

UTAHNA DANCE STOPPED AGAIN

Attempt at Subterfuge Foiled by the Police.

BALL BY THE ONTARIO CLUB

PRESIDENT EXPLAINS PURPOSES OF ORGANIZATION.

"On with the dance," was the cry at Utahna park last night until the police stopped the festivities.

The case must be carried through the courts before I quit," he said. Instead of the "Come one, come all," affairs which have been open to the public at the pavilion during the night was advertised as "The grand ball, given by the Ontario club, admission 25 cents per."

Tip Is Passed Around.

When the orchestra struck up the first tune of the evening there were only a few couples on the floor. As time went on the tip was evidently passed along upon the street and the regular customers began to come.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe of Bear Grove, Ia., cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal."

Music Is Stopped.

Gourley did not act on his promise quite quickly enough to suit the officers, so they entered the pavilion and were about to make further arrests when Gourley arose, took the front of the orchestra's platform and said, "Ladies and gentlemen, there will be no more dancing tonight. I have been arrested by the police for running a dance hall and will not stop the music until the case has been carried through the courts."

Local Briefs.

VEVA CLUB TO GIVE DANCE.—The Veva club will give a dance and masquerade ball at Labor hall Friday evening.

CHANGE FURNERAL DATE.—The funeral of Mrs. Semira L. Wood will be held at 2 p. m. Friday, instead of Saturday, at Springfield.

POULTRY RAISERS TO MEET.—The Utah State Poultry association is to hold a meeting Friday evening at the Elks club to discuss the platform and other ways and means of obtaining state aid.

W. H. KING WILL SPEAK.—W. H. King will deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Union Improvement association at the Nineteenth ward meeting hall, 529 N. Sunday, Feb. 5, 1905. The public is invited and seats are free.

DRAINING THE MARSHES.—A meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the Callen hotel of persons interested in the drainage of the marshes near Great Salt Lake. No definite action was taken, and another meeting will be held shortly.

ACCUSED OF TAKING MONEY.—Ada May Green, an inmate of 57 Commercial street, was arrested last night by Sergeant Hemgel and Officer John Corless for "touching" John McHugh of $100. The woman claims that McHugh had no money when she came up there and was under the influence of liquor. The officers were unable to find the money in her apartments.

DIVORCED WIFE TRIES AGAIN.—Mrs. Ellen M. Block, who was divorced from Morris Block, 39, has become the bride of William Best, in her complaint filed in the office of the clerk of the district court charged Block with cruelty. When notice of her suit was served upon him Block went to his attorney and had him draw up and answer in which he admitted the truth of the allegation and consented to the granting of the divorce prayer for.

MONEY SPENT FOR POOR.—The report of Pauper Clerk James Sabine shows that during January $1,522.15 was spent in aiding the poor of the county. Of this amount, $1,500.20 was expended for coal, groceries and clothing and $20.95 in paying rents and railroad fares of poor persons. There were 23 families numbering 122 persons aided during the month, of whom 915 lived inside the limits of the city and 309 outside the city limits. An average of $67 was given to each family of $1.50 to each person. The expenditures during January were $34.30 less than in December, 1904.

LIPMAN SUCCEEDS KING.—F. L. Lipman was elected president of the Wells, Fargo & Co. bank in San Francisco last Tuesday, to succeed Homer S. King, who was installed president of the district court charged Block with cruelty. When notice of her suit was served upon him Block went to his attorney and had him draw up and answer in which he admitted the truth of the allegation and consented to the granting of the divorce prayer for.

FACTS THAT TELL.—January net increase in subscribers, 450. Total subscribers in Salt Lake City Feb. 1, 1905. Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company.

DORA YOUNG IN HER YOUTH

Photograph Is Found of the Woman Who Has Made Several Matrimonial Ventures.

When Dora Young, daughter of Brigham and Emeline Pease Young, was budding into womanhood she was considered to have been quite pretty by some people now living in Salt Lake City. The above halftone portrait of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

of her was made from a photograph taken of her twenty-five years ago in the studio of C. W. Carter.

The subsequent career of Miss Young was one replete with many entangling matrimonial alliances, all of which have been revived recently by the re-marriage of Mrs. Albert Hagan from the Mount Hope insane retreat near Baltimore, Md. The girl was first married to "Billy" Dunford, cousin of Dr. Alma E. Dunford, but after a time they were divorced, and then she was married to President Wilford Woodruff, from whom she was also divorced.

Not long after the latter matrimonial and divorce escapade she met Judge Albert Hagan, and their meeting resulted in a break in the judge's family and the elopement of the two to Seattle, where they were married. Mrs. Hagan, the deserted wife, moved to Bethlehem, Pa., with her two children, and was incarcerated subsequently in the Mount Hope retreat, where she remained closely watched prisoner, though sane, for more than a score of years. Judge Hagan died in Denver a few years ago.

It is now said that Mrs. Dora Young-Dunford-Woodruff-Hagan is contemplating her fourth marriage, and though 55 years of age is still a prepossessing woman.

Mrs. Dora Young Dunford Woodruff Hagan.

MALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED—Men and boys to learn plumbing trade; position and location plentiful; expense made with learning; instructor with years' experience; best opportunity ever offered. Call or write for particulars. Moler's Barber college, 62 E. 1st South.

WANTED—Men and boys to learn plumbing trade; position and location plentiful; expense made with learning; instructor with years' experience; best opportunity ever offered. Call or write for particulars. Moler's Barber college, 62 E. 1st South.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

STROCK'S Employment Agency. Waitresses, cooks, chambermaids, housegirls and all kinds of restaurant help wanted for all countries. Address 47-75 Easton ave., St. Louis, Mo.

A GIRL for general housework. 230 So. Sixth East.

GOOD girl for general housework; good wages; small family. 272 E. Second South.

GOOD girl for general housework. 140 A street.

GIRL for general housework. Mrs. O. F. Peterson, 472 E. 2d South.

A COMPETENT girl for general housework; no washing. 1311 E. 1st South St., Mrs. Hanauer.

GIRL wanted; light housework; small family. 797 S. 9th East.

GIRLS for general housework; also good cooks, one second girl. 614 Templeton block.

WASHERWOMAN wanted. Apply 75 2d St. Herald office.

GIRL wanted for general housework. 75 2d St., off Canyon road.

A GIRL for general housework. Apply Brice, 70 E. So. Temple.

NURSE girl at 122 East Brigham.

GIRL for general housework. 233 First street.

SALT LAKE CHARITY ASSOCIATION FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

WATCH this space—Through it we hope to secure employment for many unemployed fathers and mothers with dependent children, and whom we can best help in this way.

If you apply at once we can furnish a girl for second place at general housework, but makes no claim to being a cook.

The dressmaker we have been advertising has her time filled until Feb. 1, but would like to make engagements after that.

With ample notice up to a certain limit we can supply women to go out washing or house cleaning.

We always have a number of fathers who are only common laborers who need work and who are ready to accept of it if it is only a few days at a time.

Apply at our headquarters, 203 South Third West, or at our office, 200 or Bell 203 K. bet. 10 and 12 a. m. Salt Lake Charity Association.

SITUATION WANTED.

JAPANESE boy wants a position to attend school. D. 2 Herald office.

WOMAN wants work by the day, washing and ironing. Address or apply Mrs. Hansen, 618 Fourth street.

By elderly lady, a child to take home and care for. 426 So. 9th East, City.

By middle-aged lady, some light position; has had experience in grocery business. E. C. 422 9th East.

A POSITION as governess; can speak French and German; best of references given. Call or write, 667 So. 9th East, Phone 724.

A POSITION to do housework in small family; best of references. 667 So. 9th East, Phone 724.

POSITION as bookkeeper or general office work; best references. Address D 23, Herald.

A GIRL would like a place at housework in small family. G. 29, Herald.

WANTED—Daily work, washing or housecleaning. Apply 292 W. 3d South, room 12.

COMPETENT girl would like work in small family; no washing. Address 1463 Indiana Ave., Poplar Grove.

LADY and daughter wants position as cook and waiter in Goldfield. Address D 23, Herald.

A YOUNG girl would like a place in small family; no washing. Address 913 Euclid Ave., 8th W.

BARTENDER wants position in or out of town; permanent or substitute; first class and can furnish references. Address Carter, 68 E. 2d So.

WANT job on a farm; understand farm work. Address M. 19 Quince St., City.

TWO young ladies wish chamber work in rooming house; experienced. Call or address 232 So. W. Temple St.

A LADY with one child would like a place as housekeeper. 161 W. So. Temple, Room 9. Mrs. E. Traband.

A YOUNG girl wishes position to assist with light housework where she could stay at home nights. 747 So. 3d E. Telephone 229-K.

WORK by the day by woman. Telephone 229-K.

BY A YOUNG woman, work on Saturdays. Call 227 Iowa Ave.

MAN wants any kind of work or agency. Address D 17, Herald.

LADY with child wishes position as housekeeper; no objection to leaving the city. Call or address Room 8, 72 W. 2d So. State St.

COLORED woman, good cook and manager, would like place to do cooking or chamber work. F. 18, Herald.

POSITION as housekeeper for small family; no objection to leaving the city; home more