

The past week marked the opening of a new season of pleasure and pastime for the gay world. While the events in the social calendar have not been of the first magnitude, there have been many affairs of an informal and thoroughly delightful nature. With the opening of the Country club, which took place yesterday, the advent of the spring season is really here, and we may look for many delightful days at that retreat.

Luncheons, dinner and afternoon affairs are scheduled for the coming week, and there is a well-deserved whisper of a few events "in love's domain" in the near future.

Neither the assembly, which was held for in social circles, nor the sermon, of which there was some talk, have materialized, as yet, but there is still plenty to occupy the time of the popular maiden.

Coming Events.

Miss Beale will entertain the members of the D. D. club at dinner at the Tavern tomorrow evening. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Hoyt Sherman will entertain in honor of Mrs. B. B. Rogers of Buffalo, who is her guest. On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. James W. Neill will entertain at a large dinner at the Alta club.

Mrs. John Felt will entertain at a luncheon at the Amelia palace on Thursday of this week. Mrs. John Felt will entertain at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Joseph Howell of Wellsville, who is her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Smoot will entertain the twelve apostles of the Mormon church at dinner tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Eldredge. Mrs. S. H. Babcock has invitations out for a luncheon to be given next Thursday.

Tuesday evening occurs the marriage of Miss Lizzie Silverwood to Mr. Leon S. Simpson.

Mrs. Edward McGarrin gives a large luncheon next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. C. M. Bell will give a luncheon on Friday next in honor of her sister, Mrs. Green, who is her guest.

Weddings.

The engagement is announced of Miss Sylvia Stanley to Mr. W. H. Bowden of Winfield, Kan. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Malquist have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter Segret to Mr. Carl J. Sanders.

On Friday, at the home of the bride's parents, occurred the marriage of Miss Lucile Penrose, the daughter of Mr. C. W. Penrose of the News, to Mr. Frank D. Brown, secretary to Chief Engineer Yard of the Rio Grande Western railway. The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, Mr. Brown left immediately after for Denver, where Mrs. Brown will join him shortly, and where they will make their home.

A pretty homelike wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Garrison, Poplar Grove, on Wednesday evening, April 3, when their only daughter, Lulu, was united to Mr. Carl W. Bailey, Rev. Mr. Johnson of the Baptist church officiated. A number of relatives and friends were present, and the best wishes of all for a happy and prosperous life for the young couple were offered. An elegant spread was enjoyed by those present, and music and mirth prevailed till a late hour. Several appropriate and elegant presents were received.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Nellie Wilson and Mr. William Peters were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wilson. Bishop James Maxwell performed the ceremony. Miss Gertie Williams acted as maid of honor, and Mr. Fred Peters, brother of the groom, as best man. The Misses Bertha Mason and Annie J. Meyer acted as bridesmaids. The bride wore a gown of white, brilliantine, trimmed with white satin and applique lace. The flowers were white roses and carnations. The maid of honor wore a dress of white georgette, trimmed with pink ribbons and pink carnations. The two bridesmaids also wore white swiss dresses, trimmed with white ribbons and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Peters will be at home to their friends at 83 West Second North street, after April 15.

Violet Luncheon.

Mrs. L. M. Bailey was the hostess at a most beautifully appointed luncheon on Tuesday last in honor of her mother, Mrs. Austin. The table was decorated with violets and the same lovely shade was seen in the hand-pointed place cards, to which real violets were tied. Violet shades graced the lights. The girlhood photographs of the guests were used for a guessing contest, to which the prize was awarded to Mrs. Royce. The guests present were: Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Chisholm, Mrs. Sprague, Mrs. Wishard, Mrs. Royle, Mrs. Critchlow, Miss Ayres, Mrs. Edgitt, Mrs. Milligan, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Mansford, Mrs. Bacon, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. Reed.

Spring Luncheon.

Mrs. Heber M. Wells and Mrs. E. S.

Ferry were the hostesses at a most charmingly appointed luncheon on Tuesday last at which over forty guests were seated. The house was beautifully decorated, the dining room being especially effective. In the midst of the long dining table was placed a basket of spring flowers resting on a piece of handsome Battenburg. The library was done in red, red tulips and yellow jonquils being used. The parlor was a picture in yellow, bright yellow daffodils forming the main decoration.

Delightful Luncheon.

Mrs. Heber M. Wells and Mrs. E. S. Ferry entertained again on Friday at a most delightful luncheon. The guests were seated at a number of small tables in the library and the parlor and at the large table in the dining room. At each place in the dining room was a spray of lilies of the valley and in the other rooms yellow jonquils and daffodils were used with the place-pots of the lovely colors graced the tables in the parlor and in the library red tulips were effectively used. The rooms were darkened and a glow of color was thrown over the whole from the artificial lights.

Easter Luncheon.

The Amelia palace was the scene on Wednesday last of a very beautifully appointed Easter luncheon, given by Mrs. Edwin A. Holmes. The round table was spread for twelve guests and the decorations were all of the Easter order. A cut-glass bowl of Easter lilies adorned the centerpiece, while individual bouquets of lilies of the valley, tied with narrow green satin ribbon, were at each place. Over the cover was spread an exquisite piece of Russian lace, while at either side were the handsome candelabra with shades of white tulle trimmed with lilies of the valley. Large bows of green ribbon graced the sides of the table and dainty Easter cards were used for the places.

Afternoon Party.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Carrie Mooney, assisted by Mrs. Harry Ganz and Miss Stella Hooper, entertained in honor of Miss Miriam Nelke of Provo. The afternoon was spent delightfully, music and recitations being enjoyed. Miss Nelke and Miss Bertha Stauss of New York delighted the company with their impersonations. Delicious refreshments were served.

Utopia Club.

The Utopia club met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Crossman. The house was prettily decorated with the spring flowers, yellow jonquils and red tulips being used effectively. The game of the afternoon was euchre, and the first prize was won by Miss Maud Parker. Mrs. Callahan captured the prize for the most lone hands and the consolation fell to Mrs. E. A. Wall. The next meeting of the club will be on the 16th with Mrs. J. C. Hanchett at her new home, 521 East Second South street.

Informal Afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Ganz, assisted by Mrs. John Reed, entertained a few young ladies informally on Thursday afternoon to meet Miss Nelke of Provo. During the afternoon Miss Stauss, Miss Nelke and Mrs. Reed gave some piano numbers, and Miss Mooney sang. The spelling match, in which Miss Nelke won first prize, afforded much merriment.

Kensington.

Mrs. H. N. Mayo gave a most enjoyable Kensington in honor of Mrs. Ormsby of Boise on Wednesday afternoon. Those present besides the guest of honor were: Mrs. George Cushing, Mrs. G. W. Parks, Mrs. J. M. Sharp, Mrs. Andrew Dowd, Mrs. Charles Loring, Mrs. Dressler, Mrs. H. D. Evans, Mrs. E. F. Root, Mrs. A. T. Moon, Mrs. Barbee and Miss Simons.

At Luncheon.

Mrs. James E. Clinton was the hostess at a prettily arranged luncheon on Tuesday last. The house was decorated in red, the color being used effectively on the dining table. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Ormsby of Boise. The other guests were: Mrs. Andrew Dowd, Mrs. George A. Snow, Mrs. Fordyce, Dr. and Mrs. Ellerbeck and Mr. Clinton.

Children's Party.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger and Mrs. Simon Bamberger gave a most delightful children's party for their daughters, the Misses Dorothy and Elsa Bamberger, on Monday last. The decorations were all in the Easter order, the refreshments being arranged on small tables with decorations of Easter eggs and rabbits. In the garden eggs were hidden for the hunting and the children searched for them. Each of the little guests was given a rabbit for a souvenir.

A Dainty Luncheon.

Miss Miriam Nelke was the guest of honor at a dainty luncheon given by Miss Buckbee Friday. The table decorations were red carnations and ferns over exquisite carnation embroidery. The place cards were twin hearts tied with dainty ribbons. Hearts of various sizes and colors were strewn carelessly over the entire table. Daylight was excluded, and the guests enjoyed a dainty repast under the electric lights. The invited guests were Miss Miriam Nelke of Provo, Miss Carrie Mooney, Miss Rosa Dames, Mrs. Harry Wanless, Mrs. Theodore Carlsson, Mrs. Stella Hooper, Miss Gwen Morgan, Mrs. William Searle, Mrs. Howard Stowe, Mrs. Harry Ganz.

Sixty-three Party.

Mrs. C. M. Bell and Mrs. Harvey were hostesses at a pleasant evening party Friday, at which sixty-three was the game. The house was prettily decorated in red and green, and the guests numbered about forty. Two sets of prizes were given—the guests' prize and the club prize. The guests' prizes were won by Mrs. Heber Lee and Mr. McArthur, and the club prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Lewis and Mr. L. L. Downins.

Dinner.

Colonel and Mrs. Charles S. Burton gave a most delightful dinner Monday evening in honor of Mr. A. H. Sonne, who has been spending a few days in the city. The table was artistically decorated with red carnations and ferns. Dainty place cards in red and green were used. Those present besides the guest of honor, were Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Whitney, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spencer.
