

Is one of Utah's greatest resources. The Herald publishes more mining news than any other Utah newspaper.

ESTABLISHED JUNE 5, 1870.

TERRIFIC STORM RAGES IN THE WEST AND SOUTH

Great Havoc is Wrought in Chicago-Illinois and Adjoining States Suffer.

Many Lives Believed to Have Been Lost Through the Tornado That Visited Texas.

Chicago, March 10.—One of the worst windstorms of the season struck Chicago early today, and during the two hours that it was at its height damaged property throughout the city to the extent of $175,000. Many heavy plate glass windows were blown in. Telegraph and telephone companies were the worst sufferers, and it will be some time before order can be restored.

been at work all day trying to repair the damage done, and to prevent other and more serious damage.

HOUSES BLOWN DOWN.

Two Negroes Mortally Hurt at Clinton, Kentucky. Fulton, Ky., March 10.—In the terrific storm that swept this section last night the damage was the greatest at Clinton and Hickman. At Clinton twenty negro cabins were demolished, two negroes being mortally hurt and many others badly bruised and mangled. Part of Marvin college was destroyed by wind. A large number of houses and barns were blown down in Fulton and Hickman counties. The loss of property is large.

THREE PERSONS DEAD.

Fatal Results of the Storm in Green County, Ark. Paragould, Ark., March 10.—Last night's storm killed three persons in Green county and wrought much property damage. At Rockhill Mrs. Millie Davis and a 13-year-old boy named Oscar Roberts, were killed by falling timbers.

Trains entering Chicago were delayed from ten minutes to an hour. The Burlington and Milwaukee & St. Paul companies were the worst sufferers in this respect. All the roads suffered damage to their tracks and switch yards. At the life-saving station at the mouth of the Chicago river it was considered the worst gale that has struck Chicago harbor since the late winter, lashed into fury, came up to the life-saving station and flooded the floor for the first time in twelve years. Most of the ships were wrecked in the water quarters, so that the damage done to it was slight.

The passenger steamers Indiana and City of Grand Rapids, plying between here and Milwaukee, were caught squarely in the gale. After many attempts the City of Grand Rapids managed to get under way at Kenosha, where she remained until the storm had abated. The Indiana put to port in Chicago in the midst of the storm, with all her passengers seasick and panic-stricken. They described it as the wildest night Lake Michigan has known in years.

Southern Wisconsin suffered severely from the storm. The Wisconsin Telephone company reports that the entire system of the company was completely paralyzed and that Racine, Kenosha and most of the other lake shore cities are entirely cut off. Racine, Kenosha and most of the other lake shore cities are entirely cut off. Racine, Kenosha and most of the other lake shore cities are entirely cut off.

In Indiana the telegraphs were destroyed and the Mutual Telephone company suffered $20,000 damages in the destruction of property losses approximating $1,000,000 to the southeastern farming and other interests, and at least a score of persons dead.

The storm struck the town of R. L. Walters and two of J. Williams' children are reported to be dead.

The property loss in Willis Point is estimated at $75,000, and in Van Dine and surrounding country did $100,000 damage. The storm section extends into Arkansas, Louisiana, and up the Mississippi valley nearly to Memphis, which region is almost without wire or telegraph.

Telegraph companies are finding it difficult to gather details of the storm, but enough is known on which to base estimates of property losses approximating $1,000,000 to the southeastern farming and other interests, and at least a score of persons dead.

The storm struck the town of R. L. Walters and two of J. Williams' children are reported to be dead.

The property loss in Willis Point is estimated at $75,000, and in Van Dine and surrounding country did $100,000 damage. The storm section extends into Arkansas, Louisiana, and up the Mississippi valley nearly to Memphis, which region is almost without wire or telegraph.

Telegraph companies are finding it difficult to gather details of the storm, but enough is known on which to base estimates of property losses approximating $1,000,000 to the southeastern farming and other interests, and at least a score of persons dead.

The storm struck the town of R. L. Walters and two of J. Williams' children are reported to be dead.

The property loss in Willis Point is estimated at $75,000, and in Van Dine and surrounding country did $100,000 damage. The storm section extends into Arkansas, Louisiana, and up the Mississippi valley nearly to Memphis, which region is almost without wire or telegraph.

Telegraph companies are finding it difficult to gather details of the storm, but enough is known on which to base estimates of property losses approximating $1,000,000 to the southeastern farming and other interests, and at least a score of persons dead.

The storm struck the town of R. L. Walters and two of J. Williams' children are reported to be dead.

The property loss in Willis Point is estimated at $75,000, and in Van Dine and surrounding country did $100,000 damage. The storm section extends into Arkansas, Louisiana, and up the Mississippi valley nearly to Memphis, which region is almost without wire or telegraph.

Telegraph companies are finding it difficult to gather details of the storm, but enough is known on which to base estimates of property losses approximating $1,000,000 to the southeastern farming and other interests, and at least a score of persons dead.

The storm struck the town of R. L. Walters and two of J. Williams' children are reported to be dead.

The property loss in Willis Point is estimated at $75,000, and in Van Dine and surrounding country did $100,000 damage. The storm section extends into Arkansas, Louisiana, and up the Mississippi valley nearly to Memphis, which region is almost without wire or telegraph.

Telegraph companies are finding it difficult to gather details of the storm, but enough is known on which to base estimates of property losses approximating $1,000,000 to the southeastern farming and other interests, and at least a score of persons dead.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH; MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1901

Weather Today. Forecast for Salt Lake Today is: Rain or snow; colder.

NUMBER 260

LI HUNG CHANG SAID TO BE ILL

Alarming Report Sent Out Regarding Statesman.

JAPANESE WARSHIPS FOR CHINESE WATERS

Dispatch of Vessels Indicates Seriousness of Situation.

Pekin, March 10.—Li Hung Chang is again seriously ill and his physician says his life hangs by a thread. Prince Ching and Earl Li seem to think that by spreading rumors of the court's unwillingness to return to Peking, unless this or that thing is done, they can influence the deliberations of the ministers of the powers.

As a matter of fact, according to reliable reports from Sian Fu, the imperial personages are extremely uncomfortable at Sian Fu, where they live in the house of the governor, which is only a small structure. French mistresses who have just returned here from Sian Fu believe that the empress dowager would bring the court back to Peking on the first offer of the allies, having as a basis the removal of troops except the legion guards.

The foreign envoys will not hold a general meeting until Tuesday, owing to the absence of the minister, M. Pichon, at Pao Ting Fu.

The United States signal corps will be ready to leave in a week according to instructions. No transport has been announced however.

WARSHIPS FOR CHINA. Japan Alarmed at Situation and Rushes Vessels.

London, March 11.—The Japanese battleship Hatsu, just completed in England, has been ordered to proceed hither with all possible speed," says the Yokohama correspondent of the Daily Mail. "Other orders given to the Japanese navy indicate the seriousness with which the Japanese government views the situation in the far east."

"Well informed Japanese regard Russia's action in Manchuria as a gigantic bluff, inspired by the notion that England's war with Germany is in such a state that she will be unable to carry out her obligations in Manchuria."

"There are reports from the province of Shan Si that the Chinese are constructing extensive fortifications and mobilizing large bodies of troops to resist an advance of the allies."

"General Hsu has returned to allow the decapitation of several notorious Boxer chiefs guilty of murder, whom a Chinese judge has condemned. The Americans are the only foreigners who have carried out no executions in Peking."

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times, who sends a long account of the waning British influence in the Yang Tse valley, says: "Five years ago British interests and influence were predominant and unchallenged."

"The whole country is overrun with German, French, Belgian and Swiss engineers and traders who are exploring its mineral wealth and commercial resources, while two German lines are briskly competing with the shipping on the river, formerly a British monopoly."

"One advantage the British possess over other powers is the confidence and good will of the better classes of the people and officials of central China."

"Commenting editorially upon the attitude of the United States government towards the Manchurian convention the Times says: 'Apparently the Washington government's reply upon the moving force of their exhortations is to induce Russia to abandon the convention or China to refuse to sign. The Reed seems desperately broken.'"

"Chinese signature of the Manchurian convention is practically assured," says the Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Mail, "because Russia last August sent to the empress dowager 7,500 pounds of bar silver."

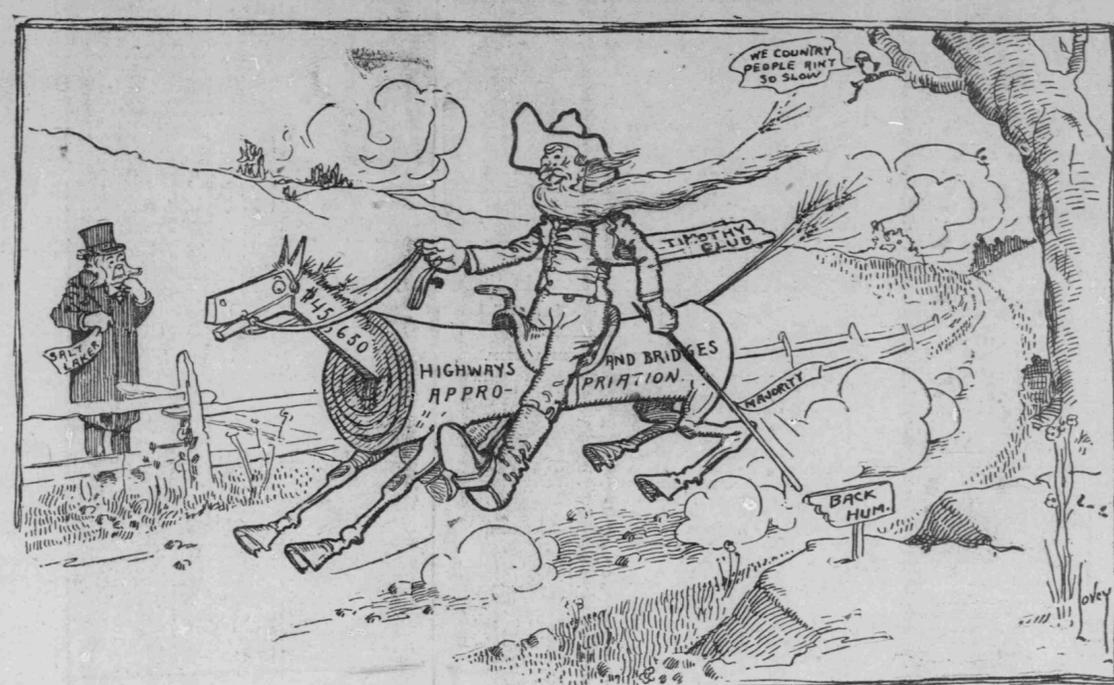

Will Resist Arrest. Shanghai, March 10.—Dispatches from Lan Chou assert that General Tung Fu Hsiang, with 20,000 men and General Tuan with 10,000 men are at Ling Hsu, prepared to resist arrest. The Chinese Gazette announces that Cheng, the Tao-tai has memorialized the throne in favor of the abolition of Likin duties and that all the viceroys and governors support him.

Stormed Gate of Great Wall. Berlin, March 10.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Count Von Walderssee: "Peking, March 10.—Colonel Ledebur's column stormed a gate of the great wall, eight miles west of Pao Ting Fu, Friday, March 8, capturing three guns."

PREPARING FOR DUEL. Arranging for Meeting Between De Roulede and Buffet.

Brussels, March 10.—M. Paul de Casagmac, French conservative deputy and editor of L'Action Paris, arrives here today with M. Paul Buffet, brother of M. Andre Buffet, and M. Ferdinand de Ramel of the French chamber. Buffet is accompanied by the second son of M. Paul de Roulede, the projected duel with M. Paul de Buffet.

Took His Own Life. Memphis, Tenn., March 10.—A. M. Winn, a well known cotton broker, committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself through the heart while in a delirious state brought on by sickness.

PARTY IN THE BACKGROUND—'And I Must Feed the Colt!'

CONDITION OF GENERAL HARRISON REPORTED BY DOCTORS TO BE WORSE

Indianapolis, Ind., March 10.—The condition of former President Harrison is serious. Dr. Jameson stated today that the upper part of General Harrison's left lung was inflamed. There is some danger of the congestion extending to the rest of the lung and to the right lung.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

Storm on the Gulf. Pensacola, Fla., March 10.—There was a severe storm on the gulf last night and on account of the high seas today the battleship Alabama did not sail on her final trial trip.

PROMINENT CITIZENS ARRESTED FOR LYNCHING A MAN IN NORTH CAROLINA

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

Chicago, March 10.—A dispatch to the Record from Carthage, N. C., says: L. J. Jones, Dr. M. E. Street, David Andrews and William Harding, among the most prominent citizens of eastern North Carolina, were arrested last night and lodged in jail, charged with being responsible for the horrible death of Silas Martindale.

DEWEET ESCAPES FROM THE TRAP THAT KITCHENER HAD SET FOR HIM

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

London, March 11.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Aasvogelkop, March 9: General Dewet has escaped northward by a forced march with 400 men. His objective is believed to be the vicinity of Kroonstad.

MRS. NATION'S PAPER IS A LIVELY ONE

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."

Topeka, Kan., March 10.—The initial edition of Mrs. Carrie Nation's paper, the Smasher's Mail, is interesting. It is a sixteen-page paper of neat appearance, containing several half-tone illustrations of various scenes during the late joint crusade. Mrs. Nation says in her salutation: "I have no apologies to make for having Nick Chads for the publisher of the Smasher's Mail. Our Saviour ate with publicans and sinners to do them good. The servant is not above his Lord. These letters I get put into the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come. I do not select anything through the columns of the Smasher's Mail just as they come."