A BRIEF FOR THE DEFENSE.

THE PRESIDENT'S BRIEF for the defense in the case of The People versus The Republic of Panama is by no means convincing.

"The Hay-Herran treaty, if it erred at all," he says, "erred in the direction of over-generosity toward the Colombian government."

"The fact that in this last revolution," the message says, "not a life was lost save that of the man killed by the shells of the Colombian gunboat, and no property destroyed, was due to the action which I have described."
