SALT LAKE MAN AFTER JEFFRIES

Would Like to Meet the Champion Himself.

ASKS FOR EXPERT ADVICE

IS TOLD HOW TO PROCEED TO GET THE MATCH.

There is an ambitious young man in the city who is anxious to meet Champion Jeffries in the ring. He believes he has the makings of a champion pugilist and is desirous to try conclusions with the champion himself. Here is what he has to say:

"Sporting Editor Herald: What is the best way to proceed to get a match with Jeffries? I am a starter with bright chances and would like to be advised by some one who knows what he is talking about. I weigh 275 pounds and am 22 years old; am snifty and have had some experience. Please advise."

"SALT LAKE. J. M. CARLSON."

Mr. Carlson, you certainly have high ambitions, and if you are successful you may get nothing but a good whipping. It is within the range of possibility that you are the man destined to down the greatest of all champions. To start with you will have to get a reputation as a fighter. The rest will be easy until you face Jeff in the ring. By means of a reputation it is meant that you will have to compile the pugilistic public from New York to San Francisco that you are the champion Salt Lake has a good chance to defeat champion himself. To get this reputation it will be necessary to get a good body, and do so effectively that there will be no doubt as to the outcome. You will have to wallop a few dead ones like Fitzsimmons, Corbett, Sharkey and Eubank—beating them, not just giving you a two-line notice in a country newspaper—and by that time the press of the country that would demand headlines that Jeffries meet you or else back off the earth.

New Name is Needed.

Before you start in the fighting game, however, you should adopt a fighting name. As you spell your name Carlson and not Carlsen, it is inferred you are a Swede. There is never a good name in the history of the ring where a Swede has had success, and this would act against you. If you spelled your name Carlsen, it would denote that you were of Danish extraction. Battling Nelson is a grand example of what persons of that nationality can do in the padded arena. However, a good Irish name would do much better, as the Irish are a nation of scrappers and a cognomen of this sort would lead you way toward starting you out right.

Take on Professor First.

Next, apply to some professor of boxing, put on the gloves and kick the professor. This should be able to do, with your size, if you have any ability at all. When you have done the kind of a professor he will realize that you are a diamond in the rough and will give you a preliminary to your main fight. As soon as you can, and whip your man quickly. Don't, however, take a victory, as some of the would-be scrappers have done who have made this town their home in the hope of making a few wins by this route won't do any good when you face a stranger away from home. If you have a good first preliminary, try it again and again, and if success still crowns your efforts your fortune is made.

By this time the sporting editors will have discovered your ability and nothing can stop your upward progress. Columns and columns of dope about your boyhood days will appear until you are a household name. The editors of the fighters in the country will be after you with challenges merely to couple their names with yours for a few days. The first to butt in will be James J. Corbett. Then Tommy Ryan and Jack Britton will back track, and finally fight promoters will offer you matches. At this point you will have to be careful and press agent, wallop a couple of the dead ones before mentioned, and the mighty James Jeffries will be compelled to meet you in the ring. When this comes, it is up to you.

YOUNG CORBETT OFFERS TO FIGHT BRITT FOR $5,000

San Francisco, Jan. 10.—Thomas Jenkins won the catch-as-catch-can wrestling championship tonight by knocking Jack Britt out of the ring in 15 minutes and seconds with a bar wrist in a half-Nelson and body hold.

Preliminary to the wrestling match which was to be a contest for the title which would be Jimmy Britt at 155 pounds ringside for a $5,000 side bet, where the challenger was to take a fight announced that he was looking for a match with the champion of England and was not ready to consider Corbett's offer.

WILLIAMS WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT SALT LAKE

A telegram was received yesterday by Manager Shepard of the Spokane job asking the date and place where the most agreeable of the National Association of Minor League clubs. Several speeches were made, most of the speakers urging a consideration of the minor leagues. Ban Johnson said the club was opposed to the request of the minor leagues regarding the date and place where the National Association of Minor Leagues. Johnson proposes that each club in the National and American leagues be limited to the drafting of not more than four or five players each year. He favored a maximum price of $1,000 for drafted men.

TRACK AND ATHLETIC GROUNDS IMPROVED

A large force of men are now at work on the University track and football field. The entire field, which lies within the track, is being leveled down, and the straightaway of the track on the west side is being raised to the level of that on the east side. New and broader banks are also being put on the curves at both ends.

The Company H team turned the trick by a score of 8 to 6, one of the best games seen this season.

HOT CHOICES TUMBLE

Four of Them in a Row Go Down Before Onslaughts of Long Shots.

San Francisco, Jan. 10.—Ventura came to life today and won the hand by a hollow fashion. He had the foot of the party, galloping all the way. Martindale, however, was the man who made four hot choices in a row to fall down. Kutz had him in the heavy seat and last night he was anchored. He was an easy second. Three necks apart for the show were Sea Voyage, Roman, and Weather cloudy, track muddy.

Summary: First race, six furlongs: Priests won, Princess Wheeler second, Maceira third. Time, 1:21.

Second race, five and a half furlongs: Melar won, Del Garin second, Fay Templeton third. Time, 1:16.

Third race, six furlongs: Lady Kent won, Dr. Sherman second, Albemarle third. Time, 1:24.

SENATORS SMASH BOWLING RECORD

Upward Flight of Pin Breakers Remains Unchecked.

BRILLIANTS ARE VICTIMS

TOBIN TRIES TO STEM THE TIDE, BUT HIS SUPPORT FAILS.

The bowling league is seriously considering some way of heading off the gang designated as "The Senators." This bunch of pin smashers seem determined to not only break up the league with their record breaking tactics, but show no consideration whatever for the feelings of their fellow players. This state of affairs has been going on for some weeks, and last night their actions were far more aggravating than at any time since they bid the bottom of the percentage column good-bye and started on a headlong run for the top of the ladder.

The Brilliants were the victims last evening. To show that they are something about the ancient game of ten pins, the Brilliants rolled up a total of 2,355 points, equalling the league record. This looked good, but the strenuous "wise-broves" came along and smashed the record into smithereens with a total of 2,856 points. The shock nearly prostrated the former champions and nailed them in the third position, while the Senators landed safe in the fourth place.

Tobin of the Brilliants tried to stem the tide of defeat for his team by breaking off the high mark of the evening with 611 points. Zehring and Allen, who were right after him with scores of 619 and 510. After the scores.

DIVISION OF OPINION.

Stockmen Not All in Favor of Allowing Railroads in Organization.

Denver, Jan. 9.—The city tonight is filled to overflowing with delegates to the National Livestock convention which opens in this city tomorrow and which will last through the greater part of the week. From present indications it will be one of the greatest as well as one of the most important gatherings of stockmen ever held in this country. There will be brought out the week meetings of numerous affiliated bodies, the wool growers leading off this morning with their 61st annual meeting, which was held in the Tabor Grand Opera house.

There is a sharp division between the cattlemen as to the advisability of allowing railroads and packers to have representation in the governing body of the association if the new plan of organization is carried through. President Frank J. Hagenbarth, president of the Live Stock association, is strongly in favor of admitting them and he has a numerous following.

Many western stockmen, while not opposing the proposed reorganization, are opposed allowing either railroads or packers to have anything to say about the affairs of live stock men. They contend that the railroads working in conjunction with the packers have compelled them to sell their cattle at the lowest possible prices, and they object to an alliance with either one of them.

The report of the committee was approved, and it was ordered to continue its work safeguarding the interests of the cattlemen.

CASE OF ERDAHL

On Trial Before Judge Howell For Arson.

In the district court yesterday the trial of the case against James Erdahl, called Nels Erdahl, on the charge of arson, occupied most of the day. The testimony of the witnesses in the case was followed closely the lines laid down in the preliminary hearing. The principal witness against Erdahl was Clark J. Brown, the woman with whom he had lived in the house which was burned down.

The prosecuting attorney also introduced some letters written by Erdahl to Mrs. Brown since the former has been confined in the jail. The letters were written in Norwegian and are of a somewhat damaging character. In one of them he tells Mrs. Brown that she must not let her attorney know of her arrangement to deny everything that would be said against her.

He also wrote that he would empower her to sell one of his cows to live on the place, but the objection was overruled by Judge Howell.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CIGARETTE

Big Meeting Held in Tabernacle to Aid Movement.

Another big meeting was held last night in the tabernacle in furtherance of the movement to stop the use of cigarettes. Dr. Willis Brown was president of the meeting and the talk was given by Dr. Brown, who is prominent in the movement. Will Brown, superintendent of the schools, also spoke.

Dr. Willis Brown, who had visited the state before the government, based his talk on the information that he had received in making this visit. Dr. Brown said that he had seen every boy confined there had acknowledged that he was addicted to the cigarette habit.

There were fully five hundred persons in attendance, mostly adults. Dr. Brown goes to Salt Lake today to address a meeting in connection with the anti-cigarette movement, which will be held at 11 o'clock, when an advisory committee will be named.

TO ADVERTISE DISTRICT

Ogden Men Interested in Sierra Madre Claims.

A number of Ogden men who are interested in the Sierra Madre Mining district held a meeting Monday at the New Broom hotel to devise plans for advertising the district. There are several claims in this district and thousands of dollars worth of minerals are being produced there. It is believed that if the real worth of the locality is known it would receive much more attention. Another meeting will be held in Ogden and the development of the district would mean much to Ogden. A. W. Acee presided and the meeting was adjourned until the next meeting.

A committee to draft a plan of organization was appointed, consisting of Dr. Brown, Charles Halverson and Fred Monday night.

VESSEL BLOWN INTO SPLINTERS

Details of the Naphtha Explosion on Board the Marpesia.

ELEVEN LIVES WERE LOST

SEVEN WHO SURVIVED THE SHOCK PICKED UP.

New York, Jan. 10.—Seven survivors of the ill-fated Norwegian ship Marpesia, which was wrecked at sea on Christmas day by an explosion of naphtha, resulting in the death of eleven members of her crew, arrived here today on the steamer Trinidad from Bermuda. They had been rescued by the Danish steamer Gallia, which happened by just at the moment when the Marpesia was blown into splinters and the seven who survived the shock were taken from the sea, where they had sought the only refuge that remained to them after the explosion. They were landed at Bermuda by the Gallia, which was bound from Hamburg for Savannah.

The Marpesia sailed from New York for Certe, France, on Dec. 9, with a cargo of naphtha, and had been out only a day when her troubles began. One gale succeeded another, but all were weathered in safety and without much damage until Dec. 17. On that day the ship was battered and knocked about in a merciless manner. Her ventilators were carried away at the decks, the hold began to fill and soon the cargo of cases of naphtha began to warp back and forth with every movement of the vessel. Soon the cases began to give way under the strain and in a little while the freed naphtha was floating around on top of the water in the hold.

Gale from the fluid accumulated steadily and by Christmas day the Marpesia was a loaded bomb, needing only the slightest spark to blow the whole structure to atoms. Here the spark reached the highly-charged hold never will be known, but suddenly the ship was in a terrific report, the forward deck shot up into the air with a crash and a roar and in a moment the entire ship was wrapped in flames. Those of the crew who were on board who had not been caught in the explosion threw themselves over the side of the flaming ship into the sea. There were only seven who survived the disaster, and have followed their companions to an early death had not the Gallia, which chanced to be in the vicinity, come down quickly to their aid.

MORTON WILL TESTIFY

Secretary of the Navy a Witness in the Famous Santa Fe Rebate Case.

Chicago, Jan. 9.—The Chicago Record-Herald tomorrow will say that Secretary of the Navy William D. Morton will be a witness before the interstate commerce commission when that body meets on the occasion of the hearing of the Santa Fe rebate case. This can be practically ascertained from the fact that the commission has postponed the hearing from Friday to next Monday, when it will come to Chicago prepared to hear all evidence which may be adduced. It was stated that the three main witnesses for the Santa Fe would be Secretary Morton, President Ripley of the Santa Fe and James Douglas, president of the El Paso and Southern railroad, with which the Santa Fe claims to have had an agreement in 1904 and not destined for places along the interstate commerce commission today postponed until next Monday. Those of the hearing of the Santa Fe allegations of rebates granted by the Santa Fe railroad to the Colorado Fuel & Iron company were taken in order to give President Ripley of the Santa Fe railroad more time to secure witnesses.

GRAND JURY GRINDING

Important Indictments Expected to Be Returned at Portland.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 10.—The federal grand jury which adjourned over the investigation of the land fraud conspiracy cases in this city today. Several witnesses were examined. It is expected that important indictments will be returned on Thursday.

A large number of witnesses have been summoned from Linn county to appear before the grand jury. In the case of the witnesses summoned have at various times located over 50,000 acres of timber lands for a local timber land dealer, who is said to have been the agent in these matters of a Minneapolis lumberman. It is generally understood that the testimony of the Linn county witnesses will be used to connect certain large lumber corporations, eastern and western with the land fraud conspiracy in this state.

Colonel A. R. Greene, special inspector of the interior department, has returned from a secret mission to Wisconsin, the home of Horace J. McKinstry, and one of the biggest timber syndicates in the United States, whose dealings in Oregon and Washington timber lands are said to have reached enormous proportions.

BANDS OF MURDERERS

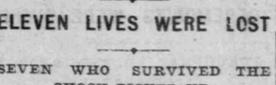

Greeks, Bulgarians and Turks Engaged in Three-Cornered Fight in Macedonia.

London, Jan. 10.—The active preparations already reported to have been made both in Turkey and Bulgaria, for a possible outbreak of hostilities between the two countries, has been confirmed by a private letter received in London from a minister accredited to the Balkan states. The minister, who has just completed a tour of the Balkan capital, writes that the Turkish and Bulgarian governments are energetically preparing for eventualities. Large shipments of arms and ammunition have been made, and recruits from Asia Minor are arriving at Salonica weekly for service in the Balkan armies. The Bulgarians and Greek bands in Macedonia are increasing daily, and are fighting each other and the Turks. This three-cornered guerrilla warfare threatens to assume a bloodiest phase in the spring.

"But," concludes the minister, "whether or not there will be real war between Turkey and Bulgaria in the spring, I am not prophetic enough to say. Up to a certain point the time is opportune, but it may be postponed this year as last, but in any event we are a year nearer the inevitable conflict."
