

SERMON ON THE POWER OF MUSIC

Dean Eddie Speaks of the Great Spiritual Force.

REV. P. S. THACHER ON LOVE

TALKS OF FEELINGS OF GOD AND MORTALS.

DEAN J. B. EDDIE'S undeniable passion for music is responsible for a new title...

Last night, before a large congregation at St. Mark's, Dean Eddie spoke of the power of music...

LOVE NOW AND HEREAFTER.

Rev. P. S. Thacher Preaches on Divine and Mortal Affections.

The Rev. P. S. Thacher of the Unitarian church delivered a discourse on "The Loving God" yesterday forenoon.

Mr. Thacher said in part: "It is a primary fact of our nature that we cannot help thinking that everything which takes place is controlled by some higher power."

"To tell a child that his father is angry with him and hates him, puts vice on a level with virtue, and makes man feel that he cannot approach his father. Jesus taught that God was not angry with the children of men."

"The audacity which has the human and unjust coolness to go on teaching everlasting punishment in the face of God's fatherhood is as cowardly as it is wicked. We can forgive those who hold their judgment, and hold their tongue. They are weak, but not necessarily wicked. But we cannot excuse those who, in the name of God, go on insisting on the accused lie that evil exists forever exposed to the insatiable cruelty of an unjust God."

"The sins that are a shame and disgrace to us are like a stain that can be washed out by a good life. A knot or twist in life's string which reformation can untie; a skin wound, but not a fatal injury to the soul. When we have been over the still faces of those we have loved, we need no longer fear that they are longing for our tears to cool their burning flames."

"The universe is not an infinite heartlessness. It is bound in love, a household of God, a magnificent order, unity and harmony, no stern rut, of course, no rainfall in excess, no shaft of light too luminous, the very hairs of our head are numbered."

"When we say, 'God is love' you may ask: 'Why this cruelty when we are husbands? Why does he not protect us from earthquakes, tornadoes and volcanic eruptions?' Remember, this world is still revolving, and therefore is imperfect. Nature does not make perfect oak trees. They spring from acorns, and develop gradually. So the worlds have unfolded slowly, and anything that is growing is never at any particular stage of the growth complete. You would not criticize an unfinished picture. Wait till the artist is done. The hymn is good sense: 'His purpose will ripen fast, unfolding every hour. The bud may have a bitter taste, but sweet will be the flower.'"

DISCUSS BOOK OF MORMON.

Elders Jensen and Nicholson Talk of Its Authenticity.

The authenticity of the Book of Mormon was the only theme discussed at the tabernacle yesterday afternoon, the speakers being Elders Andrew Jensen and John Nicholson. Elder Jensen will leave the city in a few days for Sweden, where he goes to superintend the publication of the fourth edition of the Book of Mormon in the Danish language, and his address was in the nature of a farewell to his friends, as well as a discussion of the work. Elder Jensen, in his remarks, reviewed the original translation of the work, together with the circumstances surrounding the discovery of the golden plates, paying particular attention to the testimony of the witnesses, and dwelling upon the fact that while some characters were excommunicated from the church, later they always bore the same testimony concerning what they had seen.

Elder Nicholson pursued practically the same lines, but dwelt more particularly upon the important part played by Joseph Smith.

THINKS INDIANS WILL CONSENT

Agent Myton Talks of Bill Opening Uintah Reservation.

RED MEN LIKE CASH OFFERED

GREAT RESOURCES OF THE TERRITORY ARE DISCUSSED.

THE opening of the Uintah reservation, that is now practically assured, has raised the question whether the Indians would smoke the pipe of peace with the "pale face" settlers and make no objections to giving up their lands...

Called Richest Section of Utah. The opening of the reservation, in the opinion of Major Myton, means the opening of the richest section of the state of Utah, and a big rush is expected as soon as the bars of federal restriction are removed.
