

THE autumn season, for which so much gaily was predicted, is here, and yet the gaily is limited to a few, a very few, affairs almost entirely of a feminine nature. Either the stress of politics or the desire for the freedom of outdoors for these last few weeks of the outdoor weather, has kept the men from doing anything in a social line. The departure of the Twelfth for an absence of some weeks has had a particularly depressing effect on the social affairs of the post, and there is little prospect of even a hop till the cold weather begins. Some enjoyable events of an informal nature have taken place, chief among them being a few dinners and luncheons. Only two luncheons are scheduled for the coming week, and very little else in the way of formal entertainment.

The young ladies who are to be the attendants at the Donnellan-Falls wedding in Sacramento will leave early next month to spend the time till the date of the wedding as guests of the Donnellan family. The marriage will take place Nov. 18 and will be preceded by a number of social affairs. The girls who act as bridesmaids are Miss Mary Kinney, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Stella Salisbury and Miss Gertrude McGrath. Among the men are Mr. Chambers and Lieutenant Jackson. The friends of the young people here will be glad to learn that Captain Falls returns to his regiment to be with them till they are ordered abroad.

A wedding of great interest locally for the week is that of Miss Nellie Walker and Mr. Murray Rockwell Stewart, which takes place next Saturday evening. The ceremony will be witnessed by only the family and will be followed by a large and brilliant reception from 8 till 11 o'clock. The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Walter Lewis of Butte as matron of honor, and her other attendant will be Mrs. F. F. Eccles. Dr. O. M. Fisher of Clear Creek will be the best man, and Dr. Pinkerton of the Central Christian church will perform the ceremony.

Mrs. Lindsay R. Rogers has returned from a three months' visit in New York City and the east.

An event of the coming week in which many Salt Lakers are interested is the coming marriage of Miss Edith Ferry and Lieutenant Dana T. Merrill. The wedding will take place Wednesday at the First Presbyterian church of Grand Haven, Mich. The bride will be unattended by maids and the wedding will be followed by no social affair but preceded by a large and brilliant reception tomorrow evening given by Miss Katherine White, a friend of the bride. Among the people from here who will attend are Mr.

and Mrs. W. Montague Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Ferry and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Richards.

Miss Stella Salisbury entertained a party of girls at luncheon on Monday at the Country club. The affair was thoroughly informal, the guests being Mrs. Rose, the two Misses Barb, Miss Emily Read, Miss Sherman, Miss Laura Sherman, Miss Gertrude McGrath and Miss Katherine Creary.

Mrs. E. V. Silver entertained at a small and informal Kensington yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. David Keith will entertain the Sixty-three card club at her home Friday.

Mrs. George M. Downey has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given Thursday.

Mrs. Thomas E. Davis gives a luncheon at the home of her mother on Tuesday.

Mrs. William Igleheart has resumed her Mondays at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Romney are settled in their new home at 188 F street. Mrs. Romney will be at home on Mondays.

Miss Mary L. Hoag goes to Ogden to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoag.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lamb will be at home after the first of the month at 75 Fifth East street.

Captain William F. Creary will arrive in the city Tuesday morning and will spend two or three days with his mother and sister before leaving for his permanent station in San Francisco.

Miss Lena Bachman of Provo, who has been the guest for the past week of Miss Isabel Monahan, left Friday for her home.

Mrs. Walter Lewis of Butte will arrive in the city about the middle of the week to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Walker.

Miss Noble and Miss Mamie Noble will spend a part of the winter in New York.

Mr. Fred Dern is expected home some time during the week from Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgarten entertained a party of friends at dinner on Wednesday evening at the Commercial club, and afterwards at the Nordica concert at the tabernacle.

Clara E. McMillan, daughter of Bishop and Mrs. William McMillan, was married to John Wheeler Whipple in the Salt Lake temple, Thursday, Oct. 15, at 11 o'clock noon. In the evening a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 242 North Fifth West street, at which 150 couples were present.

Mrs. Banyard entertained the Clover Leaf Kensington at her home last Thursday afternoon, and a dainty luncheon was served.

On Wednesday evening a number of friends of Rufus D. Johnson tendered him an agreeable surprise, the occasion being his twenty-first birthday. The evening was passed pleasantly with music and cards. Present were Messrs. Anna Erickson, Marlene Hamlin, Ida Eldredge and Josie Larson, and Messrs. Jule McMurrin, Joe E. Hoag, E. Morton Dunn, Jay Johnson and Ripley Johnson.

There was a very delightful surprise party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Tuesday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent with games, music and refreshments. Those who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Duffin, Mrs. A. A. Avery, Mrs. Charles Parker, Mrs. W. Parker; Messrs. Jim Thompson, A. E. Angin, Leonard Duffin, Lon Earl, Fred Bellmore, Frank Newton, George Lucas, Frank Nephew, Arthur Searle, John Anderson and Al Anderson.

The first of the Christensen Wednesday soirees was given last Wednesday evening complimentary to the patrons of the academy and was well attended and enjoyed by all. The music was of the highest class, the orchestra playing all the new selections for this season. These soirees will be given each Wednesday evening for the balance of the season. Being strictly informal and of a high class the dancing public will look forward to these affairs.

The privates of the Twenty-second battery will give a grand ball at Fort Douglas Wednesday night.

The J. G. W. club will meet at the home of Mrs. M. M. Miller, 529 South Main street, next Thursday, Oct. 22, at 2 p. m. Programine is of especial interest.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers, 1357 South Tenth East street, a very pleasant entertainment was given by their daughter Hilda in honor of the birthday of Mr. Bert Andrews. The house was very prettily decorated with autumn leaves, roses and carnations. The tables were very neatly spread with all the dainties of the season, among them being a handsome birthday cake. A large number of friends enjoyed the music and feast. Among those present were: Messrs. Garna, Holmbeck, Frenton, Larson, Yates, Rebentisch, Peterson, Wilkison, and Mrs. Andrus; Messrs. Strong, Croxford, Porter Wilson, Larson, Goldbuff, Winfred Hyler, Rock E. Andrus and Henry Ehlers.

Miss Hayden and Miss Thomas were pleasantly surprised by a reception given last Wednesday in their honor in the Eighteenth ward amusement hall by their pupils.

Thursday evening the Elite Social club gave one of its delightful dances to the Ladies' Literary club hall. Everyone voted the dance an immense success. Punch was served in the lower reception hall by Franklin. Those who attended were: Esther Cornish, Emma Wallace, Lena, Jack, Ethel Hawkes, Olive Cushing, Anna B. Dunlap, Maggie Gray, Lily Halselt, Gertrude Lee, Evelyn Edgington, Lillie West, Susie Miller, Marion McDonald, Jean Pender, Mrs. Ivy Hoggan, and Will Harrison, Tom Holberg, Robert Irvine, E. Evelyn Edgington, Alex. Olson, James Gray, William Warburton, Percy Clark, Ted Wallace, Claud Erskine, Niel Nilsson, Roy Hoggan, Barry McDonald, Roy Lancaster, Ed Lancaster.

On Friday evening about twenty-five friends of Owen Myers, jr., surprised him at his home, 980 South Second West street. The evening was spent at games and music, after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present to enjoy the evening were Grace Courtney, Fay Putnam, Nellie Broadbent, Laura Moffatt, Elsie Thurber, Ivy Heath, Sophie Peterson, Ella Cobbley, Catherine Irvine, Beulah Cobbley, Jennie Lee, Chloe Blood, Stella Haden, Mildred Miller, Geneva Jensen, Don Butterfield, Willie Bridgeway, Henry Cook, Elgin Clawson, Irving Courtney, Kendall Thomas, Richard Haggood, Everett Blood, Arthur Newland, Max Rouse, W. Mathews, Richard K. Thomas and Jack Rouse.

Mr. H. O. Young returned yesterday from a stay of over a year in Europe. He left his daughter, Mrs. D. C. McLaughlin, three weeks ago in Paris, whence she was to start for Cairo as soon as the cool weather came on.

Mr. James A. Neill has gone to Butte on a short business trip.

Mrs. A. H. Bokrud has returned from a three months' visit in Minnesota and Massachusetts.

Mrs. William E. Ridge and daughter Elsie will be at home to their friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rand, 963 Third street, after today.

Mrs. John McVicker will be at home on Wednesdays at 156 1/2 East Brigham street.

Mrs. Thomas Weir has just returned from a stay of a few weeks in the Adirondacks. She will herafter be at home Mondays.

Mrs. Wade Loochourou, children and Miss Alice Hilbert left last Thursday to join Mr. Loochourou at De Lamar, Nev., where they expect to make their future home.

Mr. William E. Ridge and sons, William, Roy and Frank, leave today for Tonopah, Nev., where they will spend the winter looking after some mining interests.

WINNING THE GOAL

Hart, Schaffner & Marx
 Hand Tailored

THE goal of this business is to dress the men of this town and vicinity with the best clothes your money, or our money, will buy. It's a worthy ambition for any business house; and we believe we have won the goal, in the judgment of all good dressers.

The best stroke in that direction was when we put in the famous line of suits and overcoats. In the matters of style, of quality, of tailoring-fit, you will find no clothes so good as these.

We should like an opportunity to show you some of these H S & M garments; if you try on one of the suits or overcoats you'll pay for it rather than give it up. You ought to see the best of these goods: suits at $25 and $35; overcoats at $30, $40, $50: sumptuous clothes; you can't find better anywhere, nor as good elsewhere in town.

We are winning the goal; you are a part of the goal; we shall win you if you see the goods.

Don't forget our Hats. We always have the new things in either soft or stiff. Youman's $5, R & A Hats, $3. Our Furnishings department is crowded with new things for the season.
