

A. A. W. GAMES AT LOUISVILLE

John Flannigan Breaks Hammer-throwing Record.

ALSO LOWERS DISCUS THROW

FINALS WILL BE PULLED OFF TODAY.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 4.—The athletic games under the sanction of the A. A. U. at the interstate fair today were made notable by the breaking of the world's record for hammer throwing by John Flannigan of the Irish-American Athletic Club, New York.

The contests today were trials for the finals, which will be held tomorrow. The 220-yard dash, open, was won by Duff of Georgetown university. There was a dead heat for second place between A. J. King of St. Louis and H. Emerich of Indianapolis.

Second heat—G. Senn, University of Chicago, first; W. H. Maloney, University of Chicago, second; Vernon Bowler, Indianapolis, third. Time 1:02.5.

Third heat—Hargrave, Yale, first; W. B. Hunter, Louisville, second; Vernon Bowler, Indianapolis, third. Time 1:01.5.

Following are summaries: Dash, 220 yards, open: First heat—Hargrave, Yale, first; G. Senn, University of Chicago, second; W. B. Hunter, Louisville, third. Time 1:01.5.

Second heat—W. J. Holland, Georgetown university, first; H. Emerich, Indianapolis, second; Vernon Bowler, Indianapolis, third. Time 1:02.5.

Third heat—Hargrave, Yale, first; W. B. Hunter, Louisville, second; Vernon Bowler, Indianapolis, third. Time 1:01.5.

Fifteen-pound shot put, open—John Flannigan, Irish-American A. C., New York, 35.2, second; S. P. Pettit, University of Chicago, 35.0, third.

Six qualified in the running broad jump, open. F. C. Maloney, Knickerbocker, A. C., finished first, with 19.5 feet to his credit. Others were: Friend, University of Chicago, 19.0; H. Katch, First Regiment A. C., Chicago, 18.5; C. Clapper, University of Chicago, 18.0; Pettit, University of Chicago, 17.5; Mark St. Louis, 17.0.

Football. Hurdle, 220 yards, open—T. G. Maloney, University of Chicago, first; H. Arnold, Union Settlement, A. A., New York, second; R. H. Wellington, University of Chicago, third; H. Emerich, University of Chicago, fourth; H. Barrett, University of Chicago, fifth; H. Barlow, Indianapolis, second; F. M. Horton, Indianapolis, third. Time 1:01.4.

Pole vault, open—Those who qualified for the finals were: F. J. Martin, Chicago, 8.0; Albertson, Chicago, 7.5; W. E. Neutze, Chicago, 7.0; All ten fell.

Mile, open—W. R. Erskine, Louisville, Y. M. C. A., first; T. M. Horton, University of Chicago, second; J. H. Barlow, Indianapolis, third. Time 5:44.4-5.

Football. Managers Will Meet. Schedule of Dates to be Discussed at the Kenyon Next Monday Night.

While the organization of the numerous football teams is going on an important question has suddenly loomed before the different managers that demands settlement at once. Each team in its anxiety to secure games has not taken into consideration that there are others in the field, and a clash is liable to be the result.

Should the various eleven's act independently of each other there is a strong possibility that games will be arranged that will seriously conflict with each other. In order that such may not be the case, Manager Porter of the Y. M. C. A. has suggested that the various managers to be held at the Kenyon hotel next Monday night.

Manager Porter is anxious that all the eleven's in the city be represented and a general discussion of the question take place. It has been suggested that a committee, including a representative of each team, be selected and this committee arrange a schedule of dates that will meet with the approval of all the teams. By this arrangement of game could be played every Wednesday and Saturday throughout the season and every team could have all dates desired. If this is not done university might arrange a game at its campus for a certain date.

The school of Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

Managers of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. result would be that the strong would divide the crowds and the weaker would be left out.

who was the life of the Y. M. C. A. team last season and was located in Butte. In a letter received from him yesterday he said the football season in Butte this year had a bright outlook. The strongest team of the present time in Butte is the Business college. It has written Manager Porter of the Y. M. C. A. for a game and the matter has been taken under consideration.

Davis County Farmers. Tackle Miller of last year's Davis county team was in the city yesterday and states things will happen when the farmers' team comes to town.

Nearly all of last year's men will be found in the line again. Miller says that before the championship has been settled this year the Davis county eleven will have to be reckoned with. This is the aggregation that came down last season and created such a sensation by playing the Y. M. C. A. to a standstill. At that time the boys were all raw material, and students of the name claimed that with a little coaching they would be able to whip anything in the state.

GRIDIRON GOSSIP. The university and high school teams will use the field for a few hours practice at the varsity grounds.

Captain Bassett of the L. D. S. reports a good practice last evening. The team lines up twice above the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds.

Manager McChrystal of the High school will use the field for a few hours practice at the varsity grounds.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Manager Guymann yesterday received a letter from the Butte High school asking for a date this season. This is the team that played the Salt Lake High school last year at Walker's field and they are now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Coach Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

Coch Blackburn of the All Hallows put the boys through a drill yesterday afternoon. The backs spent a good half-hour on the bucking plays. As the All Hallows have a game with the college's style of play.

Freddie Smith, last year's captain of the famous High school, has not yet decided whether to play football or not. Nearly every team in the city has made an effort to get Farmer Smith, and he is now being courted by several players in the city each of the line.

Football coaches are in great demand this season. Nearly every school in the city has a coach, and many of the stars are all anxious to get an experienced man to coach them.

BACK FROM THE ARCTIC REGIONS

Government Explorers Reach Halifax on the Windward.

THEIR MEETING WITH PEARY

TELL HOW LIEUTENANT STARTED FOR THE NORTH POLE.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 4.—After an existence of two years in ice floes of the Arctic regions, Dr. Robert Stein of the United States geological survey and Samuel Warmuth of Boston, have arrived at Sydney on the Windward, en route home.

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

They returned with scores of interesting specimens of minerals, plants, etc.

"I am almost certain that Lieutenant Peary did not make any valuable mineral discoveries in northern regions, and that his disagreement with Dr. Doerflinger was due to something else altogether," said Dr. Stein. "I do not know the exact cause of the trouble, but I think it was something like a misunderstanding of the northward square and on other nights practices at the college grounds."

Dr. Stein gave the Associated Press the following account of the trip: "Mr. Warmuth, Dr. Leopold Kurr of the University of Vienna and I left Sydney on July 21, 1899, on the steamer Diara. We sailed for the northward square, and found that the sea to the northwest was a mass of pack ice so that we were compelled to stop at the McKinney cove. We were there for some time, and then we returned to Sydney on the Windward, en route home."

From September, 1899, to September, 1901, they wandered through North Greenland in the hope of making discoveries which would be of benefit to scientific men elsewhere.

OGDEN NEWS

Ogden Office, 203 Eccles Building, Telephone 14.

Ogden, Oct. 4.

Funeral of Arthur Ford.

The funeral of Arthur Ford, who died Thursday as the result of an accident at the McKinney canning factory, will be held at the First ward meeting house, Sunday, at 2 p. m. Friends wishing to view the remains may do so at the home of Mr. William Hamlyn, 2738 Pacific avenue, between the hours of 9 and 12, Sunday forenoon. Friends invited.

Coming to State Fair.

Superintendent Driggs of the state school for the deaf will go down to the Capital city today, taking seven deaf bicyclists with him to view the remains of the institution. An exhibition will be given by them at the state fair. They will illustrate the methods of work in vogue at the school and some of the results.

Forger Bound Over.

F. P. Duran was tried yesterday, charged with forging the name of E. T. Hutchinson to bills of sale of several bicycles. He was found guilty and was bound over to await the action of the district court, and went to the county jail in default of $500 bonds.

Ogden Briefs.

Ben Miller of Wells was in Ogden yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Emmett, a ten-pound girl.

A. J. Weber returned yesterday from Logan, Sabbath day. We had a dog named Esquimaux which was ready to plead guilty, and was bound over to await the action of the district court, and went to the county jail in default of $500 bonds.

The charge of assault and battery against T. W. Hoan was dismissed yesterday in the district court.

The board of education last night allowed bills to the amount of about $2,000, and the teachers will be paid today.

In the estate of James Harrop an order requiring a new inventory and appraisal was yesterday made by Judge Rolapp.

Ben Miller of Wells was in Ogden yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Emmett, a ten-pound girl.

A. J. Weber returned yesterday from Logan, Sabbath day. We had a dog named Esquimaux which was ready to plead guilty, and was bound over to await the action of the district court, and went to the county jail in default of $500 bonds.

The charge of assault and battery against T. W. Hoan was dismissed yesterday in the district court.

The board of education last night allowed bills to the amount of about $2,000, and the teachers will be paid today.

In the estate of James Harrop an order requiring a new inventory and appraisal was yesterday made by Judge Rolapp.

Ben Miller of Wells was in Ogden yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Emmett, a ten-pound girl.

A. J. Weber returned yesterday from Logan, Sabbath day. We had a dog named Esquimaux which was ready to plead guilty, and was bound over to await the action of the district court, and went to the county jail in default of $500 bonds.

The charge of assault and battery against T. W. Hoan was dismissed yesterday in the district court.

The board of education last night allowed bills to the amount of about $2,000, and the teachers will be paid today.

In the estate of James Harrop an order requiring a new inventory and appraisal was yesterday made by Judge Rolapp.

Ben Miller of Wells was in Ogden yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Emmett, a ten-pound girl.

A. J. Weber returned yesterday from Logan, Sabbath day. We had a dog named Esquimaux which was ready to plead guilty, and was bound over to await the action of the district court, and went to the county jail in default of $500 bonds.

The charge of assault and battery against T. W. Hoan was dismissed yesterday in the district court.

The board of education last night allowed bills to the amount of about $2,000, and the teachers will be paid today.

In the estate of James Harrop an order requiring a new inventory and appraisal was yesterday made by Judge Rolapp.

Ben Miller of Wells was in Ogden yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Emmett, a ten-pound girl.

A. J. Weber returned yesterday from Logan, Sabbath day. We had a dog named Esquimaux which was ready to plead guilty, and was bound over to await the action of the district court, and went to the county jail in default of $500 bonds.

The charge of assault and battery against T. W. Hoan was dismissed yesterday in the district court.

The board of education last night allowed bills to the amount of about $2,000, and the teachers will be paid today.

In the estate of James Harrop an order requiring a new inventory and appraisal was yesterday made by Judge Rolapp.

Ben Miller of Wells was in Ogden yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Emmett, a ten-pound girl.

Gives Instant Vigor.

Weak Men Can Have It Free By Sending Name and Address--Imparts Strength and Vigor for Life.

You Will Be Delighted the First Day.

"Feels so Good to Be My Old Self Again!"

How many men quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak glands to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. D. B. Keyser, 1111 Hill Building, Detroit, Mich., and he will gladly send the free receipt with full directions so any man may cure himself at home.

If you are not troubled with sexual weakness don't write. But if you are weak, look and I decide, I will