairman. His enemies say that he was put in as chairman when the party was in utter collapse and no one else would take the job, that he demonstrated his unfitness for the position in every election since he took charge, and that he is under the complete control of three politicians.

They even go to the extent of threatening to resign if Walton is retained. Others are in favor of making the fight under Walton; others are in favor of permitting things to drift as they are until the regular reorganization of the party. If this last is done, Walton and his committee will be ignored and the campaign conducted wholly from this city.

Lindsay R. Rogers is out for Walton's scalp, and as the candidates for the United States senate are deeply interested in the election, he has promised to be a complicated one. And back of all this there assumes a determined effort in this city to crush Walton. In the Republican club in this city Walton's name was proposed for director, and although it was not carried, the party in the state, he was rudely turned down by the silk-stockings.

The present indications are that Walton and his committee will be ignored as much as possible, and the campaign run by the coteries who ran the city campaign in Salt Lake last fall.

ROAR OVER CITY JOBS.
Republican Committeemen Express Great Displeasure.

It has just leaked out that there was a roar in the Republican county committee meeting at the Knutsford on Wednesday. Members of the committee demanded to know why Deputy Mayor Dennis C. Eichner why Democrats had been appointed to good jobs since the election. A Democratic proponent of George W. Bowers, who is out of the health office came in for a broadside, and the appointment of Joe Pugsley from the Third precinct was thrown in the face of the deputy mayor.

Members of the committee stated that good work had been done in their respective bailiwicks, but under-stand that every Democratic head would fall, and that none but Republicans would be put on guard. If these pledges were to be broken, if Democrats were to be left in while the faithful went hungry and cold, if Democrats were to be put into office at the expense of Republican workers, then it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

Deputy Mayor Eichner, in his own eloquent way, explained things. Every Democrat, he assured them, would walk the plank in good time. Of course, it was necessary to recognize those Democrats who worked under cover for Republican success, as their aid was many times needed, and they had worked straight out in the open. All would come out right in the end, Dennis assured the boys. If Democrats were to be put into office, it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

PARLEY P'S CHANCE.
Christensen's Friends Want a Place For Him.

The fight for private secretary to Congressman Hammond, in the very remote contingency of his ever becoming a congressman, will not be confined to Fred Leifvold and Jodie E. Fredrege. The friends of Parley Christensen have begun plugging for him for the same job. They argue that Fred and Jodie are out on guard, if Parley is elected, that they have no state acquaintance and that they are too factious.

On the other hand they argue that Parley is known everywhere, that he is a big man as Hammond himself, and that if he were elected, a Mormon is elected to congress, they argue, a Gentile should be permitted to play second fiddle to the Mormon. It is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $2,000 with mileage and other perquisites, and Parley could cut a wide swath in Washington society on that amount per annum.

WESTERFIELD'S GATE.
How He Lost Old One and Had It Replaced.

Good demonstration of his strict ad-Samuel B. Westerfield is making a herence to Republican principles these days. It is stated that some miscreants a few nights since stole a valuable gate from in front of Mr. Westerfield's residence on Seventh South street. Sam had no time to waste, it is said, but bore his loss like a man, and then ordered John C. Sanburg, the city carpenter, to make him a new gate. Of course, it is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $3 or $4 per day.

pleased, he writes, to stump the state in the interests of Democracy.
Soren N. Christensen was out again yesterday after two days of very severe illness.

Judge A. C. Hatch of Heber who has been in town for some days past, departed for home yesterday evening.
William M. Roylance of Provo was in town yesterday on legal business and took occasion to feel the public pulse as to a Democratic candidate for congress.

Judge Shirriff of Ogden was in session yesterday. He held a political situation but little thought, he said, as he had been away much of the time lately.

Judge S. R. Thurman of Provo was in Salt Lake yesterday on legal business. He said that the Utah county Democrats were backward about stating their choice for congressman and seem to have decided to give the matter careful thought.

There is an insurrection on the Republican state committee. The bone of contention is Wesley K. Walton, the chairman. His enemies say that he was put in as chairman when the party was in utter collapse and no one else would take the job, that he demonstrated his unfitness for the position in every election since he took charge, and that he is under the complete control of three politicians.

They even go to the extent of threatening to resign if Walton is retained. Others are in favor of making the fight under Walton; others are in favor of permitting things to drift as they are until the regular reorganization of the party. If this last is done, Walton and his committee will be ignored and the campaign conducted wholly from this city.

Lindsay R. Rogers is out for Walton's scalp, and as the candidates for the United States senate are deeply interested in the election, he has promised to be a complicated one. And back of all this there assumes a determined effort in this city to crush Walton. In the Republican club in this city Walton's name was proposed for director, and although it was not carried, the party in the state, he was rudely turned down by the silk-stockings.

The present indications are that Walton and his committee will be ignored as much as possible, and the campaign run by the coteries who ran the city campaign in Salt Lake last fall.

ROAR OVER CITY JOBS.
Republican Committeemen Express Great Displeasure.

It has just leaked out that there was a roar in the Republican county committee meeting at the Knutsford on Wednesday. Members of the committee demanded to know why Deputy Mayor Dennis C. Eichner why Democrats had been appointed to good jobs since the election. A Democratic proponent of George W. Bowers, who is out of the health office came in for a broadside, and the appointment of Joe Pugsley from the Third precinct was thrown in the face of the deputy mayor.

Members of the committee stated that good work had been done in their respective bailiwicks, but under-stand that every Democratic head would fall, and that none but Republicans would be put on guard. If these pledges were to be broken, if Democrats were to be left in while the faithful went hungry and cold, if Democrats were to be put into office at the expense of Republican workers, then it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

Deputy Mayor Eichner, in his own eloquent way, explained things. Every Democrat, he assured them, would walk the plank in good time. Of course, it was necessary to recognize those Democrats who worked under cover for Republican success, as their aid was many times needed, and they had worked straight out in the open. All would come out right in the end, Dennis assured the boys. If Democrats were to be put into office, it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

PARLEY P'S CHANCE.
Christensen's Friends Want a Place For Him.

The fight for private secretary to Congressman Hammond, in the very remote contingency of his ever becoming a congressman, will not be confined to Fred Leifvold and Jodie E. Fredrege. The friends of Parley Christensen have begun plugging for him for the same job. They argue that Fred and Jodie are out on guard, if Parley is elected, that they have no state acquaintance and that they are too factious.

On the other hand they argue that Parley is known everywhere, that he is a big man as Hammond himself, and that if he were elected, a Mormon is elected to congress, they argue, a Gentile should be permitted to play second fiddle to the Mormon. It is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $2,000 with mileage and other perquisites, and Parley could cut a wide swath in Washington society on that amount per annum.

WESTERFIELD'S GATE.
How He Lost Old One and Had It Replaced.

Good demonstration of his strict ad-Samuel B. Westerfield is making a herence to Republican principles these days. It is stated that some miscreants a few nights since stole a valuable gate from in front of Mr. Westerfield's residence on Seventh South street. Sam had no time to waste, it is said, but bore his loss like a man, and then ordered John C. Sanburg, the city carpenter, to make him a new gate. Of course, it is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $3 or $4 per day.

pleased, he writes, to stump the state in the interests of Democracy.
Soren N. Christensen was out again yesterday after two days of very severe illness.

Judge A. C. Hatch of Heber who has been in town for some days past, departed for home yesterday evening.
William M. Roylance of Provo was in town yesterday on legal business and took occasion to feel the public pulse as to a Democratic candidate for congress.

Judge Shirriff of Ogden was in session yesterday. He held a political situation but little thought, he said, as he had been away much of the time lately.

Judge S. R. Thurman of Provo was in Salt Lake yesterday on legal business. He said that the Utah county Democrats were backward about stating their choice for congressman and seem to have decided to give the matter careful thought.

There is an insurrection on the Republican state committee. The bone of contention is Wesley K. Walton, the chairman. His enemies say that he was put in as chairman when the party was in utter collapse and no one else would take the job, that he demonstrated his unfitness for the position in every election since he took charge, and that he is under the complete control of three politicians.

They even go to the extent of threatening to resign if Walton is retained. Others are in favor of making the fight under Walton; others are in favor of permitting things to drift as they are until the regular reorganization of the party. If this last is done, Walton and his committee will be ignored and the campaign conducted wholly from this city.

Lindsay R. Rogers is out for Walton's scalp, and as the candidates for the United States senate are deeply interested in the election, he has promised to be a complicated one. And back of all this there assumes a determined effort in this city to crush Walton. In the Republican club in this city Walton's name was proposed for director, and although it was not carried, the party in the state, he was rudely turned down by the silk-stockings.

The present indications are that Walton and his committee will be ignored as much as possible, and the campaign run by the coteries who ran the city campaign in Salt Lake last fall.

ROAR OVER CITY JOBS.
Republican Committeemen Express Great Displeasure.

It has just leaked out that there was a roar in the Republican county committee meeting at the Knutsford on Wednesday. Members of the committee demanded to know why Deputy Mayor Dennis C. Eichner why Democrats had been appointed to good jobs since the election. A Democratic proponent of George W. Bowers, who is out of the health office came in for a broadside, and the appointment of Joe Pugsley from the Third precinct was thrown in the face of the deputy mayor.

Members of the committee stated that good work had been done in their respective bailiwicks, but under-stand that every Democratic head would fall, and that none but Republicans would be put on guard. If these pledges were to be broken, if Democrats were to be left in while the faithful went hungry and cold, if Democrats were to be put into office at the expense of Republican workers, then it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

Deputy Mayor Eichner, in his own eloquent way, explained things. Every Democrat, he assured them, would walk the plank in good time. Of course, it was necessary to recognize those Democrats who worked under cover for Republican success, as their aid was many times needed, and they had worked straight out in the open. All would come out right in the end, Dennis assured the boys. If Democrats were to be put into office, it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

PARLEY P'S CHANCE.
Christensen's Friends Want a Place For Him.

The fight for private secretary to Congressman Hammond, in the very remote contingency of his ever becoming a congressman, will not be confined to Fred Leifvold and Jodie E. Fredrege. The friends of Parley Christensen have begun plugging for him for the same job. They argue that Fred and Jodie are out on guard, if Parley is elected, that they have no state acquaintance and that they are too factious.

On the other hand they argue that Parley is known everywhere, that he is a big man as Hammond himself, and that if he were elected, a Mormon is elected to congress, they argue, a Gentile should be permitted to play second fiddle to the Mormon. It is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $2,000 with mileage and other perquisites, and Parley could cut a wide swath in Washington society on that amount per annum.

WESTERFIELD'S GATE.
How He Lost Old One and Had It Replaced.

Good demonstration of his strict ad-Samuel B. Westerfield is making a herence to Republican principles these days. It is stated that some miscreants a few nights since stole a valuable gate from in front of Mr. Westerfield's residence on Seventh South street. Sam had no time to waste, it is said, but bore his loss like a man, and then ordered John C. Sanburg, the city carpenter, to make him a new gate. Of course, it is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $3 or $4 per day.

pleased, he writes, to stump the state in the interests of Democracy.
Soren N. Christensen was out again yesterday after two days of very severe illness.

Judge A. C. Hatch of Heber who has been in town for some days past, departed for home yesterday evening.
William M. Roylance of Provo was in town yesterday on legal business and took occasion to feel the public pulse as to a Democratic candidate for congress.

Judge Shirriff of Ogden was in session yesterday. He held a political situation but little thought, he said, as he had been away much of the time lately.

Judge S. R. Thurman of Provo was in Salt Lake yesterday on legal business. He said that the Utah county Democrats were backward about stating their choice for congressman and seem to have decided to give the matter careful thought.

There is an insurrection on the Republican state committee. The bone of contention is Wesley K. Walton, the chairman. His enemies say that he was put in as chairman when the party was in utter collapse and no one else would take the job, that he demonstrated his unfitness for the position in every election since he took charge, and that he is under the complete control of three politicians.

They even go to the extent of threatening to resign if Walton is retained. Others are in favor of making the fight under Walton; others are in favor of permitting things to drift as they are until the regular reorganization of the party. If this last is done, Walton and his committee will be ignored and the campaign conducted wholly from this city.

Lindsay R. Rogers is out for Walton's scalp, and as the candidates for the United States senate are deeply interested in the election, he has promised to be a complicated one. And back of all this there assumes a determined effort in this city to crush Walton. In the Republican club in this city Walton's name was proposed for director, and although it was not carried, the party in the state, he was rudely turned down by the silk-stockings.

The present indications are that Walton and his committee will be ignored as much as possible, and the campaign run by the coteries who ran the city campaign in Salt Lake last fall.

ROAR OVER CITY JOBS.
Republican Committeemen Express Great Displeasure.

It has just leaked out that there was a roar in the Republican county committee meeting at the Knutsford on Wednesday. Members of the committee demanded to know why Deputy Mayor Dennis C. Eichner why Democrats had been appointed to good jobs since the election. A Democratic proponent of George W. Bowers, who is out of the health office came in for a broadside, and the appointment of Joe Pugsley from the Third precinct was thrown in the face of the deputy mayor.

Members of the committee stated that good work had been done in their respective bailiwicks, but under-stand that every Democratic head would fall, and that none but Republicans would be put on guard. If these pledges were to be broken, if Democrats were to be left in while the faithful went hungry and cold, if Democrats were to be put into office at the expense of Republican workers, then it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

Deputy Mayor Eichner, in his own eloquent way, explained things. Every Democrat, he assured them, would walk the plank in good time. Of course, it was necessary to recognize those Democrats who worked under cover for Republican success, as their aid was many times needed, and they had worked straight out in the open. All would come out right in the end, Dennis assured the boys. If Democrats were to be put into office, it was useless to try to rally the boys again.

PARLEY P'S CHANCE.
Christensen's Friends Want a Place For Him.

The fight for private secretary to Congressman Hammond, in the very remote contingency of his ever becoming a congressman, will not be confined to Fred Leifvold and Jodie E. Fredrege. The friends of Parley Christensen have begun plugging for him for the same job. They argue that Fred and Jodie are out on guard, if Parley is elected, that they have no state acquaintance and that they are too factious.

On the other hand they argue that Parley is known everywhere, that he is a big man as Hammond himself, and that if he were elected, a Mormon is elected to congress, they argue, a Gentile should be permitted to play second fiddle to the Mormon. It is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $2,000 with mileage and other perquisites, and Parley could cut a wide swath in Washington society on that amount per annum.

WESTERFIELD'S GATE.
How He Lost Old One and Had It Replaced.

Good demonstration of his strict ad-Samuel B. Westerfield is making a herence to Republican principles these days. It is stated that some miscreants a few nights since stole a valuable gate from in front of Mr. Westerfield's residence on Seventh South street. Sam had no time to waste, it is said, but bore his loss like a man, and then ordered John C. Sanburg, the city carpenter, to make him a new gate. Of course, it is understood that Mr. Westerfield furnished the money and paid, says about $3 or $4 per day.

PERSONALS.
I. G. Meyer, with F. Auerbach & Bro., will leave this evening for the east on a business trip. He will be gone about a month.

John G. Davy of Vernal, Uintah county, who has been in this city for the past week on county and personal business, departed for home yesterday evening by way of Provo.

J. L. Griffiths, who came here with Mr. Oliver, left last night for Knoxville, Tenn., on a business trip. He expressed himself as being favorably impressed with the people he has met here, also with the other opportunity of visiting Salt Lake in the future. He made many friends during his stay here.

W. W. HALL, 293 South Main street, expert watch repairer; Utah sovereign; J. F. BOER, manufacturing jeweler; removed to 11 E. First street.

HAVE YOUR WATCH REPAIRED at Surbaugh's, 10 McCormick block.

OPTICIANS.
J. H. KNICKERBOCKER, optician; removed to 11 E. 1st St. Lowest prices.

THE UTAH OPTICAL CO., under Walker Bros.' bank. Examination by artificial light free. Satisfaction guaranteed.

SECOND-HAND SEWING MACHINES.
BOUGHT, SOLD and rented. Repairing a specialty. Sewing for all makes. Wiles & Johnson, 111 East First Street.

MEDICAL.
DR. E. S. PAYNE, 142 South Main street. Specialist in diseases of women and children; examines and makes every case. Call or write to above address.

COAL DEALERS.
A. J. WHITE & Co., Real Estate and Mines. All kinds of coal for sale. 65 West Third Street.

PLUMBING A D HEATING.
JAMES & HARRIS, plumbers, steam and hot water contractors. 65 E. 2nd Street. Telephone, 373.

STOVE REPAIRS.
STOVE REPAIRING—William Pender & Son, 38 State, mfg. and imp. of all kinds stove and range repairs, repairing in all its branches. Mail orders solicited. Tel. 115-2 rings.

REPAIRS FOR STOVES.
NEW PARTS for all stoves. Repairing. Lovett 57 E. 3rd St. Phone 712.

LUMBER DEALER.
PARKER LUMBER CO., wholesale dealers in Windows, Doors and Building and Roofing Papers. Mill Work; estimating, shipping and making contracts. Salt Lake City, Utah.

COLLECTION AGENCY.
Scientific Collection of Bad Debts. Merchants' Protective Ass'n. Com. bldg. Salt Lake City. Francis G. Luke, Mgr.

ELECTRICAL.
FOR GOOD, RELIABLE Electric Work of all kinds, chandeliers, gongs, shades, lighting, etc. Estimates made. 100 West First Street, next to Calder's. Telephone call 40, 2 rings.

CASH REGISTERS.
NATIONAL CASH REGISTERS. Occy Grosholtz, 201 E. 1st St. 121. 123. 125. Best cash register repairing.

CLEANING AND DYING.
UTAH Steam Dyeing and Cleaning Co., 57 E. 1st St. Estimates made. Moderate prices. Telephone No. 62.

UTAH CLEANERS and Dyers. First-class work promptly done. Repairing 101 East First Street.

MISCELLANEOUS.
BARROW BROS. Stationers and Newsdealers, 43 W. 24 St. Phone 702, 2 rings.

SOCIETIES.
ARGENTA LODGE No. 2, A. O. U. W. and A. M. Regular convocations held at Masonic hall the first Tuesday in each month. Members of sister lodges and visiting brethren in good standing are cordially invited to attend.

UTAH CHAPTER No. 1, R. M. S. L. State convocations held on the first Wednesday in each month at Masonic hall, 151 Main. All members of good standing are cordially invited to attend.

CHAS. J. HARRISON, W. M. M. C. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

UTAH CHAPTER No. 1, R. M. S. L. State convocations held on the first Wednesday in each month at Masonic hall, 151 Main. All members of good standing are cordially invited to attend.

CHAS. J. HARRISON, W. M. M. C. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

TEMPLE LODGE No. 6, M. E. W. M. W. Regular convocations held on the first Wednesday in each month at Masonic hall, 151 Main. All members of good standing are cordially invited to attend.

R. E. WHITE, W. M. M. C. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.
FRATTY & WILLEY, LAWYERS. 65-57, Hooper Building.

Joseph T. Richards, Edward S. Ferry, RICHARDS & FERRY, Attorneys and Counsellors at Law. McCormick Block, Salt Lake City.

DICKSON, ELLIS & ELLIS, Attorneys-at-Law. 100 West Progress Building.

ALIVAS & SNOW, lawyers. Rooms 40-41, E. Walker Bldg. Phone 26-36. Second South, Salt Lake City.

I. M. Waddell, Thomas Adams, WADDELL & ADAMS, Attorneys-at-Law. Rooms 45 and 46 McCormick building, Salt Lake City.

TICKET BROKERS.
SELL YOUR R. R. tickets to A. T. Moon & Co., 26 South Main.