

SHORT LINE FROM DENVER

Assurances That Moffat Road Will Be Built to Salt Lake.

BETTER PORTLAND SERVICE

LIVELY BUSINESS IN EXCURSIONS TO SUMMER RESORTS.

DENVER, June 20.—The Post today says: The construction of the Denver & Northwestern becomes more assured every day as the financial arrangements progress in New York, and the extension of the line from Arvada toward Salt Lake will be pushed this fall.

There is too much at stake for Denver, said President S. M. Ferry, for us to make any statement whatever which would in any way jeopardize the negotiations, and we are satisfied that everything is progressing satisfactorily, but are not yet preparing any contracts from road building beyond those now in hand. I do not know when Mr. Moffat will return.

Edward D. C. Dodge, who has been mentioned in connection with the head of the construction department, thinks there is now little doubt but that the road will go through.

BETTER THE SERVICE.

Short Line Aiming For the Best Attractions on Overland Run.

In the effort to make the Short Line's dining car service the best in the country, Superintendent Lewis has authorized an increase in the salaries of the conductors from $50 to $55 monthly. The waiters receive a monthly salary of $30 plus the amount of the dining car service.

It is intended by the Short Line to soon run an observation car, similar to the kind on the Overland Limited, on its Portland special. By the effective use of all along the road bed it is believed the observation car feature will be greatly enhanced, especially along the Columbia river, where the scenic attractions are entrancing.

Big Excursion to Saltair.

Next Wednesday promises to be the bumper day in the excursion experience of the Mutual Improvement associations. On that day they will have their annual outing at Saltair. The event is being extensively and effectively advertised in all parts of the city, and thousands of members are expected to for their loyal and enthusiastic support.

Salt Lake & Ogden's Franchise.

Members of the city council committee on streets and municipal affairs met this afternoon at the office of President Simon Bamberg of the Salt Lake & Ogden railway to look over the plan of franchise which it is desired to obtain a franchise to give the extended road, when converted into an electric line, a terminal in this city, extending over Third West, Third South, West Temple, Market, Main and South Temple streets.

Leadville Shippers' Complaint.

Leadville, Colo., June 20.—Three members of the interstate commerce commission—James D. Youmans, Washington, D. C.; ex-Governor Pifer of Illinois and Charles A. Froudy of Vermont—are in session here today, taking evidence on freight rates. Leadville merchants claim that they are discriminated against in favor of Denver and Salt Lake, inasmuch as rates are cheaper from Chicago to Salt Lake than from Chicago to Leadville.

Young's Jurisdiction Extended.

Omaha, June 20.—Ernestus Young, general auditor of the Union Pacific and affiliated lines, with headquarters in this city, has been appointed general auditor of the Chicago & Alton road. This puts all the Harriman lines, comprising about 2,500 miles, under Mr. Young's supervision.

Harvest Excursions From East.

Omaha, June 20.—The Union Pacific and Burlington roads, and their connections today agreed on an extension of the harvest excursion rate from the Missouri river to northwest Pacific coast points during the summer and fall. The arrangement will be effective the first Tuesday in July and will continue until Oct. 21, tickets being sold on the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

day in July and will continue until Oct. 21, tickets being sold on the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Local Railroad Notes.

The Oregon Short Line is preparing for summer rush of passenger traffic. Yellowstone park this summer than ever before.

The Rio Grande will run a popular excursion to the Provo canyon resorts and to the Homesteads. The train leaves at 9 o'clock and will be $1.25, and among the attractions will be fishing and a trout dinner. The train for Provo canyon will leave at 8 o'clock.

The Opal club's excursion to Ogden on Sunday over the Short Line promises to be one of the largest of the season. The outing will include a trip to Ogden canyon and a chicken and trout dinner at the Homesteads. The train leaves at 9 o'clock and will be carried free. Tickets are $1.

George W. Heintz, former general passenger agent of the Rio Grande, leaves next week for a ten days' trip east. It is surmised he is going to look over a proposition which has been made to him to enter the service of a big eastern railroad.

Baron Oppenheim Says People Are Virtuous and Moral.

Utah is being honored with the presence of a German nobleman who, as a representative of his government, is studying various features of American enterprise and industry to be incorporated in the construction of a mammoth railroad between Constantinople and the Persian gulf, and penetrating Baghdad and Babylon.

At a meeting of the Elks' finance committee last evening, Chairman Lester D. Freed resigned his office, and W. H. Clark was elected to succeed him.

After his appointment, Chairman Clark made a neat little speech, in which he urged the committeemen to get out and rustle. He then called for reports from the various sub-chairmen, thirty of whom were present.

A good looking stranger walked into Elks' headquarters yesterday, and after announcing himself as the representative of the Illinois lodges, made application to Chairman Homer of the accommodation committee for quarters for 700 people.

"Can't possibly put you all in the same place," said Mr. Homer, "but I'll make room for you some way."

"We want to be together, if possible," replied the visitor from Illinois, and out into the air he sauntered.

An hour later he returned to the office with a broad grin on his face, and announced that he had reserved the whole of the Harmon block for Illinois and paid for it in advance.

"Tomorrow at 11 o'clock the committee on street illumination meets to open bids."

FOUND ROBBERS' CACHE.

Two Men Supposed to Be the Thieves Arrested by Police.

Hidden among the bushes in the rear of the postoffice, a small robbers' roost was found yesterday by a police officer, who had lain in wait for an hour or more to catch members of the gang of thieves which has been operating in that vicinity.

The hiding place contained quantities of every kind of goods that have been stolen in the city for the past two weeks. All the articles that had been stolen from the old high school building, on Pierpont street, were found, and also things which had been stolen from residences in the vicinity.

People in that neighborhood have even been told that the cache was empty.

tered vigorous protests at police headquarters against the constant visits of the burglars, but all efforts to capture them were futile.

The men appeared in the city court yesterday, one to answer to the charge of house breaking, and the other that of receiving stolen property.

AGAIN ABANDON CHASE

All Trace of Tracy and Merrill Lost—Waiting For Another Clue.

Vancouver, Wash., June 20.—"It is the same old story. The outlaws, Tracy and Merrill, have disappeared. After diligent though fruitless search for the past twenty-four hours, we have again given up the search, at least until we get another clue."

This was the report of Sheriff Marsh this evening in answer to inquiries regarding the result of the last sortie after the escaped convicts. The sheriff and the entire posse which joined in the search yesterday, except three or four trusty men left to keep a close watch in the neighborhood for a fresh clue, returned here tonight.

The posse, including Guard Casson and the bloodhounds, will rest here until the outlaws again disclose their whereabouts. They were last seen at 10 o'clock yesterday at the home of Mrs. Martin, one-half mile from the Targoson ranch.

A few minutes after leaving the Martin place the outlaws met a peddler, with whom they exchanged a few words. The peddler asked them if they were hunting the convicts, to which one replied:

"No, but you come as near as anyone to knowing where to find them."

At the Martin place Tracy remained at the edge of the road on watch while Merrill and the posse proceeded to search about fifteen pounds of flour, part of a loaf of bread, about a pound of butter and a couple of eggs.

At 2 o'clock a dispatch to the News from Enunelaw says the damage to timber and buildings in the town is over $100,000.

About forty women and children are shut off by fire from reaching the town, and are suffering greatly from heat and smoke. Twenty buildings and a large mill are burned. Everybody is ready to remove and wagons are being loaded.

GIVES HIMSELF UP.

Confesses to Police That He Is Wanted in East For Forgery.

Phoenix, Ariz., June 20.—William Caldwell was surrendered to the police here, saying he forged a check on the Five Cents Savings bank of Lowell, Mass., for $50 and one for the same amount in the Industrial Savings bank of that city.

He asserts that most of the money thus acquired was committed a year ago. Caldwell says he is tired of dodging imaginary detectives and wants to go home and start life in a hospital, as a legend of forgeries were committed a year ago.

H. L. Frank Sells Interest in His Coal Mines in Crow's Nest Region.

Butte, Mont., June 20.—H. L. Frank of this city has sold a three-fourths interest in his coal mines at Frank, B. C., to a French syndicate for $1,300,000. A payment of $85,000 has been made to bind the sale. The Frank mines are in the Crow's Nest region.

FELLS WIFE WITH CLUB.

Butte Man Knocks Wife Senseless and Leaves City.

Butte, Mont., June 20.—Mrs. Peter Bart was discovered lying senseless in her home today, with her skull fractured, the assault having been made, it is believed, by her husband, who has left the home and is in a hospital in a serious condition. She was evidently struck with a club.

Murdered and Robbed.

Portland, Ore., June 20.—Louis Bargas, a laborer in the employ of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company, was murdered last night and his body dragged behind the Willamette iron works, where it was found this morning.

The police believe that he met his death by sandbagging, though there are no bruises on the body. The motive of the murder was robbery, as the man's pockets were turned inside out and his pocket-book had been rifled and thrown away.

Road Across Cascades.

Whitcomb, Wash., June 20.—The Bellingham Bay & British Columbia Railway company today asked for bids for construction of the first eight miles of the extension of the road which is to be built across the Cascade mountains. The work is to be completed by Dec. 1 next. Two parties of surveyors are busy locating the line beyond Glacier creek.

PREPARE FOR CORONATION.

New York, June 20.—An army of carpenters, painters and decorators is now employed in completing the preparations for town shows, says a London dispatch to the Tribune. The platforms and stands are well lighted, a continuous long circuit along the route of the parade. The street decorations are looking well, festoons of artificial wreathing being set off with colored electric lamps. Files of troops are coming and going, and the streets are full of life, movement and gaiety.
