

SOCIETY has shown signs of life of the liveliest kind the past week, and although many of the affairs have been of a delightfully informal nature, they have been numerous and extremely pleasant. Many of the young people who have been away at eastern colleges are returning to the city for the summer months, and this means a great increase in the gaieties of the place. Not only are they filled with the spirit of eternal fun, which is a part of college life, but they are free to enjoy everything that is before them. With the opening of the month of June there are two weddings scheduled for the first week, with many following immediately. Indeed, the month will be devoted to affairs of the altar and their adjuncts in the form of complimentary events of a social nature. The past week has witnessed more than one of those pleasant affairs in which the affection and esteem of girlish friends is shown for the one who goes.

Coming Events.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Howell of Fort Douglas will entertain a number of their friends at dinner this evening in celebration of the birthday of Lieutenant Howell.

Miss June McIntyre will entertain at an informal Kensington Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Sadie McChrystal.

The high tea to be given by Miss McGrath in honor of Miss Dern, Tuesday evening, is to be one of the elaborate affairs of the coming week. The hour is the customary dinner hour of 7 o'clock.

Miss Jennie Lynn will entertain at an informal party Tuesday evening.

Miss Leta McMillan has invitations out for a luncheon to be given Wednesday in honor of Miss Elizabeth Dern.

Mrs. George W. Putnam will entertain at cards next Wednesday afternoon.

Another hop at the post is planned for Wednesday, June 11.

Engagements and Weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Mr. James T. Finlen of Butte, Mont. The wedding, which will be a very quiet one, will take place on the 18th of June.

The engagement is announced of Miss Louise Morris and Mr. G. D. Montford of Washington. The wedding will take place June 25 at the home of the bride's parents in Monterey, Cal. The bride has made many warm friends during the year of her sojourn in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bourgard announce the engagements of their daughters, Chessie Mate to Mr. George Frederick Rigby of this city and Lulu Grace to Dr. Charles Newland Ray of Mt. Pleasant. The double wedding will take place June 15.

The engagement was announced during the past week of Miss Isabel Violet Whitney of Oakland and Lieutenant George Purcell, U. S. N. The young lady is well known in society circles in Salt Lake.

The marriage of Miss Rachel Vincent and Arthur J. Selander will take place Wednesday, June 18, in the Salt Lake temple. A reception will be held in the evening at the home of the bride's father.

Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents will occur the double wedding of Miss Ethel Carter to Mr. A. H. Dutton and of Miss Emma Carter to Mr. A. W. Leggett.

On Wednesday of this week will occur the marriage of Miss Moffat to Mr. Patrick and of Miss Moyle to Mr. Van Cott. The former will be a home wedding and the latter will take place in the temple and be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. James H. Moyle, 465 East First South street.

Afternoon at Cards.

One of the largest and most elaborate card parties given in the city for some time was that of Thursday afternoon, at which Mrs. George W. Snow and Mrs. Marleneaux were the hostesses. The house was beautifully decorated with silk flags, and red and white roses and carnations. The color scheme was carried out in everything, down to the courses in the delicious luncheon served. The tables and score cards were hand-painted American girls, with draperies of red, white and blue. The large, airy porches were decorated in the same colors and prettily arranged cosy corners were to be seen. Prizes were won by Mrs. Dallas and Mrs. R. B. Whittemore. The invited guests were:

Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mrs. William Bradley, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Rickford, Mrs. J. J. Judson, Mrs. Rachel Miller, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. George Sutherland, Mrs. E. O. Lee, Mrs. Heber Lee, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Rawlins, Mrs. George Bruce, Mrs. R. B. Whittemore, Mrs. C. S. Varian, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Stude, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. John Reed, Mrs. A. G.
