

MR. BECK STEPS DOWN AND OUT INDEPENDENT ROADS CONCUR

Assistant Attorney General Has Resigned His Position.

HIS SUCCESSOR SELECTED

BUT THE NAME IS WITHHELD FOR THE PRESENT.

Washington, April 12.—It is announced that Assistant Attorney General James Beck tendered his resignation to President Roosevelt before the president's departure for the west. In tendering his resignation Mr. Beck took occasion to express his gratification at having been privileged to serve under the president's administration and that of his predecessor. In accepting the resignation the president wrote the following letter among which are the following words: "White House, Washington, March 21, 1903.—My Dear Mr. Beck: I regret to receive your resignation as assistant attorney general, which is accepted to take effect April 30 next, as indicated."

"I appreciate your expression of the satisfaction you have taken in your public services. It is a pleasure to me to say that you have performed your duties with marked ability, and I hereby extend my best wishes for your continued success in your professional work and for your health and prosperity. Sincerely yours, Theodore Roosevelt."

"When questioned with reference to his resignation, Mr. Beck said: 'I have become a member of the law firm of Sherman & Sterling of New York City and expect to commence my work there on May 1, and shall after that date be a resident of that city. I shall retain my present connection with the Philadelphia law firm. I leave the department with very great regret. My associations have been most pleasant. It is a matter of especial pride that in association with Attorney General Day and Special Counsel D. T. Watson, I was privileged to take part in the recent 'merger' case.'

Mr. Beck was appointed by President McKinley in July, 1900. He had previously been United States attorney for the eastern district of Pennsylvania. As assistant attorney general he had argued a number of important government cases before the supreme court. Mr. Beck's successor will not be announced for several days.

THE DEATH RECORD.

Colonel J. L. McGowan.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 12.—Colonel J. L. McGowan, the veteran editor-in-chief of the Chattanooga Times, died this afternoon at 5 o'clock. Colonel McGowan's health began to fail about two months ago and an attack of grip brought on a complication of diseases, which caused his death. Yesterday he was brought back from the hospital with the hope that his life might be prolonged by the climate to which he was so well accustomed. But he began sinking Saturday night and continued to grow worse until this evening when he passed away, surrounded by the immediate members of his family.

The death of Colonel McGowan removes a man who has been actively engaged in southern reconstruction since the early reconstruction days. He was born in Ohio, Sept. 30, 1831, and when a young man practiced law, both in Ohio and his native state. He was a veteran of the civil war, serving with distinction. His newspaper career began in 1872, when he became associate editor of the Chattanooga Times. Six years later he became that paper's editor-in-chief, holding that position until two months ago, when his health began to fail.

Gustave Meinicke.

Berlin, April 12.—Gustave Meinicke is dead. He spent a number of years in the United States, where he was connected with various newspapers. Since his return to Germany he has been identified with colonial undertakings and edited the Colonial Zeitung and the Colonial Year Book.

S. Morgan Smith.

Los Angeles, April 12.—S. Morgan Smith of York Pa., president of the S. Morgan Smith company, died in this city today, aged 65 years. Mr. Smith was prominently identified with the water wheel industry in Pennsylvania. He came to Los Angeles two months ago for the benefit of his health.

Rev. Michael Bouchett.

Louisville, Ky., April 12.—Rev. Michael Bouchett, of the Roman Catholic diocese of Louisville died today, aged 70 years, from a stroke of apoplexy.

John Aaga.

Mexico City, April 12.—John Aaga, one of the oldest and most distinguished engineers in Mexico, is dead.

HEAVY FALL OF SNOW ALONG THE MOUNTAINS

Denver, April 12.—About three inches of snow fell along the eastern slope of the Rocky mountains in Wyoming and Colorado during last night and this morning. It will prove of great benefit to the grass on the ranges and a boon to the stockmen and farmers. The storm was unaccompanied by wind and there was no danger to exposed stock. The storm was traveling southward and is due to appear in Texas.

Thin People

want to get fat and fat people want to get thin—human nature. If you are fat don't take Scott's Emulsion. It will make you gain flesh. If you are thin Scott's Emulsion is just what you need. FIFTY-TON BOULDER FELL Power Company's Pipe Line Torn by Big Rock.

A boulder weighing probably fifty tons rolled down the canyon of the Ogden canyon Saturday night, just above the pipe line of the Utah Light & Power company. The rock struck the pipe line on the side of the cut and one jagged corner poked a hole into the wood pipe, making an aperture of the size of a man's fist. The hole plugged up and the pipe was opened all day yesterday and last night. A number of hydraulic jacks were sent for yesterday to Salt Lake by E. W. Wade, the local manager of the company, and they will be brought up today and the rock removed under the supervision of Engineer Hayward. It is not thought that the rock will take any great length of time or seriously delay the manufacture of power.

YOUNG GIRL'S DEATH.

Esther E. White Expires After Sudden Illness.

Esther E. White, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George White, died yesterday morning at the family home, 2539 Van Buren avenue. The death was sudden and unexpected, resulting from a large tumor which attacked the heart. On Friday the girl attended school and was comparatively well Saturday afternoon. About midnight her condition was regarded quite serious and a little later a doctor was sent for, but the girl died before he reached the house. The funeral will occur at the Fifth ward meeting house Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

Troubled With Conscience.

W. G. Smith was arrested last night and lodged in the police station by Officers Sullivan and Chambers, and will probably be sent to San Bernardino, Cal., on the charge of forgery. If Smith is ever convicted of the crime he is charged with, the fact that he possesses a conscience. The funeral services of the late Mrs. Margaret Anderson occurred yesterday in her former residence on Eighteenth street, at 10 o'clock. Relatives and friends being in attendance.

Will Soon Elect Officers.

The committee appointed some time ago for the election of officers and the construction of a reservoir in Ogden valley will now arrange for the election of the officers of the various organizations interested. The articles of incorporation and by-laws for the Ogden Reservoir company and to arrange for the construction of a reservoir in Ogden valley will now arrange for the election of the officers of the various organizations interested.

Postoffice Department Will Try to Find the Leaky Vessels

Washington, April 12.—Postoffice inspectors engaged in the investigation of department affairs will make a careful inquiry into the charges that certain wagon manufacturers have been given preference in advance information about the establishment of rural free delivery routes. These charges come from a firm in Peoria, A. W. Machen, superintendent of the free delivery bureau, today said: 'We have been very careful in enforcing the rules in the free delivery division that no advance information about the establishment of routes shall be given. I cannot say what any one of 135 men may actually have done, but I have often had reports that they have had instructions not to furnish advance information and that they know the giving of such information would be punishable by dismissal from the service. I have had a list of approximately 300 names to whom bulletins are sent whenever it has been decided to establish rural free delivery routes. This will include newspapers, wagon manufacturers, box manufacturers, express companies that are engaged in the business of bonding carriers, and all others who signify to the postoffice department that they would like to have the best available information about those new routes. Mr. Machen added that some firms secure early information about these routes by watching the country papers closely. These papers print accounts about the routes and free delivery inspectors to their vicinities and often gather information from congressmen and others about prospective routes.'

GLOY BOUTON JOHNS IT SUED FOR DIVORCE BY SPOUSE SHE LEFT

Cloy Bouton Johns is the defendant in a divorce suit. Mrs. Johns is a Salt Lake resident and is a sister of Mabel Bouton, who recently died, and is one of the team of Bouton girls who have been making a hit on the San Francisco stage. The plaintiff in the case is William Elmer Johns, a dramatic actor, who has made several attempts as a theatrical manager on the coast. Johns charges that his wife deserted him Aug. 8, 1901, and he consequently brings the present action against his wife, who, it appears, has failed to provide for her husband. Miss Elmer, as she is known, claims that her husband has failed to provide for her ever since she has been married and she has a counter claim against her husband brought through her attorney, Johns, who was at one time instructor of athletics at the stockholders club of New York, one of the pugilists who has known himself. The career was finished in a few rounds with a prize fighter who knew something about boxing. Elmer went into dramatic business after that.
