

ARRAIGNMENT

Murderer, Secures Counsel to Defend Him.

LINE OF DEFENSE UNKNOWN

HAS WRITTEN HIS FAMILY OF TROUBLE HE IS IN.

John McPherson Shockey will be arraigned today before Judge Chris B. Diehl. When he appears in court he will be represented by the law firm of Wilson & Smith. They were retained yesterday by the confessed murderer. He has written to his family telling them of the predicament he is in, and asking them to send him enough money with which to fight his case.

Attorney H. A. Smith said yesterday afternoon that there would be a defense submitted. When questioned for details, he said: "It would not be proper for us at this time to give any information relative to what defense we will make. In fact, we have not looked into the merits of the case sufficiently at this time to enable us to lay out a line of defense. We were only engaged by the young man this morning, and have not had an opportunity to talk his case over with him. Shockey has written home, telling his folks just the trouble he is in, and asking them to assist him in a financial way. He expects a letter any day."

Every arrangement was made yesterday by the police department looking to the protection of Shockey while he is in court. As many of the police force as can be made available at that time will be present. Deputy sheriffs, in charge of Sheriff C. Frank Emery, will also attend the hearing. An effort will be made to induce the attorneys for Shockey to waive the preliminary examination. If they consent, the man will be arraigned and the date for the trial set when he appears in court today. If they refuse, the preliminary examination will be proceeded with.

COFFEE TAKES A JUMP

Prices of Cheaper Grades Have Advanced 40 Per Cent in Last Three Months.

Coffee has jumped. The price of America's favorite beverage has advanced radically in the last three months, until the consumers are paying 40 per cent more than they did three months ago. This is due to the cheaper grades in common use. The more expensive grades have not yet been affected. The grade of coffee that sold at 12 1/2 cents a pound a short time ago now brings 17 1/2 cents. The actual cost to the retailer is about 15 cents.

COUNCILMEN WANT CHANGE.

Serious Objection Raised to Meetings on Thursday Night.

The new committee of the city council held their first meeting last evening. Every one was present, including a number of new members. The change of meeting from Wednesday to Thursday night was interfered with several objections being lodged against the new arrangement. A number of councilmen, including Mr. J. H. Hobbins, expressed their objection to the change. They made an effort to have the meeting changed back to Wednesday, but because one member of the committee is a member of the church, and because of the fact that the meeting on Wednesday night is no reason for the change, the committee will meet on Thursday night. A resolution was taken on the resolution making the change of the meeting place and the meeting place was changed to the new place on Thursday night.

Music and Drama

"Hello Bill" is an all of inconsistent situations as even a farce comedy could ever be, but it is amusing, witty and entertaining. It has a big audience at the Grand last night. In the cast, William Fuller, a man about town, caught in a gambling house raid on the night before his wedding. The play is set for 2 o'clock in the afternoon and it seems certain that he will be sent to prison for sixty days. He is himself with his bride elect he tells her he has just been appointed to a voluntary position and must start at once for the front. The marriage ceremony is performed and Fuller goes to the front. His absence the real Colonel Fuller does a great many venal things and is arranged for him. The bona fide general bears of the reception and comes to find out. The complications that ensue are extremely ludicrous. John D. Murphy is the brigadier general. William Fuller is the man that is very fetching. Frank Weston Kelly did clever work as Christopher Cutting and Miss Kathryn Vincent deserves praise for her Isabella Date. The other members of the company range from fair to good. "Hello Bill" will run through the balance of the week, with a Saturday matinee.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of the late Harriet Strong will take place from the South ward meeting house Sunday at 2 p. m. The funeral services over the remains of the late Jane Romney, who died Jan. 14, last, of pneumonia, aged 86 years, native of the Isle of Man, will be held Sunday, the 15th, at 2 o'clock, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. P. E. Brown, 35 1/2 Fifth street. Friends are invited to attend and view the remains in the parlour of the residence of the late Mrs. P. E. Brown, 129 to 2 p. m. Interment in City cemetery.

BANK CLOSED.

Auburn, Ind., Jan. 14.—The Farmers' bank failed to open today. A notice was posted on the doors, stating that the bank would pay dollar for dollar. The bank had a capital of $5,000 and three months ago had $200,000 in deposits. The failure of the McClellan bank and other northern Indiana banks caused a steady run.

CZAR DOES NOT WANT TO FIGHT

Will Do All in His Power to Maintain Peace.

JAPAN'S REPLY IS AT HAND

PRELUDE TO LONG CONTINUED NEGOTIATIONS.

Tokyo, Jan. 14.—The situation here is apparently unchanged. It is reported that the majority of the serious cognate Japanese demands—as being most moderate. While it is admitted here that the war party is now dominant at St. Petersburg, reasonable though faint hope is entertained that Russia at the last moment will make adequate concessions.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 14.—I desire, and intend to do all in my power to maintain peace in the East.

These words the czar spoke to the members of the diplomatic corps at the New Year's reception held in the winter palace at noon today. The czar made a leisurely round of the great white hall with its beautiful colonnades in which the representatives of the various countries had assembled. His majesty chatted freely with everybody. Keen curiosity was exhibited all over the room when his majesty approached Mr. Kurino, the Japanese minister to Russia. The conversation between the czar and the minister was cordial and extended. His majesty emphasized the high value which he placed upon the good and neighborly relations between the United States and Russia, not only now but in the future, and expressed his unshaken hope that a mutually satisfactory settlement of the difficulties between the two countries would be arranged.

It having become known that Count Cassini had been instructed to assure the United States that Russia would not interpose objections to the commercial treaty between China and the United States or impede American rights of interest in Manchuria, the czar referred to these instructions in a lengthy conversation with Ambassador McCormick and laid much stress on his desire to see the treaty between the United States and Russia on the terms of intimate and cordial friendship which had existed for so many years and which he emphatically disclaimed the slightest inclination to hinder the developments of American commerce.

TRYING TO AVOID WAR.

France and Great Britain Will Tender Their Good Offices.

Paris, Jan. 14.—The intention on the part of certain European powers to find means to prevent the Russo-Japanese controversy drifting into actual war, as intimated in these dispatches yesterday, has begun to assume definite proportions. Though until today these means were confined to exchange of views between the cabinets as to what course was desirable, and it is noticeable that a number of good offices has yet been made to Japan or Russia; it is the accepted view that a great room of what is called "good offices" from the outside has not been reached. On the contrary, the official view here continues to expect a peaceful solution of the Russo-Japanese controversy. This expectation is borne out by the latest official advices. One of the dispatches sent from Tokyo last night alleged that Japan's answer had been forwarded up to that time, which leads the officials to question the pessimistic reports based on statements that the Japanese answer had already been delivered, and further defers any steps which may be taken toward advising the two parties to terminate the controversy. In the meantime the cabinets of London and Paris have arrived at a quite clear understanding as to what will be the eventual result of war by comes imminent. This will not be by a tender of mediation, as this is considered to be too extreme a step in diplomatic procedure, when two of the foremost powers are the principal disputants. The form of the representations will be that known in diplomatic usage as a tender of good offices. This consists mainly in giving friendly advice for the maintenance of peace. In the present case it is likely to include rather different suggestions that the outside powers consider the main question causing the present differences are entirely susceptible to pacific adjustment. How far the other cabinets of Europe and the United States will give moral or actual support to the friendly representations is an open question, as the exchange of views have thus far been confined mainly to London and Paris, but throughout the exchanges there has been a strong sentiment that the united influence of Europe and the United States should give moral support to the efforts to avert a conflict.

Negotiations Will Continue.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 14.—Mr. Kurino, the Japanese minister, informed the Associated Press that the Japanese reply had been handed to Baron De Rosen, the Russian minister at Tokyo, and that he (Mr. Kurino) would present to Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, a duplicate copy. The minister said he was not authorized to state the terms of the reply, but that it ensured the continuance of negotiations concerning the far east so far as Japan was concerned.

JAIL SET ON FIRE.

One White Man and Two Negroes Burned to Death. Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 14.—The fire that early today destroyed the jail of Pratt county in which John Kelly, a white convict, and two negroes, James Burned to death, and two other negroes, James Smith and William Young, fatally burned is believed to have been set by the two latter prisoners. Policeman Hatfield in releasing the twenty prisoners who were in the jail was overcome by smoke and revived with difficulty. Nearly all the prisoners were recaptured.

SAVED BY GREAT SPEED.

St. Louis, Jan. 14.—Its great speed saved the Chicago-bound "Diamond Special" on the Illinois Central from a wreck near Glen Carbon, Ill., and killed the occupants. The train was derailed by a switch which failed to open as the train approached. The speed of the fast train carried it over the open switch.

OPPOSITION TO MILLS.

May Pause in His Flight Over Senior Officers' Heads.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The nomination of Colonel Albert J. Mills, superintendent of the United States military academy, as brigadier general, vice Colonel William E. Dougherty, to be promoted and retired, will meet opposition in the senate. In the senate committee on military affairs today objections to a favorable report on the Mills' nomination were made by Senators Blackburn and Scott. It is asserted by several senators who are supporting the nomination of Brigadier General Leonard Wood as brigadier general that the opposition is not due to any antagonism of Colonel Mills, but is a movement consistent with opposition to general promotion and promotion of Wood. The committee passed Mills' nomination with a brief reference, and it is said it will not be taken up again until the contest over Wood's nomination has been decided in the senate.

MORE ROTTENNESS BROUGHT TO LIGHT

St. Louis, Jan. 14.—Circuit Attorney Folk was informed today that a representative of the house of delegates had solicited a bribe of $10,000 from certain St. Louis ticket brokers to fill the bill later, by passing, prohibiting the reselling of railroad excursion tickets. It is now charged that the bill in retaliation for the refusal of the ticket brokers to subscribe to a grand fund, St. Louis ticket brokers, president of the St. Louis Ticket Brokers' association, and Speaker Gazo of the house and Delegate John R. Fontana.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Captain John K. Wright. Junction City, Kan., Jan. 14.—Captain John K. Wright, a pioneer railroad contractor who has built thousands of miles of railway in Kansas, died at his home here today, the result of a stroke or paralysis, aged 69 years. He was kept in bed for a long period of several weeks, later helped to survey the wagon road that was laid out on the trail from Denver to Salt Lake City, and in 1861 enlisted in the Second Colorado volunteers. Later he became captain of the Sixteenth Kansas volunteers. He had lived here for nearly forty years and had represented his district in the state legislature.
