YESTERDAY'S CONVENTION.

LET EVERY VOTER in Salt Lake county bear this proposition in mind from now until the votes are cast in November: If the legislative ticket nominated by the Salt Lake county Republican convention in the Theatre yesterday afternoon is elected, Apostle Reed Smoot will be elected to the United States senate.

For long the rallying cry of the politicians has been: "As goes Salt Lake county, so goes the state." There is no reason to look for a reversal of political history in this year of grace.

"We endorse the efficient work of the several Republican county officials, and especially the able efforts of the Republican county officials in paying the furniture indebtedness of $39,000 to the county as a legacy."

"They have reduced taxation on county property 1/2 mill," continues the platform. Yes, from 1901, during their own administration, when the county general fund rate was 5 mills, which included the 1/2 mill levied to pay the furniture judgment.

"They have increased the wages of the workmen of the county," concludes this truly wonderful plank. The workmen haven't had a cent of increase. The road supervisors, who are active politically, have had their pay raised from $1.75 to $2 a day.

AN UNSOLVED MYSTERY.

HOW ABOUT THIS? All the public gambling houses in Salt Lake were closed last night. All the saloons that have been openly and notoriously violating the law were shut tight on Sunday last. Yet Sheets has not been reinstated in his old position as detective. How could such things be accomplished without his aid? Echo and The Herald's suburban contemporary answer, "How?"

The Birmingham negro who is charged with responsibility for the stampede in which more than 100 lives were lost, says he will abide by the decision of the courts in his case. He is a wise man who can make a virtue out of a necessity.

It is apparent that a number of Salt Lake Republicans are still possessed by the notion that this is a "yellow dog year" for their party. They will change their minds when the votes are counted.

Well, the Smoot-Kearns machine may have been a little slow about getting action, but it ground surely when once it did begin to grind.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

THE REPUBLICAN county platform is precisely such an emanation as might have been expected from such a convention.

Having no substantial argument to offer why the administration of the county should again be entrusted to the Republican party, the convention's platform builders resorted to tawdry bombast and the sheerest buncombe.

Of the six paragraphs in the platform, five consist of the platitudes and cheap sentiment that comprise the average Republican spellbinder's stock in trade. Only one paragraph has any reference to county affairs.

Let us consider this section by section, and ascertain what truth there is in it. "We endorse the efficient work of the several Republican county officials, and especially the able efforts of the Republican county officials in paying the furniture indebtedness of $39,000 to the county as a legacy."
