

PLOTTERS TAKEN OUT OF SOLITUDE

Convicts Who Participated in Break Working Again.

SPENT SIX MONTHS IN CELLS

STRIPED SUITS NOW GENERAL AT THE PENITENTIARY.

Six convicts who took part in the break from the penitentiary October 9 last, have been taken out of solitary confinement by Warden Arthur Pratt.

The convicts who for six months have been kept in solitary confinement because of their parts in the plot to escape are: Abe Majors, "Nick" Haworth and James Lynch, sentenced for life for murder, and Harry Waddell, Frank Connors and Edward J. Mullins, doing time for burglary.

At Work in Shops. Warden Pratt has been having them go out for exercise regularly since he took charge of the penitentiary, and now he has placed them in shops, where they will have a chance to earn at least part of their board.

Old Suits Discarded. The old suits of grey which were formerly worn by the first grade prisoners are now practically all gone.

Every prisoner on arriving at the penitentiary is placed in the second grade. If he behaves well, he is promoted to the first grade, and if he proves a bad prisoner, he is placed in the third grade.

HOW TO GAIN FLESH

The life of food is the fat within it—the more fat the more real benefit from the food; that is why cod liver oil is a powerful builder of flesh.

Scott's Emulsion of pure cod liver oil solves the problem of how to take cod liver oil. That is one reason why doctors have been prescribing Scott's Emulsion for almost thirty years.

LIFE BECOMING DEAR TO ROSE

Condemned Murderer is Losing Air of Bravado.

NOW WILLING TO APPEAL

EXECUTION IS TO TAKE PLACE NEXT FRIDAY.

As death draws near, it becomes more terrible to Frank P. Rose. Next Friday is the day set for his execution.

While he will not admit to anybody that fear is coming over him, the guards comprising the death watch notice a great change in his demeanor.

An evidence of his altered attitude was his writing a short time ago to his sister in Missouri, telling her if she so desired, he would be willing to have her raise the money to take an appeal to the supreme court.

Believe He Will Break Down. The guards at the penitentiary are inclined to the belief that he will go to pieces at the crisis.

The prisoner has taken to weeping and writing again to his wife in Missouri. Recently he composed a piece of doggerel about his crime and approaching execution, declaring he was joyously awaiting the day when he should face the line of rifles.

The days are now passed by the condemned wife-murderer in grim waiting. He sits or stands hour after hour in cell 123 in the south cell house.

He has ample time for meditation on the events of last Christmas day, when with the greatest deliberation he shot and killed his wife in the presence of their little child.

He remains until midnight, and then turns the key over to guard Harry Shurtz, who remains until Pugzey comes on again at 8 a. m. These guards, whose very presence has ominous significance, are Rose's sole company.

TIMELY TROUBLES

Thomas Smith, paperhanger of 128 South Main street, says: "A slight pain in my back, coupled with a disturbed action of the kidney secretions, led me to reason that if my kidneys were at fault a stitch in time would save nine, and the present was the time to act, for kidney complaint is so gradual and so insidious in its dealings with ordinary mortals that complications are apt to arise which lead to serious trouble."
