

SHE WAS NOT A MARRIED WOMAN

Martha Reeves Was Never Wedded to J. M. Stone.

WAS KNOWN AS MRS. STOUT

JUSTICE CLARK WANTS TO BE ADMINISTRATOR OF ESTATE.

Martha Reeves, who committed suicide a few days ago by swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid, was not the wife of the man she was living with. Yesterday Justice of the Peace Frank H. Clark filed a petition in the probate division of the district court asking to be appointed administrator of the estate of Martha Reeves, who died, Oct. 13, at Holy Cross hospital.

The woman went under the name of Mrs. J. M. Stout. The name of the man she was living with was J. M. Stone. She took her own life because he deserted her, after getting about $3,000 of her money in his possession.

The woman's mother, Mrs. Reeves, resides in Richfield county, West Virginia. In his application for letters, Justice Clark says she does not care to be appointed administratrix. The estate left by the woman is about $2,000, deposits on real estate and the equity in household goods bought on the installment plan.

Injunction Suit Is Dismissed. The injunction suit of Joseph Bond against E. Beer, et al., was decided in favor of the plaintiff yesterday by Judge Hall, who held that the action does not come within the jurisdiction of the equity division of the district court.

Sale Again Continued. Judge Morris Sommer made another ineffectual attempt yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock to sell at public auction the plant of the Salt Lake Power & Electrical company's plant, situated in the Jordan narrows.

District Court Notes. Judge Charles W. Morse came in from Tooele county yesterday evening and held court a few minutes yesterday morning in the criminal division of the district court.

Jury Accuses Moss Kifford. Judge Charles W. Morse yesterday morning set Saturday, Nov. 7, for the argument of a new trial in the personal damage suit of Mrs. Nancy J. Nichols vs. the Oregon Short Line.

CITY AND COUNTY ARE EVEN. Commissioners Accept Council's Proposition to Balance the Books.

The board of county commissioners yesterday decided to accept the offer made it last Monday night by the city council to square up accounts and open a new set of books.

At the request of Harry Finch and Herschel B. Lyman, sureties of Henry Croy, who have withdrawn, the board revoked his appointment as deputy sheriff for the Batley Lake Gun club.

BUSY DOCTOR. Sometimes Overlooks a Point. The physician is such a busy man that he sometimes overlooks a valuable point to which his attention may be called by an intelligent patient who is a thinker.

"About a year ago my attention was called to Grape-Nuts by one of my patients," says a physician of Cincinnati.

"At the time my own health was bad and I was pretty well run down, but I saw in a minute that the theories behind Grape-Nuts were perfect and if the food was all that was claimed for it, it was a perfect food, so I commenced to use Grape-Nuts with warm milk twice a day, and in a short time began to improve in every way, and I am now much stronger, feel 50 per cent better and weigh more than I ever did in my life.

"I know that all of this good is due to Grape-Nuts, and I am firmly convinced that the claims made for the food are true. I have recommended and still recommend the food to a great many of my patients with splendid results and in some cases the improvement of patients on this fine food has been wonderful.

"As a general food, Grape-Nuts stands alone."

MILNER LOSES COAL LAND.

Government Gives to John B. Milburn Large and Valuable Acreage.

In the case of John B. Milburn vs. Archie C. Milner, the local land office rendered a decision yesterday in favor of John B. Milburn. It involves title to 150 acres of valuable coal land near the town of Price. It appears that the land was not surveyed by the government until March 17, 1903, at which time Mr. Milner paid the government the purchase price of the land, which was $3,300, and received final receipt therefor. At the time of making his application to purchase, Mr. Milner based his right upon a continuous possession of the land since Dec. 18, 1890, since which time he had run a tunnel 600 feet in length, and had expended $10,000 in valuable and lasting improvements upon the ground.

On May 16, following, E. W. Senior, an attorney for John B. Milburn, filed a protest before the commissioner of the general land office at Washington, alleging a superior title in Milburn, and asking that Milner's purchase be set aside. The commissioner directed a hearing to determine the relative rights of the respective parties in the premises and as a result of that hearing the registrar and receiver decide in favor of Mr. Milburn. One part of the decision says:

It is unfortunate that Mr. Milner should have expended so largely of his means, as the testimony shows that he has done, but we are unable to divest ourselves of the feeling that he could, by small expenditure and a little exploration, have readily determined the quarter section involved; the public surveys already having been extended to within two miles of the tract in controversy. Had he done this he could have saved himself the large expenditure made on land belonging to another.

By this decision Mr. Milner loses, not alone his tunnel and other improvements, together with the amount paid the government, but also the only practical way of working and developing several thousand acres of adjacent coal lands belonging to Colonel S. B. Milner of this city.

NO INQUEST IS NECESSARY

John Gavin's Tragic End at Bingham Junction Purely Accidental.

Coroner Frank H. Clark has decided not to hold an inquest over the remains of John Gavin, who was run over and instantly killed by a Rio Grande freight train at Bingham Junction Friday night. An investigation brought to light the fact that the man met his death while attempting to board a rapidly moving train. He fell under the wheels almost in front of the engine.

The last two cars and caboose of the train passed over his body. Gavin's head and left hand were almost severed from the body. The head was split open on the right side, exposing the brain. The man's right arm was crushed at the elbow, where the wheels passed over it, and both legs below the knees were broken. There were other bruises on the body.

At the time of the accident Gavin and a friend were attempting to make their way across. Both had resided in Salt Lake City for a short period. The dead man was about 21 years of age, and an Englishman by birth. He was known as a piano player and something of a boxer. Inasmuch as he had no friends or relatives in the city, the railroad company will bury the body.

BIRTHS SHOW AN INCREASE

Ten More Reported Last Week Than the Week Before.

The report of the board of health for the week ending Oct. 24 shows a slight change in the vital statistics as compared with the preceding week. The births reported numbered thirty-five, as against twenty-five for the week before, twenty-two males and thirteen females.

Of the deaths reported for the week three were due to typhoid fever, and the total mortality sixteen, one less than the preceding week, twelve males and four females. Seven bodies were shipped away for interment at other places, and three were brought here for burial.

One case of scarlet fever developed during last week and two having been discharged, left but one case in quarantine, as compared with two for the preceding week.

Two cases of diphtheria were reported, and one having been discharged, left three cases in detention, as against one for the preceding week.

One case of smallpox was reported, and the total mortality sixteen, one less than the preceding week, twelve males and four females. Seven bodies were shipped away for interment at other places, and three were brought here for burial.

Twenty-five cases of typhoid fever were reported during the week.

JURY ACCUSES MOSS KIFFORD

Holds Him Responsible For the Death of Albert Harvey.

At the inquest held yesterday afternoon over the body of Albert Harvey, the negro who was killed in a shooting scrape Friday evening on Franklin avenue, the jury found that the deceased came to his death at the hands of Moss Kifford, who shot him deliberately and with felonious intent.

The inquest did not reveal anything that had not previously been known, and but little time was consumed in the deliberations. Mrs. Jennie Thomas, Al Walker and Bud Rice, the three persons who witnessed the shooting, were examined first, and told practically the same stories as given to the newspapers immediately after the tragedy.

Mrs. Thomas was not sure whether she heard two or three shots, but from Kifford himself it was learned that three shots were fired. The other witnesses examined were Sergeant Roberts and Officer Davies, the policemen who arrested Kifford shortly after the shooting. Kifford was present, but was not examined. His interests were attended to by Attorney Soren X. Christensen.

During the afternoon the jurymen, John Shay, George Dahlstead and A. T. Young, viewed the remains at Evans' undertaking parlors, after which the above verdict was agreed upon.

No complaint was made against Kifford as the county attorney has not yet decided just what the charge will be. It is probable, however, that an information will be filed against him Monday morning, at which time he will be arraigned for his preliminary hearing.

EARLEY IS TURNED DOWN.

Mayor Thompson Vetoes Health Inspector Resolution.

Mayor Ezra Thompson yesterday vetoed the resolution introduced last Monday night by Councilman Earley and passed by the council, providing for the removal of the five health inspectors to curtail expenses. The mayor takes the position that the inspectors are employed under Fair's law, and that the contention that they are not performing good services was not well founded.

Councilman Earley asked that the inspectors be removed because of economy. Councilman Fernstrom, who sided with Councilman Earley, said he would like to see their heads cut off because they were paying more attention to politics than to the health of the city. Just before Councilman Earley introduced his resolution relative to the five inspectors, he got through a measure providing for the expenditure of $400 for the laying of gravel around Pioneer park.

The mayor yesterday signed every other measure passed by the city council at Monday night's session.

JUDGE AND JURY. In the per- sons of the State Fair Judges, es, have decreed that Husler's Flour is pre- eminently superior and the manufacturers were awarded first- prize and gold medal for both high- patent and straight grade flour. To those not fully informed, it may be as well to state that the tests were made in a way that removes all possibility of injustice or controversy, the final test applied being a bread baking by an expert baker, which included all flour in competition. The compliment to Husler's Flour is pleasing to the makers and verifies all that is claimed for it. A word to the wise is sufficient.
