ALEX. A. ROBERTSON MISSING; MAY HAVE TAKEN OWN LIFE

Paying Teller of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Bank Said to Be Short in His Accounts.

Disappeared Yesterday Morning and Was Last Seen Going Toward Hills Carrying a Shotgun.

ALEX. A. ROBERTSON.

ALEXANDER A. Robertson, member of the city council and paying teller in Wells-Fargo's bank, has been missing since 8:30 yesterday morning.

"Rob," as he is familiarly known, arose yesterday morning as usual, and ate a light breakfast.

After the meal he put on his hat and got his shotgun, loaded it with two cartridges, and started from the house.

"If the bank calls up for me, say that I will be down on the next car," he said.

Again the girl implored him not to take the gun, but to no purpose. He put on a pair of leggings and left the house.

The residence is situated near the corner of Eleventh East and First South streets. Robertson walked to the corner of Eleventh East and turned north.

Consternation at the Bank.

As he had anticipated, the bank phoned for him at about 9 o'clock, and the girl told exactly what had happened.

Last evening Cashier Dooly and his assistants went over Robertson's accounts. That there was a shortage is admitted, but the amount of it is not given.

Robertson Was Despondent.

Friday night Robertson attended the bicycle races at the Salt Palace and was in his usual good humor, according to the friends who were with him.

With this statement he got on the car and stood on the rear platform.

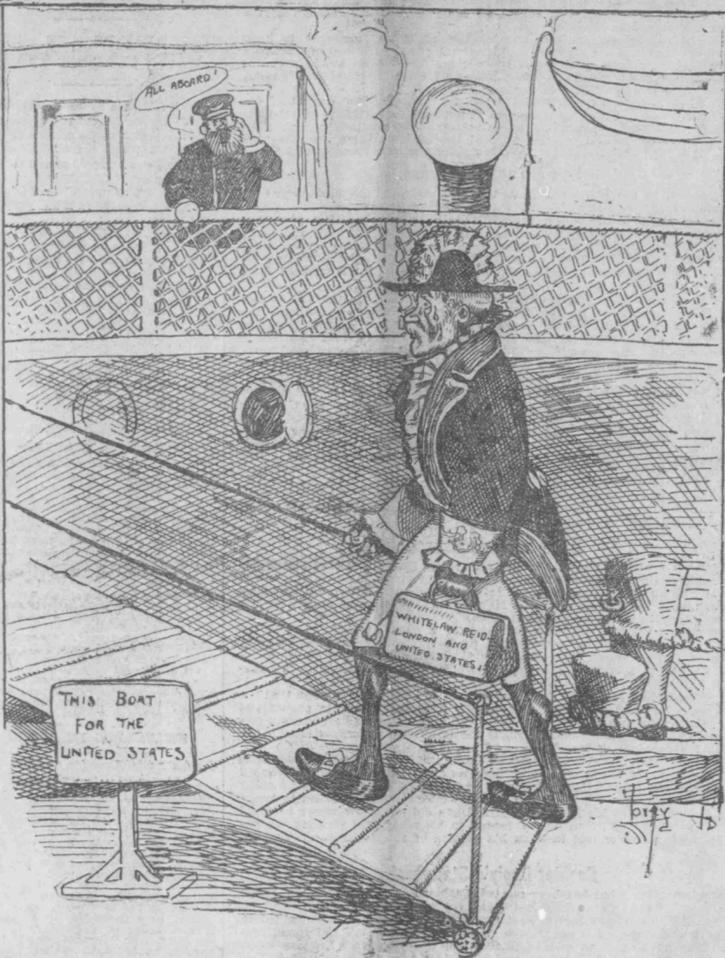

ATTORNEY ASKS NEW TRIAL FOR BALLIET

Des Moines, Ia., June 28.—Judge Charles A. Bishop, in the supreme court, filed a motion for a new trial today on behalf of Letson A. Balliet, who was found guilty three weeks ago by a jury in the United States district court of using the mails to defraud.

Emmet Callahan of Baker City, Ore., Balliet's western attorney, joins with Judge Bishop in the application for a rehearing of the case.

The defendant's attorneys declare that "the evidence in this case fails to show that any offense, such as that charged in the indictment, was committed by the defendant."

In conclusion, the petition says: "The court erred in instructing the jury that if defendant, as a witness, had not fully explained matters material to the issues in the case, and

SENATOR DEBOE TELLS WHY TAYLOR WON'T STAND TRIAL

Says Reward Offered For Goebel's Murderers Has Been Used to Corrupt Courts.

Rathbone Asks Congress to Investigate His Case—Morgan and Spooner Have Another Tilt.

Washington, June 28.—Senator Deboe of Kentucky delivered a speech in the senate today on his amendment to the resolution for the election of senators by the people, providing that the qualifications of citizens entitled to vote for United States senators and representatives shall be uniform in all the states, and that congress shall have power to provide for the registration of voters, the conduct of elections and the certifying of the result.

Mr. Blackburn of Kentucky replied to Mr. Deboe's speech, making something like a categorical reply to points made by Mr. Deboe.

Mr. Blackburn declared that he was so well satisfied of the guilt of Taylor that he would be willing to submit the case to a judge and jury in any state of the Union.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Shortly after the senate convened today a resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Morgan, providing for an investigation by the committee on inter-oceanic canals to ascertain whether any claims exist in favor of citizens of the United States against the old or the new Panama Canal company and authorizing the committee to ascertain whether unlawful or corrupt methods have been used to obtain any part of the sum that may be applied to the purchase of the property of the new Panama Canal company or to Costa Rica or Nicaragua by the United States, was taken up.

Spooer Against Investigation. After Mr. Morgan had explained the resolution, Mr. Spooer (Wis.) vigorously opposed its adoption, declaring that it was, without precedent, entirely mischievous obstruction of the action of congress.

Mr. Spooer explained that the legislation enacted would enable the president to act in the premises. However, he (Mr. Spooer) was not prepared to assent to the senate assuming that the American citizens of the Panama Canal company could attack the decree of the French court in this country, so that ground might be made for an indefinite obstruction of the will of congress in regard to an isthmian canal.

Mr. Mitchell of Oregon said he could not see his way clear to support the pending resolution because it would be regarded by the people as a means of delaying the canal. He had been in favor of the construction of the canal by the Nicaragua route, and he felt that congress had made a mistake in considering the Panama route, but he was so much in favor of an isthmian canal and had so much confidence in the wisdom of the president in whom the subject has been referred, that he could not bring himself to support the discussion.

Hanna Opposes Resolution. Mr. Hanna opposed the resolution, saying that the people had accepted the verdict of congress upon the canal, and were satisfied. He resented the insinuation that a lobby was here to advocate the Panama route, and to induce congressmen to vote against their convictions and inclinations. He protested against such an insinuation, and declared that he had never known of such a lobby, and he challenged Mr. Morgan to produce proof of his charge.

Mr. Morgan disclaimed any effort to reflect on the senate or congress as a whole. He insisted there had been a lobby here in support of the Panama route, but he had not charged that the lobby had corrupted congress. He believed the carrying out of the resolution would clear the atmosphere of all floating charges.

The resolution went to the calendar without action. The senate then, at 5:05 p. m., went into executive session, and afterward, a few minutes later, adjourned.

REATHONE WANTS HIS CONGRESS TO INVESTIGATE HIS CASE. Washington, June 28.—E. G. Rathbone, who was formerly director general of postoffices of Cuba, and who was convicted in Cuba on charges involving maladministration of his office, today petitioned congress to order a congressional investigation of all his acts in Cuba.

As reasons for the application, the petitioner declares that the proceedings which led to his conviction were not judicial proceedings, but were special proceedings, directed and controlled by a person or persons who influenced and dominated the tribunals as to thwart the purpose of justice; that ex parte evidence was admitted in the trial; that the court refused to summon witnesses in his behalf; that his attorneys were not given proper time to prepare his defense, and that evidence vital and material to his defense was withheld; and that the principal witness for his defense, against him, was not sworn upon the trial.

SAM BRYANT IS DEAD. Louisville, Ky., June 28.—Captain Sam Bryant, a discharged soldier, died tonight of diphtheria, aged 80 years.

When the American Derby was run at Washington park, Chicago, last Saturday, Captain Bryant, against the advice of his physician, insisted on going to the race. He was carried from his home on a couch to the train. From the train he was borne to the race track, and his couch was placed in position so that he might view the races, which he said would be the last he would ever see. After the race was over he was brought back to this city, and since then he had gradually grown weaker until the end came tonight.

TWO MEN ASPHYXIATED. San Francisco, June 28.—James Donovan, a circus promoter, and William Henderson, a discharged soldier, were asphyxiated today by illuminating gas in a room on O'Farrell street. When the two bodies were discovered one gas jet was turned on about half way and a second was burning brightly. The men retired about 5 o'clock in the morning and are supposed to have carelessly left the gas as it was found.

HORSEBACK RIDE ACROSS WYOMING.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 28.—Senator Warren of Wyoming called upon President Roosevelt today and suggested that he take a trip this summer through the northern part of the western states.

Joining the Canadian border, President Roosevelt had some time since suggested a horseback ride across Wyoming, and Warren today told the president he would arrange relays of horses for such a trip if he (the president) would take it. The plan would give the president a jaunt of several hundred miles through Wyoming and Montana from the line of the Union Pacific to some point on the Northern Pacific. It would take a part of a country where the range is in the cattle business along the Little Missouri river in the early '80s.

The president's western itinerary is being arranged by Secretary Cortelyou, and while present indications point to a tour extending not further west than Kansas, it is possible that Senator Warren's invitation will so commend itself to the president that it will secure his acceptance.
