AN OUTRAGIOUS LEVY. SALT LAKE COUNTY'S board of commissioners on Friday fixed the levy for 1933.

This year, as in 1932, the county taxes will be 6.7 mills on every dollar's worth of property.

At the beginning of the year there was about $20,000 on hand in the county treasury, and there have been no unusual expenses to meet this year.

With anything approaching careful financing and decent regard for the tax-paying public, the county board could easily have reduced the tax levy 10 per cent.

Just what purpose actuates the county board in making this excessive levy is difficult to understand. No matter what explanation may be essayed, the levy is a shame to the men who made it and an imposition on the public who will have to pay it.

SPARKS

Most generally the one who gets James Portner's sweetest shaft is the one who has his head down.

Thirteen silver spoons dated 1838 were sold in London for $24,500. They will probably not be given to some young couple for a wedding present because their number is unlucky.

The arrest of an alleged insurance swindler in San Francisco has brought forth from an insurance official the statement that "people he had been paying for something they could not get."

The coast baseball war will likely not be taken up by the Epworth league convention now in session at Detroit.

When the prison first caught fire "Things were in a bad way. All struggled in the darkness. To see the fire escape.

Catcher Hardy of the Los Angeles baseball club may have felt that more team work was needed on the club and so concluded to get married.

A terrible warning to tobacco users is conveyed by the death of William G. Patterson of Kalamazoo, who was cut down by nicotine in the 89th year of his age.

Corlinton seems to be living up to his reputation as a hoodoo. A saloon bearing his name has been held up and robbed.

We shall no doubt be advised presently that the Secretary of State has achieved a notable diplomatic victory, as Russia has decided to open some Manchurian ports.

Richard Carvel, described as a walking delegate, is under arrest in New York. We had been given to understand heretofore that Mr. Carvel was a hard-driving delegate in Maryland some years back.

Secretary Moody announces that "extensive experiments" are to be made with submarine boats, which probably means expensive and exhaustive of the supply of navigators.

JUSTICE HARLAN IMPOSSIBLE.

IN A CURIOUSLY MIXED editorial utterance Harper's Weekly of July suggests the nomination of Justice John M. Harlan to the supreme court of the United States by the Democratic national convention for the presidency in 1934.

There is a man now on the bench of the United States supreme court who would make an admirable candidate for the Democracy in 1934, because he has the Democratic side on all the live issues of the hour.

When the German band came to the town that great combination of capital can and should be subjected to restraint by the Federal government.

They raised an awful din—Parading through the thoroughfares And blowing in their tin.

It begins to look as if we would never escape from the "Platt amendment." After long remaining quiet, it bobs up again in the ratification of the United States treaties by the Cuban senate.
