

WEDNESDAY SOCIETY

All sorts of pleasant affairs crowded the days before Ash Wednesday, when the social edict, as well as the religious, draws the line at formal entertaining, at least, and a blessing it is. Gowns have had a season's wear and could not have been made to do much more service, and then it takes time to get ready one's wardrobe for the spring and summer, which already seems quite at hand. So, while there will be many a social event in circles where one's own sweet will is law, there will be restful days, days of recuperation and long nights of beauty sleep, so that all the wrinkles will be ironed out for the summer season.

Dancing and Cue Party.

The prettiest affair given in Salt Lake for months was the dancing and cue party Monday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John T. White. The large reception hall and parlors were used for dancing, the rooms being admirably arranged for such a purpose. Buffet supper was served throughout the evening in the dining room, which had been made beautiful with La France roses and carnations. The center of the table was occupied by an immense cut-glass bowl, filled with pink carnations, the candleabra held pink candles, and the shades were pink. The mantel was covered with roses and draped with green.

The billiard room was thrown open for those who did not enjoy dancing, and to the intervals of the dance musical programmes were given. Vocal selections were given by Professor Goddard and Miss Elsie Barrow, and instrumental numbers by Professor Everson.

Assisting in receiving and entertaining were Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. J. Beattie, Mrs. H. J. Dinny, Mrs. J. S. Kinkead, Mrs. H. Joy Johnson, Mrs. S. Bickford.

Among the guests were General and Mrs. Penrose, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Plagg, Mr. and Mrs. Dale, Dr. and Mrs. Bickford, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Plagg, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. J. Beattie, Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Mrs. Hanford, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. Rookledge, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. David Keith, Dr. and Mrs. Mack, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kinkead, Dr. and Mrs. Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Druell, Mr. and Mrs. Everson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Sharp, Judge and Mrs. Powers, the Misses Leonard, Sherman, Judge, Lucille Jennings, Ivers, Clawson, Keith, Harkness, Rookledge, Murray, Block, Messrs. E. B. Wicks, Benedict, Skinner, Max Smith, Porter, Katz, Worthington, Colburn, W. H. Shearman, Harkness, J. Sawyer, Rookledge, Porter, W. J. Lawrence, J. S. Kinkead, W. J. Smith, Willard Thompson, G. N. Lawrence.

At Dinner.

Miss Crawford entertained at dinner Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Block. Pink carnations were used to adorn the table, around which were seated Miss Block, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp, Miss Anderson, Dr. Bacon and Mr. Richardson.

Kensington Tea.

Mrs. O. E. Cary was on Monday afternoon the hostess of a delightful affair. The rooms were brightened with flowers and palms. A number of vocal selections were given by Mrs. Tuttle, who to still further add to the pleasure the guests enjoyed a non-guessing game. Prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Carter and Miss Block.

Mrs. H. E. Carey assisted in entertaining the guests among whom were Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. S. Woodward, Mrs. H. S. Cary, Mrs. William Igleheart, Mrs. R. L. Knudsen, Mrs. L. M. Kelley, Mrs. Van Arman, Mrs. Thomas Carter, Mrs. Elgin Travis, Mrs. Charles Reid, Mrs. J. Eberly, Mrs. Warren Bogue, Mrs. E. J. Tuttle, Mrs. K. J. Glendinning, Mrs. J. A. Pollock, Mrs. Rookledge, Mrs. J. E. Gailcher, Mrs. D. J. Sharp, Mrs. W. B. Sprague, Mrs. D. C. Dunbar, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. J. E. Caine, Mrs. John Cain, Mrs. S. L. Rogers, Mrs. C. H. Post, Mrs. S. W. Witches, Mrs. C. Woodward, Read, Hamauer, Crawford, Rookledge, Sprague.

Card Party.

A bright and enjoyable event of Tuesday evening was the card party given by Miss Jessie Furber. Roses and carnations made an effective decoration in the rooms where the card tables were arranged. At the close of the game souvenirs of the occasion were awarded to the most successful contestants in the game. The fortunate ones being Miss Blanche Burke, Mr. Sam Porter and Mrs. Charles Lawrence.

Reception.

Mrs. Mary Gilmer and Miss Gilmer gave a large reception Monday afternoon at the Knudsen, prior to their departure for the east, where they will remain two years.

The parlor floor was thrown open and beautifully decorated. Parlor A, where the guests were received, was ornamented with palms and La France roses. Tea was served in the red room, which was elaborately decorated with white roses and smilax. The table was presided over by Mrs. Robert Harkness and Mrs. Louise S. Smith. They were assisted by Mrs. Thompson, Miss June Sadler, Miss Jasmine Young and Miss Irma Alf.

A string orchestra was stationed in the hall. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Charles Gilmer and Mrs. W. T. Daiby.

Over 200 guests were present.

To Meet Mrs. Joseph Peery.

Mrs. Charles Post gave an informal tea Friday afternoon, at which Mrs. Joseph Peery of Ogden was the guest of honor. A few bright blossoms made an attractive bit of color in the rooms. Those who enjoyed the affair were Mrs. Joseph S. Peery, Mrs. Arthur Bick, Mrs. S. Park, Miss Park, Miss Thorn, Miss Colton, Miss Shearman, Miss Edna Shearman.

In Honor of Guests.

Mrs. Roush and Mrs. Steele of Chicago were on Thursday afternoon entertained at luncheon at the Alta club by Mrs. E. L. Carpenter. The table was arranged in the private dining room and was handsomely laid with silver and cut glass and adorned with pink and white carnations. The menu was served under the direction of the chef of the club and was a most elaborate one.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Roush, Mrs. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rood, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Evans, Judge and Mrs. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Madame Myers.
