MARKET SHOWED SOME STRENGTH BUT WEAK SPOTS WERE VERY SOON FOUND.

New York, May 29.—There was a brief show of strength in this morning's market, but weak spots soon developed and the later trading became apathetic and at the last stagnant.

LATE TRADING APATHETIC.

AMALGAMATED COPPER STILL UNDER PRESSURE.

The two days' holiday here will be followed by the regular Whitsuntide holiday on foreign exchanges, so that the pressure of any sudden news development would be concentrated on the New York stock market on Monday.

But when the bears started to cover they found it so easy to do so, owing to the increase in offerings as the price level rose, that they became resigned. Amalgamated Copper was securely under the long side of copper liquidation, which was attributed, as was that of yesterday, to the unloading of pool accounts in the stock.

The price went a sharp fraction lower than yesterday's low point, but met some support and rallied over a point. There was renewed selling on a large scale of Rock Island securities today.

The week's receipts of cash from the interior on balance served to about offset the output of gold exports and otherwise. The conviction is general that a large outward movement of gold from New York is still to occur.
