W. E. HUBBARD IN JAIL FOR A STOCKING CRIME

Prominent Real Estate Man Charged With Assaulting Little Girls.

Officers Concealed Themselves and Witnessed the Alleged Offenses—Hubbard Denies the Charge.

W. E. Hubbard, treasurer and manager of the Hubbard Investment company, former president of the chamber of commerce and a prominent real estate man, is in jail, charged with a felony. His principal accuser is an 11-year-old girl, Helen Knox, the daughter of a widow, Mrs. Perry E. Knox of 275 South First West. Mrs. Lawler, proprietress of the Realty rooming house on West Temple street, where he has a room, corroborates the girl's story, and says she looked through a transom and saw the crime committed.

Landlady's Story. "For months," said Mrs. Lawler, "the girls from 5 to 10 or 12 years old, some of them hardly able to climb the stairs, have paid frequent visits to Hubbard's room, No. 202, on the third floor, but the children called him 'Uncle

When arrested Hubbard declared to the officers that he had done nothing wrong, and appealed to the child to corroborate him. On the way to the police station, according to the statement of the officers, Hubbard demanded to know how they happened to be there in the house. The officers say that positively declined to say anything about the matter until he had called Judge O. W. Powers and spent some time in consultation with him. When seen after the consultation with his attorney, Hubbard said: "I have nothing to say about it, except that the charges are untrue, and I can prove my innocence."

Hubbard trembled visibly when talking, and appeared to be annoyed by any questions asked him. When pressed for further statement in the matter, he positively declined to say anything more. He said he thought he would be able to give bonds, but did not think he could raise them last night.

CLARK'S FORCES READY FOR WAR

Threaten to Arrest Whole Short Line Gang.

SENDING DOWN MEN TO HOLD THE FORT

Head-end Collision Threatens the Uvada Grade.

"It is our intention, first of all, to work on and respect and obey the law, but our men will not be driven from their work except by main force. If the Short Line crowd tries that we will resort to the criminal laws. We will have every one of them arrested for assault."

This was the statement made by Attorney C. O. Whittemore of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake road last evening with reference to the aggravated state of affairs at Uvada. He denied that the force of prize fighters and ex-politicians hurrying to the front sent there to make trouble, but at the same time intimated very directly that they are a class of men who know their business to the extent that they will not be imposed upon.

Those men, especially the ex-officers, said Mr. Whittemore, are level-headed, understand their rights and are determined to stand up for them. They are going to work on the grade, as said yesterday, and they will not be "bluffed" out of their rights. The men at work for us are under our ordinary control and are working on the grade at fourteen feet. That is what they will do. They purpose to finish whatever work they are on, and if the Short Line overtake them and attempt to take possession of the ground our men are at work on, they will accomplish that attempt by main force and violence. Our men are under orders not to resist with violence, but how they will act if the other side does not give up is not known. In case of a personal attack, it is their look-out. But any violence or forced interference on the part of the Short Line crowd, we told our men we would protect them by the courts, and we will do it."

A Collision Expected. There is likely to be something doing down the line. Things are shaping up for just about the hottest seance peaceful Uvada has ever beheld. The statement of Mr. Whittemore makes it quite clear that the Short Line has got to throw the Clark forces off the grade if they want them to retire, and the Clark men are not exactly accustomed to being thrown.

Mr. Whittemore's Denial. In support of his claim that the force which left Salt Lake Friday night for Uvada are not there to make a fight, or do other than work along with the rest of the construction gang, Attorney Whittemore enters a vigorous denial that the men are to receive $5 per day as stated yesterday. The attorney says only two men in the employ of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake are paid that amount. He says that two or three of the men sent out Friday will be in charge of different gangs and their wages will be $3.50 a day and board, while the common laborers will receive $2.50.

However this may be, it is evident from the expressions of some of the men at the depot when they left that they expect $5 a day and board and all other expenses. Three of the party stated positively that this is what was made by the Southern Pacific to lay the tracks on the disputed route.

STOLE ALL THE BANK'S MONEY

Cashier in Vermont Makes a Thorough Clean-up.

TOOK MORE THAN CONCERN'S CAPITAL

Stockholders Will Have to Make Good Depositors' Loss.

Washington, April 13.—The comptroller of the currency today appointed J. T. Sullivan, of his office, a temporary receiver of the Farmers' National bank of Vergennes, Vt. Bank Examiner Frank L. Fish, during an examination of the bank on April 3, discovered a shortage in the cash and a further investigation which has been conducted by Special Examiner John B. Cunningham, indicates a total embezzlement by the cashier, D. B. Lewis, of $90,000. After the discovery of the default, the cashier secured the return of $25,000 to the bank. Until more complete investigation into the acts of the cashier is made, it is impossible to state what loss, if any, will occur to the depositors. It is believed, however, that the loss to the depositors will be large. Steps have been taken to place the cashier in custody and his arrest is expected at any time. The last published statement of the condition of the bank bears date of April 10, 1901, and shows a surplus of $15,000. It is believed the statement was inaccurate in several items. The capital of the bank is $90,000 and its surplus, $6,000.

IN HANDS OF RECEIVER.

Stockholders of Bank Will be Heavily Assessed. Vergennes, Vt., April 13.—The Farmers' National bank went into the hands of John B. Sullivan, an receiver, at the close of business this afternoon. The exact amount of the shortage is not made public here, but it is intimated that the entire stock will be wiped out, and in addition the stockholders will be heavily assessed. It is not thought likely the depositors will lose.

Special Examiner Cunningham was asked for particulars tonight, but he declined to say a great deal, merely remarking that Cashier Lewis had deceived the officers of the bank and that he is now in custody. Mr. Lewis is very well known throughout the state, has been a member of both branches of the state legislature and in 1888 was a prominent candidate for state treasurer. He remains at home and has turned over to the officers of the bank his entire holdings of stock and negotiable property. His sureties are equal to $30,000, and the men who have signed his bond are believed to be good for the full amount.

CUBANS ARE WAVERING.

Do Not Wish to Take Firm Stand on Platt Amendment. Havana, April 13.—At the opening of today's secret session of the constitutional convention, Senor Nunez asked that the convention either reject or accept the Platt amendment, as the resolution adopted yesterday was not a formal declaration and was misleading. The conservatives considered the amendment, while the radicals and the radical press maintained that it did not, and Senor Nunez therefore asked that a vote and may vote be taken. This was opposed by the radicals, who have always avoided taking a definite stand, and of which a resolution was adopted that the convention should not express itself either for or against the amendment, and that a committee be sent to Washington to secure the best possible agreement with the president. This committee will not be authorized to settle definitely the question of the relations between the United States and Cuba, but will report back to the convention.

LAD TO HIS FINAL REST

Simple Services Over the Remains of R. C. Chambers.

MANY OLD FRIENDS ATTEND FUNERAL

Buried Under Profusion of Flowers in San Francisco.

(Special to The Herald.)

San Francisco, April 13.—With the simplest of services, the remains of R. C. Chambers were laid to rest in Laurel Hill cemetery this afternoon. The services were held at the Sacramento street residence with a brief, though beautiful ritual at the grave. The interment was private. These old friends and business associates were pallbearers: C. W. McAfee, W. M. Thornton, F. G. Drumm, Henry Wadsworth, George A. Scott, W. M. Gillet, D. W. Earl, Fred Clark, Monroe Salisbury, Fred Boegle, F. W. Williams, J. Wertheimer.

The ceremony, which began at 2 o'clock with a reading by the Rev. Dr. Edgar J. Lion, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Dr. Lion, like most of those present, was an old friend through long years of happiness and into time of sorrow. He had known both Mr. and Mrs. Chambers. He performed the ceremony that made them man and wife and he officiated at Mrs. Chambers' funeral.

As he read the beautiful Episcopal ritual for the dead and then spoke of his lifetime friend who had been taken away, his voice betrayed the emotion that stirred him and all his hearers. He referred most feelingly to the good Mr. Chambers had done in the world and the large circle of friends who would miss him and mourn sincerely for him. During the services the California male quartette sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Sleep On, Beloved One."

Many Floral Offerings. The floral remembrances were very numerous and elaborate. Conspicuous among them were a broken column from the Marsac mill, an offering of lilacs from the home of Mrs. M. E. Cross from Utah commandery No. 1, Knights Templars; a floral pillow from Argenta lodge; a floral offering from Phoebe Hearst, a pillow of roses from C. L. Road and L. U. Colbath, a magnificent tribute of roses and ferns from Messrs. H. B. Brownlee, F. E. Sargent and W. M. Thornton, surviving associates of Mr. Chambers in the banking firm of Hoge, Daly & Co., of Anaconda, a most beautiful offering from Butte, A. W. McCune sent a very beautiful spray of cut roses, and other tributes came from the Rev. Mr. Scott, James Anderson, A. S. Baldwin, J. Wertheimer, Frank Drumm, C. W. McAfee, Mrs. Boegle, Mrs. John Yost and Mrs. Moses Mackintosh.

A number of Salt Lake people attended the services at the house, among them John J. Daly, J. D. Rookledge, J. P. Daly and Mrs. E. D. Rookledge. Services Were Impressive. The service at Laurel Hill, like that at the house, was brief and impressive. Dr. Lion read the ritual for the dead and the body was then laid to rest and the grave covered with flowers. The grave represented so much of loving remembrance. The monument that marks the grave was only completed a few days ago, under the personal direction of Mr. Chambers, in memory of his wife, and is a handsome monument of granite, inscribed with the family name. A pathetic feature of the gathering at the residence was the presence of several white-haired old men, some of whom were loved him and had eloquent words of praise for his unselfish loyalty to the state. One of these was remembered until the day of his death. Mr. Chambers could have asked no finer eulogy than was paid in the words of these veterans as they passed by his bier for a last farewell.

LAW REACHING FOR NEGRO'S LYNCHERS

Leavenworth, Kan., April 12.—Alfred Alexander, father of Fred Alexander, the negro who was burned at the stake for the alleged assault and murder of Carrie Forbes and for the murder of a white man, has had information from the county attorney against a number of those participating in the burning and lynching, and has secured their arrest on the charge of murder. Before issuing the warrant the county attorney advised the law passed by the last state legislature. This examination is conducted in the nature of a star chamber, and the county attorney decides whether he shall issue the warrant or not. Both the county attorney and Alexander refuse to give the names of the witnesses or indicate the result of the investigation, which is to be continued on Monday.

W. E. HUBBARD and HELEN KNOX

Will and I never had a suspicion anything could be wrong until the colored chambermaid, Hannah Jones, called my attention to evidences of the crimes. This was Saturday, April 6. About 3 o'clock that afternoon she saw a little girl about 10 years old, whose name she does not know, go to Hubbard's room. She looked through the transom and saw the girl sitting on the bed. She immediately notified Chief Hilton, and Officers Sperry and Gillespie were detailed to keep watch on Hubbard. Mrs. Lawler allowed them to take the adjoining room and there they remained for ten hours watching Hubbard's room through a crack. On last Tuesday afternoon the officers left the place about 10 o'clock, according to the statement of Mrs. Lawler. Hubbard appeared about an hour later with little Helen Knox and took her to his room. A short time later Mrs. Lawler says she heard stifled cries from Hubbard's room and on going into the next room saw Hubbard assaulting the child. Helen, she says, was moaning with pain and protesting against his act. Mrs. Lawler ran out for a policeman, but did not find one, and when she returned the child was not there. She notified the officers of the occurrence and a more strict watch was kept on the room, with the result that yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock she saw Hubbard enter the room and later little Helen Knox and 7-year-old Mattie Thompson, the daughter of A. R. Thompson, who runs a restaurant at 202 West Second, South street, came into the room.

According to the story of the officers, Hubbard entered the room, took little Helen on his lap and took her improper liberties with her. A little later he gave the Thompson child some candy, the officers say, and went her out of the room, locking the door behind her. He then again assaulted Helen. The child said she saw some one looking over the transom, and Hubbard, the officers say, then put a sheet over the transom and hid behind it. The child protested, the officers say, and Hubbard, it is alleged, got her to promise to return to his room at 3 o'clock today by offering her a silk umbrella and a silver bracelet. Hubbard then opened the door to allow the child to go, and the officers arrested him.

CLARK HAS ANOTHER RIGHT OF WAY FIGHT

Pomona, Cal., April 13.—A battle royal is being waged here between the Southern Pacific Railway company and the city of Pomona. The new Salt Lake road has, for some weeks, been looking out for a right of way into Pomona, and finally decided to ask the city for a franchise along First street, a number of feet south of and parallel to the Southern Pacific tracks.

The city trustees have not granted the franchise, but were to act upon it on Monday. The Southern Pacific company is now at work doing all in its power to keep the new road from coming into Pomona. The Southern Pacific tracklayers have been busy today with the fire hose, and an air of compressed excitement pervades the town tonight. Crows are on the streets and groups collected in many places discussing the railroad situation. The citizens are taking a determined stand against the Southern Pacific, and a sharp vigil is being maintained along First street. One hundred special policemen are on duty, armed with pick and ax handles, and the members of the home guard have been sworn in as deputies, with revolvers. Fifty men are sleeping in a stable, ready to respond at a moment's notice, and as many more citizens will turn out at the sound of the fire bell if any move is made by the Southern Pacific to lay the tracks on the disputed route.

She told the officers that she went, and related what had occurred there, although she at first denied that Hubbard had harmed her. She said that Hubbard had given her the $5 he had received here, so she could buy a dress, and that he had offered her the umbrella and bracelet to come back
