

THE LAKE SEASON has fairly opened, and several of the warm nights of the past week have seen some delightful late parties. There is to be an effort made among the social set to change the night which shall be "it" from Saturday to Thursday, and the idea seems to be meeting with favor.

The matrimonial market is still black, and the week shows a number of weddings of promise, the most noteworthy perhaps being the Dorn-Cunningham nuptials, which took place Tuesday afternoon at St. Paul's church. The marriage of Miss Hancock and Mr. Allen was another of the matches in which a large number of society people of the city were interested. The beautiful home wedding of Miss Knickerbocker and Mr. Knickerbocker, too, was one of the events of the week.

The coming week is well filled with social events, although they are more of the outdoor order and savor of the country club and the lake, rather than of the drawing room and the den. Many of the young people are home from the east and are preparing for the good times which shall be theirs.

Coming Events.
The marriage of Miss Mary Ivers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ivers, and Mr. James T. Finlen of Butte will take place Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. The wedding will be a quiet one, attended only by the relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. Bishop Scanlan will perform the ceremony, and the bride will be attended by Miss Anna Wall of New York. Mr. Frank Murphy, also of New York, will be the best man. After a wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Finlen will leave for an extended tour in the east.

The marriage of Miss Sadie McChrystal and Mr. Edward Parsons will take place on Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Paden at 7:30, and the bride will be attended by Miss Katherine Kanters and two little flower girls, Misses Elsie Parsons and Frances McChrystal. The groomsmen will be Mr. Arthur Parsons and Mr. C. B. Diehl.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry La Motte will entertain at a dancing party at their home on Thirteenth East street, on Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hosmer will entertain at cards tomorrow evening, and again on Tuesday evening, and Mrs. Hosmer will give an afternoon card party Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Officer will entertain a few friends at a very informal affair tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Benson have invitations out for a card party tomorrow evening, to be given in honor of Miss Robert R. Hampton and Miss Kanters.

Reception.
A most beautiful and elaborate reception was that given by Mrs. George A. Love and Miss Love on Thursday afternoon. The large parlors were almost filled with roses, a definite scheme of color being in each room. In the hall, behind a screen of palms and ferns, was stationed an orchestra, which dispensed sweet music throughout the hours. The parlor was done in white and green, while roses and sprays of spring being used. The library was a mass of pink peonies, a most beautiful and elaborate reception was that given by Mrs. George A. Love and Miss Love on Thursday afternoon.

Reception and Dance.
The reception to the class of 1902 given by the Alumni association of the Salt Lake High school last night was one of the bright social events of the week. Christensen's hall was used for the affair, and the walls were transformed with the decorations. The main hall was in white and green, the special colors of the honored class. While in the reception room were the red and black of the High school. In each of the ten embrasures along the walls were found the colors and the dates of the various classes. On the stage at the south end of the room refreshments were served, and the whole affair decorated in the national colors. Vases of roses formed the table decorations.

An informal programme was presented before the dancing, consisting of an address of welcome by the president of the association, Rollin Dole, and a response by the class president, Nicholas Smith.

Afternoon at Home.
Mrs. W. R. Wigham entertained a number of friends at a charming at home Thursday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Platt, who is her guest. The color used in the decoration of the house was deep red, and jars filled with red roses were used most effectively. In the dining room a large bowl of roses formed the centerpiece, and the same color was carried out in the minor decorations. Mrs. Wigham and Mrs. Platt were seated at the table presided by Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Blakely, Mrs. DeLano and Mrs. Boxrud. In the library Mrs. J. O. Cross served punch, and in the dining room Mrs. Clark, Miss Carson and Miss Wightman served delicious refreshments.

At Dinner.
Mrs. Priscilla Jennings was the hostess at a very enjoyable dinner Friday evening given in honor of Mr. Heber J. Grant, and as a dedication of her new home as well. About forty guests were present and they were seated at one long and several small tables. Dishes were used in profusion for decoration, the tables being covered with them. All vases of sweet peas were placed in the center of each table. After the dinner the guests enjoyed several delightful musical numbers from Miss Celia Sharp and some excellent vocal selections from a fine quartette.

Flag Day Luncheon.
Mrs. David Keith was the hostess at a very pretty arranged luncheon yesterday, at which the decorations were all in the national colors. Small flags were used for place cards, and flags were draped around the walls of the dining room. A large bowl of red roses formed the centerpiece. Delightful music was rendered throughout the luncheon by Schettler's orchestra, which was stationed in the upper hall.

Informal Afternoon.
The Misses Jessie Drew and Bessie Chambers were the guests of honor at a delightfully informal afternoon party given by Miss Grace Heikes last Monday. Carnations and roses were used to decorate the house, and they were to be seen on every hand in sprays and clusters. Punch was served by Miss Mary Hoag, and at 5 o'clock a delicious tea was served. The guests of the afternoon were Mesdames Peak, Chambers, Honnold and Gossens, and Misses Baker, Sowles, Williamson, Jennie Williamson, Drew, Mayne, Bessie Mayne, Jackson, West, La Due, Wilkins, Boyd, Jessie Boyd, Foster, Hoag, Chambers.

Chinese Card Party.
Mrs. John Lewis was the hostess at a most unique and picturesque Chinese card party Wednesday afternoon. The decorations were all of the Chinese order—the ceiling being hung with Chinese umbrellas and lanterns. The tables for cards were covered with the Chinese colors, and Chinese pictures were used for tallies, with counters of Chinese money. Tea was served by the Misses Helen Bamberger and Mamie Sappington dressed in Chinese costumes. Prizes were won by Mrs. W. T. Benson and Mrs. Alfred Hirth.

Hop at the Post.
The hop given Wednesday evening at Fort Douglas by the bachelor officers was one of the most enjoyable events recorded there. The large hall was decorated with military trappings, the flags of the regiment being draped around the walls. The bachelor officers were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Cocheau. Punch was served throughout the dancing, and later in the evening a delicious supper was served in the officers' club.

Ping Pong Party.
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Riter entertained at a very pleasant ping pong party last Monday evening in honor of Professor Richard R. Lyman, who leaves shortly for New York. The large parlors were filled with guests, and besides music and conversation, several games of ping pong were enjoyed. Prizes in this game were awarded to Professor R. L. McGhie and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury. Some fine instrumental selections were given by Miss Celia Sharp.

Afternoon at Cards.
Miss Edna Shearman was the guest of honor at a prettily arranged sixty-three party last Tuesday afternoon, given by the Misses Leona and Eloise Sherman. The house, with its masses of June roses and a bevy of girls in dainty summer gowns, presented a pretty picture, and the luncheon table was beautifully decorated with tea roses, a large cut glass bowl filled with them forming the centerpiece. The ladies present to meet Miss Healy were Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Patrick, Mrs. W. D. Riter, Mrs. Moffat, Mrs. Mulford and the Misses Kate and Edna Dwyer.

Evening Party.
The Misses Eloise and Laura Sherman were the hostesses at a second party Thursday evening, at which ping pong was played. The house was prettily decorated for the affair, and about twenty-five or thirty friends enjoyed the evening. Prizes in the ping pong game were awarded to Miss Helen Bubb and Mr. J. Wolcott Thompson.

At Cards.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes and Mrs. Henry D. Styer entertained at a pleasant sixty-three party Tuesday evening in honor of the new officers at the post. About forty friends were present and prizes were won by Lieutenant Falls and Miss Bertha Carter. The house was decorated with roses, and the evening was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Agatha Zerke will return the end of this month and will give a song recital at the First Congregational church under the auspices of the music society of the ladies' literary club. Miss Zerke has been singing in the east with much success this spring.

On account of the death of H. Archie Sheppard, who was secretary, and one of the foremost members, the Misogynists' club has adjourned for two weeks. The club field day was to have been at the Lagoon this morning, but it has been postponed for an indefinite period. The members will attend St. Paul's in a body this morning.

The Salt Lake Glee club, under the direction of Evan Arthur, was out serenading its friends on Tuesday evening. Among those serenaded were President Joseph F. Smith and Mr. G. E. Garrett. The club's music was much enjoyed and the members were royally entertained by those whom they called on.

One of the pleasant events of the week was the party given Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Nancy Birkinshaw and her two sons, at her new home, 626 South Sixth East street. The rooms were beautifully decorated in roses. Music was furnished by Mr. Joseph and Miss Bessie Birkinshaw. At 10 o'clock an elaborate supper was served, about thirty-six being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gilson announce the marriage of their eldest daughter, Hattie, to Mr. Edwin B. Stewart in Spokane, Wash., on Sunday last, the Rev. W. H. Fry of the Jefferson Street Methodist church officiating. Mr. Stewart is a well known citizen of Spokane, Wash., and Miss Gilson is the popular daughter of Sam Gilson, the mining man of Salt Lake.

A pleasant surprise social, arranged by Mrs. J. Frank Pickering, 203 East Fifth South street, was given on Thursday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Emma Wright, a popular eighth-grade teacher of the Washington school. Those present were Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. Stannard, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Trousdale, Miss Randolph, Miss Miller and Miss Finch. The surprise was a complete success, and the evening was pleasantly spent in social chat, music and refreshments. Miss Wright left during the week to spend her summer vacation with friends and relatives in Denver, Clinton, Ia., and other eastern cities.

At high noon Thursday in the temple, President John R. Winder performed the marriage ceremony uniting Mr. Henry F. Pickering and Miss Emily D. Sellers. In the evening a reception was given by the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sellers, at their residence, 615 East Third South street. The house was very beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and cut flowers. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents. After June 25 Mr. and Mrs. Pickering will be at home to their friends at 943 North Temple street.

Miss Claudia Schmitter entertained a few of her friends at a sixty-three party last Tuesday evening, the first prizes being won by Miss Paul and Mr. Claud Hull, while Miss Effie Hague and Mr. A. J. Skidmore carried away the booby prizes. The prizes awarded for the guessing contest were won by Miss Skidmore and Miss Susie Waugh. Among those present were the Misses Nellie McMaster, Hague, Skidmore, Wallace, Robbins, Allie Paul, Mrs. H. R. Freeman, and the Messrs. Nelson, Gray, Collinson, Skidmore, Hull, Waugh and Schmitter.

Mr. J. B. Hume gave a farewell party to a number of his gentlemen friends at his home, 315 Fourth street, last Wednesday evening. During his two years at the university he has formed many friendships, and the jovial time at his home last Wednesday evening is indicative of the high esteem in which he is held by his many acquaintances. He goes to California to enter the employ of his uncle, Mr. R. D. Hume of the Hume-Simons company. The best wishes of his friends accompany him, and they trust that by his faithful efforts he will be able to achieve success in his new undertaking.

WALKER'S STORE.

A Sample Line Exhibit of Rich Lace Robes in Reception Room to Sell at 40c on the Dollar.

A splendid stroke of Walker Store enterprise. These most exquisite robes would have passed us by but for the strenuous effort which secured them. They are the samples of an importer who visits New York, San Francisco and two or three large cities of the northwest each year with a view to taking orders for the season following—and do you see the point of emphasis in this? The VERY NEWEST innovation of lace makers are they, to be worn next year as well as this. And not to be lost sight of either, is the fact that right in line with the selected few great retail houses in his path leading across the continent which this representative considers worthy, now stands the Walker Store possessed of first importations of lace robes as fine and as soon as any city in the land. Samples, no two alike, entirely different from any shown here, all shaped and in form to be made up. Monday and the week prices that average 40c on the dollar:

- One robe, $140.00 value—$54.00.
- Four robes, $100.00 each—$42.00.
- Two robes, $90.00 each—$38.00.
- Three robes, $85.00 each—$34.00.
- Five robes, $80.00 each—$32.00.
- Three robes, $75.00 each—29.00.
- Two robes, $65.00 each—$27.00.
- Three robes, $60 each—$23.00.
