

for the better. Russia should go so far as to abandon the convention which would give everything of importance which she can gain by it, and would be in a better position before the world. She is actually in Manchuria and exercising control of it, while she can strengthen or weaken the Russian position at will. A convention which would not give Russia the position she desires, which would not be a real convention, which would not be a real convention, which would not be a real convention...

Compare Civilization of China With Other Lands. SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE. WARNED AGAINST ATTEMPT TO SHAKE SOCIAL FOUNDATION. Chicago, March 19.—Wu Ting Fang, Chinese minister to the United States, delivered the convocation address of the University of Chicago at the Studebaker theatre this afternoon before the faculty of the institution and an audience that packed the theatre to the doors. Mr. Wu took for his subject "Chinese Civilization."

WAIT FOR PLANS OF FEDERAL BUILDING. Washington, March 19.—The sketch plans for the federal building are still in the act, so speak, Supervising Architect Taylor said today that the plans of this proposed new building had not yet been prepared. Secretary Hitchcock of the interior department, Mr. Taylor, however, does not believe that any radical changes from the original plan have been suggested by either the postoffice or interior department. Mr. Taylor is anxious to have the building started in the near future to begin the preliminary work on the Salt Lake building.

STUDENTS AND WORKINGMEN ENRAGED AT COSSACKS' BRUTALITY. MANY PRISONERS TAKEN. THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY WOMEN ARRESTED. St. Petersburg, Monday, March 18.—Alarm pervades high circles here. The police have notified house-owners to have their house police report for duty and stand themselves in constant readiness. It is apparently confirmed that three hundred and fifty women were arrested. The Cossacks rode into the crowds on the sidewalk, and many faces were cut open by their knotted whips. The students and workingmen threw rubber shoes, canes and snowballs at the Cossacks. It is reported that one Cossack was killed.

COUNCIL DISCUSSES DECIDED TO PAY THE SPRINKLING COST OF STREET PAVING. ESTIMATES SUBMITTED BY CITY ENGINEER. It fell to the lot of Councilman Robertson last evening to show how public works should be done. The council discussed the matter and decided to pay the cost of the street sprinkling department because it seemed to be regular and the computations mathematically correct. Just why the auditor had passed as correct this payroll, when the council had never authorized the expenditure, the chairman of the finance committee could not understand.

NO RIGHT TO INTERFERE. Russia Will Not Tolerate Another Power's Advances. St. Petersburg, March 19.—Answering a question of the correspondent of the Associated Press, a competent official today said: "It is not true that Russia has yielded to the demands of the powers and modified her demands respecting Manchuria, because no representation has been made. Every tenacious attempt to force the Russian government on the subject of our four provinces with China has been categorically refused. Russia has great power, and has the right to hold negotiations with any other government, and no other power has the right to interfere. To have made such a concession would have been a friendly answer. But plainly stated, Russia cannot receive inquiries regarding the above."

WHISKY AND SMALLPOX. Police Court Visitor Had a Double Affliction. Loaded with bad whisky and suffering from confluent smallpox, Dan Ryan called on the police yesterday morning and demanded the expert opinion of Desk Sergeant Pratt on the nature of his trouble. One look at the face and hands of the drunk was sufficient to convince the desk sergeant that he had another smallpox patient on hand, and he issued a peremptory order for the visitor to make arrangements for an examination. He found that Ryan was suffering from a severe case of confluent smallpox and was in a very bad condition.

VALUABLE ESTATE. Some Rate Harrison's Wealth as High as Half a Million. Indianapolis, Ind., March 19.—General Harrison's wealth is variously estimated, but public opinion rates it at least a million dollars. Those who are best informed about the ex-president's affairs, however, say he was worth about $2,000,000. His estate is valued at $1,500,000. His personal property consisted of a number of valuable pieces of art, a collection of books, and a number of valuable pieces of art.
