

HOW LYNCH SAVED JACOBS

Prison Guard Recites That Most Thrilling Event.

SAYS DEATH AWAITED HIM IN COUNTY JAIL CONDEMNED MAN TRAINED A MOUSE.

The effort inaugurated by friends of James Lynch to have his death sentence commuted to life imprisonment is going forward swiftly, and there is no doubt that the governor will be petitioned for a reprieve in order that the case may again be brought before the board of pardons.

The principal reason argued by those who have taken an interest in the Lynch case is the condemned murderer's attitude during the recent prison break, in which he practically saved the life of Guard Zebulon Jacobs. The exact circumstances of the prisoner's act are told by Mr. Jacobs as follows:

"Robertson and I had been up on the third floor looking the doors of the cupboard. As I came down to the second floor, I had reached about the third step from the bottom when I was confronted by Waddell, who held a gun in his hand, and commanded me to hold up my hands. I did so, but having a bunch of keys in my hand, I determined to strike him in the face. Before I could do so, I noticed that Robertson had run back and had his hand on the alarm button. I then grabbed for Waddell's gun and soon had it pointed overhead. I tried to get him by a hold that would have broken his neck, but at that moment Major and Connors came up, and Waddell shouted:

"Hit him, boys; hit him hard."

Lynch to Jacobs' Rescue. Connors had a 'billy club,' and Major had a gun. They lost no time in carrying out Waddell's instructions, and soon I was unconscious, after making an effort to swing a chair on the pair. Connors gave me an awful blow on the head and I was unconscious, I believe, for about twelve minutes.

"The first thing I realized was that two men were dragging me through the dining room into the south cell house. When I came to, I saw Major and Waddell standing over me. One of them said:

"Finish the old cuss, now."

"I then heard Lynch's voice, speaking emphatically:

"No, no; don't do that; let the old man alone; he can't hurt you."

"There is no doubt that he saved my life. One of the two convicts suggested that they take my watch and money. They took the former, but missed the wallet, and after their comparatively fruitless search, abandoned me, with the statement:

"Come on, let's go; he's got nothing."

Lynch Trained a Mouse. It develops that this same watch saved Waddell's life. When Guard Briggs shot him, he had a pocket full of cartridges loose. The ball fired by Briggs struck the watch and ignited several cartridges in his pocket, scorching Waddell's leg. Had it not been for the time-piece, undoubtedly there would have been a second killing that night.

LIFTED UP HIS VOICE.

Later Joseph Hyde Explained That He Meant No Harm.

(Special to The Herald.)

Tropic, Dec. 23.—The trial of the case of the state against Cad and James Smith and Ben Johnson, charged with befooling the water used by the citizens of Henrieville by letting cattle wallow in the stream, was interrupted by the singing of Joseph Hyde of Salt Lake City. Standing in the street he sang at the top of his voice, "Lord, Bless Us With Thy Blessing." He was tried for contempt of court, but released upon the showing that he was standing in a public thoroughfare when he sang, and did not mean to disrespect to the court. The men in the case were discharged, having been found not guilty.

An interesting feature of the case was the proof by the defense that water runs up hill in Henrieville.

NOW A GOOD INDIAN.

Feathered Bad Man Killed by Louis Flying Bird.

Missoula, Mont., Dec. 23.—Details of the killing of Amilo, a Flathead Indian, on the reservation a week ago Monday, by Louis Flying Bird, a young Indian just 21 years old, reached Missoula today when Flying Bird was brought in.

Amilo, according to the story that is told on the reservation, was notorious there as a bad man and a gun-fighter. On the night of the tragedy he appeared at the home of Flying Bird's people and tried to pick a quarrel with Flying Bird's father. The old man refused to get into an altercation with Amilo, whereupon Amilo struck him.

Flying Bird, seized his rifle and fired on the old man's assistant, killing him.

GILLESPIE MURDER CASE.

All the Accused Out on Bail Except the Twin Brother.

Rising Sun, Ind., Dec. 23.—Judge Downey of the circuit court today heard the habeas corpus case of James Gillespie, Mrs. Helle Seward and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Barbour, charged jointly with the murder of Miss Elizabeth Gillespie. The bonds of the women were renewed and Myron Barbour was also released on bond, but his bail was double that of the women, $20,000. All the officials of the First National bank went on Barbour's bond. Gillespie was refused bail.

NO PAY, NO WORK.

Bakersfield, Cal., Dec. 23.—In accordance with a notice served last night on Master Mechanic French about 200 shopmen employed in the Southern Pacific railroad shops at Kern, about two-thirds of the entire force, comprising both makers, blacksmiths, machinists and boiler-makers' helpers, quit work today in consequence of the non-arrival of the monthly pay checks which the officials have undoubtedly delayed in the auditor's office at San Francisco.

CHOSEN BY McCLELLAN.

New York, Dec. 23.—Mayor-elect McClellan tonight announced the appointments of former Assistant Secretary of the Navy William McAdoo as police commissioner, Maurice Featherstone as dock commissioner and John C. Herlihy and William Harmon Black as commissioners of accounts.

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR HAS MADE A BARGAIN WITH IDAHO

(Special to The Herald.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 23.—The secretary of the interior today rendered a formal decision relative to the status of the Carey desert land act in Idaho practically the same as in the formal decision announced heretofore in the Herald dispatches. The decision reverses the ruling of the general land office, which denied the state the right to segregate lands under the Carey act and dispose of them under the state law, passed March 18, 1901. The state law question authorized the state authorities to dispose of Idaho lands reclaimed under the Carey act to companies operating irrigation works should the lands remain unsold to settlers two years after the completion of the works. The land office ruled that the state could sell lands only to bona fide settlers in tracts not exceeding 160 acres to each individual. The state has signed an agreement to observe the spirit of the Carey act and not take advantage of the state law in points in conflict. The state also promises that sales will not be made to companies or corporations and will only be made to actual settlers and in tracts of 160 acres.

In his decision the secretary admits that once reclaimed lands have been patented to the state the United States government cannot prevent their conveyance to any purchaser to whom the state desires to sell. Under the decision the state can resume segregation of lands for reclamation under the Carey act.

(Special to The Herald.)

Boise, Idaho, Dec. 23.—The state land board is advised that Secretary Hitchcock has modified the decision of Commissioner Richards with respect to Carey act lands in Idaho in conformity with the request of Governor Morrison. The commissioner held that so long as the amendment to the Idaho law passed in 1901, which provides that irrigation companies may after a lapse of two years receive patents for all unsettled lands under their works, remained in force, no segregation could be made and no patents issued in this state. The amendment, he maintained, was in conflict with the spirit of the Carey act, and would permit irrigation companies to obtain title to lands which should properly be held for actual settlers. The land board secured waivers of this right from the irrigation companies and assured the secretary that the lands would be held for settlers. Upon this representation, Secretary Hitchcock has modified his segregation standstill. The decision of Mr. Richards set projects and its reversal is received with great satisfaction by those interested.

MARINES ABLE TO PROTECT PANAMA FROM THE ENTIRE COLOMBIAN ARMY

Washington, Dec. 23.—Rear Admiral Walker has informed the president that in his opinion it would be protection of the republic of Panama and that it was unnecessary to increase the force of marines already in Panama or in isthmian waters. Regarding the health of the marines Rear Admiral Walker told the president that it could scarcely be better. He said that while the marines were welcomed and their presence realized to be for the best interests of the republic of Panama and that it was unnecessary to increase the force of marines already in Panama or in isthmian waters. Regarding the health of the marines Rear Admiral Walker told the president that it could scarcely be better. He said that while the marines were welcomed and their presence realized to be for the best interests of the republic of Panama and that it was unnecessary to increase the force of marines already in Panama or in isthmian waters.

Despite the careful report made by Rear Admiral Walker, the probability is that two more battalions of marines will sail next week on the Dixie from Philadelphia for Colon. It is felt at the navy department that it will be well to have a sufficient force in isthmian waters to permit of frequent reliefs for the force ashore. Before now and Monday the question will be decided definitely.

The official announcement is made that

General Elliott, commandant of the marine corps, will go to the isthmus, as the administration wishes him to make a thorough inspection of the conditions there both from a military and sanitary standpoint. The general will also carry a number of rapid-fire guns. Commanding the two battalions will be Lieutenant Colonel William P. Bidgley and Lieutenant Colonel L. W. Walker. Among the other officers selected to go are Captains Cyrus S. Radford as chief quartermaster, Captain H. L. Matthews and Captain E. K. Cole, General Elliott's aide, and Major J. W. Walker, his two aides, Captain Frank E. Evans and Captain Harry Leonard.

It is expected the Dixie will sail from Philadelphia on Monday. A long cablegram was prepared for Rear Admiral Glines today under the personal supervision of Secretary Moody. It was largely one of inquiry as to conditions on the isthmus and the probable need for more marines. On Rear Admiral Glines' reply will depend to some extent the departure of the additional battalions.

RELATIVES WORRIED.

Wisconsin Youth Supposed to Have Been Shanghaied.

Milwaukee, Dec. 23.—A special to the Sentinel from Janesville, Wis., says:

Relatives of Rudolph McCummings of Janesville fear the young man has been shanghaied on board a vessel on the Pacific coast. Young McCummings left for Portland, Ore., many months ago. Today his mother received a card from the German consul at Victoria, saying:

"The Asternia, with Rudolph McCummings on board, has touched at this port. If you wish to communicate with him do so immediately, as the boat leaves soon for parts unknown."

The card bore the date of Dec. 12, 1903, and the German consul was wired asking if McCummings was detained against his will, and requesting that he be taken from the boat. Relatives are determined to investigate the affair, and have already asked the aid of influential political friends.

DOES NOT LIKE IT.

Senator Hale Thinks Panama Treaty Will Be Ratified.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Senator Hale of Maine, in an interview with a Post reporter today said he thought the Panama canal treaty would be ratified. He added:

"I do not like the situation and am afraid it will involve us in an expensive and profitless war, but I have seen no way from the beginning except to ratify the treaty and make the best of it. Our government moved rather rapidly and with some precision when insurrection broke out, but Colombia was holding us up and meant to rob us, and as we were committed to the building of the canal by the United States, and at some kind of government had been set up in Panama we were compelled to come to some terms with that government, however, quickly forged and however unpalatable it might be."

PERSONAL.

G. M. Marshall, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, goes to Panama on the German steamer, this evening to address the members of the eighth grade class in the public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lockwood of San Francisco are in the city on a pleasure trip through the Rocky mountain states. Mr. Lockwood is excursion agent for the North Shore railroad, the company to which George W. Heintz has attached himself since going to the coast.

Thousands of Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Almost every one, from personal experience, knows that the effects of any kind of severe physical strain are felt, first of all, in the small of the back—in other words, in those Vital Organs, the Kidneys. This is as true in the case of the very powerful as it is with one of less strength, and it is especially true whenever the kidneys are weak or out of order.

The Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root, strengthens the kidneys and through them helps all the other organs. WOMEN suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not always correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact the disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles. Perhaps you suffer almost continually with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and utter exhaustion.

YOUR poor health makes you nervous, irritable and at times despondent; but thousands of just such suffering or broken-down women are being restored to health and strength every day by the use of that wonderful discovery, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

NOT only does Swamp-Root bring new life and activity to the kidneys, the cause of the trouble, but by treating the kidneys it acts as a general tonic and food for the entire constitution.

My kidneys and bladder gave me great trouble for over two months and I suffered untold misery. I became weak, emaciated and very much run down. I had great difficulty in retaining my urine and was obliged to pass water very often night and day. After I had used a sample bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent me on my request, I experienced relief and I immediately bought of my druggist two large bottles and continue taking it regularly. I am pleased to say that Swamp-Root cured me entirely. I can now stand on my feet all day without any bad symptoms whatever. Swamp-Root has proved a blessing to me. Gratefully yours, MRS. E. AUSTIN, 19 Nassau St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

My business is that of canvasser. I am on my feet a great deal of the time, and have to use much energy in getting around. My cure is therefore all the more remarkable and is exceedingly gratifying to me. Sincerely yours, MRS. H. N. WHEELER, 29 Prospect St., Lynn, Mass.

able to leave my bed I was left with excruciating pains in my back, which convinced me that I had a severe kidney trouble. My physical condition was such that I had no strength and was all run down. My sister, Mrs. C. E. Littlefield, of Lynn, advised me to give Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root a trial. I procured a bottle, and inside of three days commenced to get relief. I followed up that bottle with another, and at the completion of this one found I was completely cured. My strength returned and today I am as well as ever.

Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that has ever been discovered. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

EDITORIAL NOTICE—No matter how many doctors you have tried—no matter how much money you may have spent on other medicines, you really owe it to yourself, and to your family, to at least give Swamp-Root a trial. Its staunchest friends today are those who had almost given up hope of ever becoming well again. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery, Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root, and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonials received from men and women who have cured their kidneys, to its wonderful curative properties. In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say that you read this generous offer in The Salt Lake City Daily Herald. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere.

THE mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder remedy, Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. A trial will convince any one—and you may have a sample bottle sent free by mail.

Exploring Expedition. Wellington, N. Z., Dec. 23.—The two and a half ton yacht Kisorua, which its owner, a man named Buckridge, attempted to sail from New Zealand to London by way of Cape Horn, has returned here.

Buckridge fell from the mast and was killed when the yacht was in the Pacific a thousand miles from land. His mate and sole companion navigated the yacht back to Wellington and was in the greatest peril for three weeks, suffering from semi-starvation. Buckridge was 25 years old. He had served in the war in South Africa and afterward became a member of the Antarctic expedition on the exploring vessel Discovery, which was fitted out by British scientific societies.

STRIKERS ENJOINED. Duluth, Minn., Dec. 23.—Striking employees of the National Iron company's plant in West Duluth and officers and members of Ironmolders' union No. 216 have been enjoined from interfering in any way with the company's business or its employees, or from congregating at or near the plant for the purpose of harassing or interfering with men employed by the company.

The injunctive order also restrains the strikers and union men from interfering with the purchase of supplies and necessities of life by the workmen employed, or from intimidating or threatening housekeepers for the purpose of preventing the men from getting lodging and board. The union is restrained from dictating to the company what wages it will pay, what shall constitute a day's work, or from interfering in any way with the National Iron company's business.

about discouraged, but in a few days after taking your wonderful Swamp-Root I began to feel better.

I was out of health and run down generally, had no appetite, was dizzy and suffered with headache most of the time. I did not know that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble, but somehow felt they might be, and I began taking Swamp-Root, as above stated. There is such a pleasant taste to Swamp-Root and it goes right to the spot and drives disease out of the system. It has cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers. Gratefully yours,
