

LOCAL BRIEFS.

CHARLES DAILEY WANTED—If Charles Dailey, recently of Omaha, will call at 105 South Third Street, or upon Dr. H. A. Anderson, county physician, he will learn something of interest to him.

BANK CLEARINGS—The bank clearings yesterday were $367,791.32, compared with $354,432.47 the corresponding week of last year. For the week just closed the clearings were $2,666,147.22 compared with $2,860,282.11 the corresponding week of last year.

BOUND OVER—Charles White, charged with burglarizing the store of Treacy & Morris, was bound over to the district court. His bail was fixed at $500 and in default of it he will be confined in the county jail.

RELEASED ON HIS LOOKS—Robert L. Henniger, arrested on a charge of embezzlement preferred by David Kneller, was before Justice Nelson yesterday and allowed to go on his own recognizance until tomorrow at which time he will be required to give bonds if the case goes to trial.

SALOON ROBBED—The saloon of Ike Wolf at the Salt Palace, was broken into by burglars early yesterday morning and fifteen gallons of whiskey stolen. The thieves left no messages as to their identity, and the police have no clue. Entrance was gained by forcing a door on the inside of the grounds.

CASE WAS DISMISSED—The case of Jennie Rice, the colored woman who was charged with burglarizing a shoe shop at Fort Douglas on June 23, came up for trial in police court yesterday afternoon. The defendant pleaded not guilty. The evidence introduced sustained her plea and the case was dismissed.

DOG MUST DIE—Ed Baker was arraigned in the police court yesterday for allowing a vicious dog to run at large. The complaint alleged that the dog had severely bitten little girl and was asked that the brute be killed. Mr. Baker expressed his willingness to have it done and the case was dismissed.

ORDER OF SALE MADE—In the matter of Carl Erickson, bankrupt, referee Baldwin yesterday made an order, on the report of the trustee, that the property of Erickson be sold at private sale, and that minor claims against the estate be restored to their rightful owners.

CITIZENS ADMITTED—Frank Hoidal, lately from England, and John Swed, a former subject of Sweden, were admitted to citizenship yesterday by Judge Cherry. Both the applicants are residents of Salt Lake county. Judge Hiles admitted Frederick J. Christiansen and B. S. Loomis.

WEEKLY HEALTH REPORT—According to the report of the health department there are eleven cases of scarlet fever in richmond, under quarantine. Two cases of diphtheria and one of smallpox are also under quarantine. The births record for the week numbered fifty-four and the deaths twenty.

SUMMONED TO BUTTE—Sheriff Howells and Deputy Harry Harris, arrived in Butte last evening to testify in the case of Ed Marshall, who is on trial for the murder of John J. Harbo, a prominent local spring. Marshall was arrested by Deputy Harris south of this city about three miles from the mining light by the police and the deputy.

OPERATION FOR APPENDICITIS—Mrs. Pinkerton, wife of Dr. S. H. Pinkerton, was operated on for appendicitis at St. Mark's hospital yesterday. The operation was performed by Dr. Union Worthington, Dr. B. B. Basmor and Dr. Behle. Last midnight the patient's condition was such that her early recovery is looked for.

TO CHANGE THE BONDS—A petition was filed in the federal court yesterday by the attorneys for Thomas D. Dee and the citizens committee under contract month bought in the Ogden Waterworks system on a bid of $400,000 in bonds drawing 5 per cent interest. The petitioners are allowed to change the agreed denomination of said bonds from $500 to $1000.

HORSES FOR THE ARMY—Lieutenant White, commander of Fort Douglas, purchased the last of eighty-six horses yesterday for the army. The horses have been secured from Edwin Wilkes of Salt Lake. More than 400 horses to get started on the morning of the last of the month.

NO NEWS AT FORT—Lieutenant White, commander at Fort Douglas, has not heard any news from the regiment about going to China with the Ninth cavalry. An order has been issued by the war department for the Ninth cavalry to be sent to China, and in the order included two squadrons of the Ninth cavalry. The route is not yet decided.

ARCHBISHOP RICHARDSON COMING—The Most Rev. P. J. Flordan, D. D., Archbishop of San Francisco, arrived in New York a few days ago on his way home from Rome. He is expected to visit through Europe. The Catholic Church in Salt Lake are hoping that on his way west the eminent cleric will visit this city and make them a visit. It will be remembered that on his way east he was expected to visit this city and finally decided to go by the northern route.

Osteopathy in Salt Lake. Dr. U. M. Browder, A. M. D. O., a diplomat in Osteopathy from the American School of Osteopathy, Kirksville, Mo., the great Anatomist and Physiologist, has located in the D. F. Walker building, rooms 204, 211 and 212, on the second floor, to practice the new and drugless science of Osteopathy.

Dr. Browder explains, in a purely scientific and scientific, based upon scientific principles, and is the most successful method of treating human ailments now extant. Dr. Browder has had phenomenal success in the treatment of chronic diseases such as chronic constipation, rheumatism, both acute and chronic, muscular and articular; asthma in all forms, all diseases of the stomach, locomotor ataxia, and all the diseases of the nervous system, lumbago, wry neck, spinal curvature, St. Vitus' dance. In fact, Osteopathy successfully treats all diseases, acute or chronic. The test to which Osteopathy has been subjected is especially worthy of mention in this connection—75 per cent of the marvelous cures have been of patients pronounced "INCURABLE" by other systems of treatment.

Dr. Browder makes a specialty of all chronic troubles. All he asks of the people of Salt Lake is a fair and impartial trial. Reception room, 212 D. F. Walker building.
