

BITTER HATRED SAID TO EXIST

Discord Among Russian Officers Returning Home.

ARMY SNEERS AT THE NAVY OFFICERS OF THE LATTER DENOUNCE STOESEL.

Paris, Feb. 15.—French special correspondents sent to meet the French steamer Australien, having on board General Stoesel and others of the survivors of Port Arthur, forwarded detailed accounts of discord among the Russian officers. The army officers are particularly hostile to the fleet, habitually calling it the "frightened fleet."

The admiral added that Vice Admiral Skrydloff prudently established himself ashore at Vladivostok, not wishing to give the opportunity to break the ineffective blockade of Port Arthur. Lockinsky declared he would denounce Stoesel, Skrydloff and Alexoff before the court-martial as he did not intend to let Admiral Ouktomsky, who now trembles with fear in a Chinese hospital, Lockinsky cited many instances of the unpopularity of the land and naval officers, frequent conflicts of authority and demoralization during critical engagements.

Substantially the same account is given by four French newspapers which describe General Stoesel and Admiral Lockinsky as refusing to speak to or salute each other. The papers also note the discord among the officers' shadows of grave scenes before the court-martial. The Petit Parisien quotes General Stoesel as sarcastically saying: "Rojestvensky had better not establish a too secure base along the route like the naval officers at Port Arthur will be impossible to let them venture seaward."

General Stoesel cannot pardon the navy's failure to succor him, while the navy fully returns his hatred. The French special correspondents conclude that the fortress fell largely because of the regrettable quarrels among the officers.

Commission Proposed. St. Petersburg, Feb. 15.—In view of the continued attacks on and criticism of General Kuropatkin, which are prejudicial to the Russian arms, the Novoye Vremya, in an extended defense of the duties of the commander-in-chief, proposes that a commission composed of retired officers be appointed to pass judgment on the general.

DIMOND TRYING TO GET OUT ON HABEAS CORPUS. Washington, Feb. 15.—A brief in behalf of Henry F. Dimond of California in a habeas corpus case against United States Marshal Shine of that state was filed in supreme court of the United States today. Dimond is one of the men implicated in the conspiracy of the District of Columbia for conspiracy to detain the government in connection with the Panama canal.

Judge De Haven of Dimond's district issued a warrant for his removal to this city and denied a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Dimond sets up in his brief that Judge De Haven of New York issued a writ to John A. Benson under identical circumstances, and also contends that the Washington court is without jurisdiction.

POLICY HOLDERS ARE CONSIDERED

control of that society so long as it was only in the hands of the board of directors, but in view of the statements which Schiff today authorized the following:

"He (Mr. Schiff) first learned some twelve days ago of the trouble which was brewing, when he was called upon by counsel for Mr. Alexander, who advised him of Mr. Alexander's determination to oust Mr. Hyde from the control of the company through a movement to transfer the control to the policy holders. Mr. Schiff from the outset declared himself as unqualifiedly in favor of participation by the policy holders in the control of the society, insisting, however, that this should and must be brought about in a dignified, orderly and just manner. Further, that the board of trustees should be made directly responsible to the policy holders for the management of the company rather than the control should pass to the executive officers through the obtaining in their own names of the proxies of the policy holders.

"The gist of the entire controversy is this: Mr. Alexander and his associates desire to secure control of the company and elect a board of trustees of their own making; those opposed to this plan are the executive officers through the obtaining in their own names of the proxies of the policy holders. It was understood, however, yesterday, that the charge perjury would be filed against the three men and an effort will be made to hold them responsible for the burden of the frauds. It is also intimated that when Jones, Martin and Hanna take the stand to give testimony along the same line, that Harry J. Roberts, who was only charged with being implicated with the gang, neither Davies or Phillips could be charged with perjury, but it is understood that definite steps will be taken today to have the three state witnesses held for perjury.

The preliminary hearings of Davies and Phillips will be taken again this morning at 10 o'clock and Harry J. Roberts, witness for the prosecution, who occupies full weight in the case, will be recalled again this morning for further cross examination. Attorney Frank Gustin, for the defense, has made a statement to the press, but but very little evidence was produced in yesterday's session by the prosecution.

BUY A BEAUTIFUL HOME

H. C. Hoffman Gains Possession of Homestead of Late Bishop - Elijah F. Sheets.

H. C. Hoffman of the firm of H. C. & Edward E. Hoffman has just completed the purchase of the beautiful home of the late Bishop Elijah F. Sheets for a consideration understood to be $200,000. The homestead contains ten acres of ground, an entire city block. It is located on the corner of Fifth East and South South. It is considered the most desirable residence property, and will in all probability be subdivided into building lots to accommodate the people who are building rapidly in that direction. Mr. Hoffman, the purchaser, holds much valuable property in the city and in this purchase makes another proof of his faith in the city's growth.

SAILORS REFUSED TO TAKE CHANCES

Paris, Feb. 15.—Forty sailors from the French steamer Espérance, belonging to Havre, returned to Marseilles on Friday to engage in contraband traffic. The Espérance was bound for England, Oct. 25, ostensibly for Baku, with a cargo of coal. On arriving at Vigo the crew joined the Russian Baltic squadron and continued in its company to Madagascar. There the seamen related the circumstances to the authorities and were sent home.

Man Who Did Too Well.

(Louisville Courier Journal.) "A man may sell too much of the article which he is displaying to his customers, and I know of a case in point which happened to friend of mine, said Hite Bowman.

"My friend had a fine place offered him with an organ factory, and he accepted the offer. He went out, and to his first customer sold the entire output of the plant. The customer agreed to take all that the factory could make. Having nothing more to sell, he returned to the house well pleased with his success, and for several days sat around smoking good cigars, while the firm sat on the back. One day he came in and boss called him over, saying in this fashion: 'I've got to give you the usual thirty days' notice. You have done so well that we have no further use for you or your traveling man. We are sorry to lose you, but you sold too much at the first crack.'

"He knew. (Cleveland Plain Dealer.) 'Children, we will now have an example in division. Tommy Tiggley if your father brought home $10 to divide with you, what would you do with it?'

"Ten dollars." 'Tommy, you don't know your lesson.' 'No, ma'am, but I know my mother.'

An Oversight. "I thought," said the father of a string of cars, a fire engine, an automobile, a mechanical monkey and a watch for Christmas that would be about all for him.

And isn't he satisfied?" asked the man who lives next door.

"No," answered the parent with a deep sigh, "I neglected to get him a hammer to smash them with."

WILL MEET ON SATURDAY

Smoot Committee Will Then Make Up Its Mind as to Future Action.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Chairman Burrows has called a meeting of the senate committee on privileges and elections to be held on Saturday to consider the arguments of counsel in the Smoot investigation and determine upon some course of action. There has been no meeting of the committee since the hearings were closed and no consultation of members to discuss whether it is possible to decide the case at this session of congress. In view of the limited time that remains of the present session, the disposition is to postpone action until the next session. There are so many points involved in the discussion that it is estimated that a week or more would be required in the senate to bring the case to a vote. The arguments of counsel have been bound in one volume and are being distributed.

FIGHT FOR FULL WEIGHT

Retail Butchers and Grocers Get After Wholesalers, Who Raise Prices to Get Even.

Several speakers at a meeting of the Retail Butchers & Grocers' association last night scored certain wholesale butter dealers who had added cents a pound to the price of the butter sold by them because the association had undertaken to compel the wholesalers to give full weight when selling butter to the retailers. Secretary John A. Burt was instructed to write to the wholesalers accused of boosting the price of butter and ask them to explain their action, and say whether they were trying to get even with the members of the association for forcing them to give full weight packages or had some other reason. The bill of Secretary Burt providing for attaching and garnishing the salaries of state, county and city officials and employees who do not pay their bills was approved by the association.

Desmond, who had been drinking, stopped at the place to water his horse. He started up, not seeing the approaching street car. He was talking to his little girl in the wagon with him at the time. He did see the car when too late to pull the team out of the way. The three-year-old daughter, a distance of ten feet to safety. One horse was instantly killed in the collision and Desmond was thrown out upon the body of the dead animal. He escaped without injury. The car was considerably battered.

JAPS HAD BETTER TOOLS.

Stoesel's Reason for Success of General Nogi.

London, Feb. 15.—The correspondent at Port Said of the Standard gives an interview with General Stoesel, chief of the charges made by the Peking correspondent of the Times concerning the surrender of Port Arthur and his defensive condition. General Stoesel attributed the Japanese success in great measure to the superior quality of their drilling tools as compared with those of the Russians, which latter quickly deteriorated when used against hard rock. The general emphatically declared that all the public descriptions of the second line of forts were purely imaginary. These forts, he said, were only temporary defenses.

MARRIAGE MADE EASY FOR SHY BRIDES BY CLERK ELDREDGE

Hoeh der Jodey!

Generations of blushing brides yet unborn will rise to do honor to the memory of County Clerk Joseph Eldredge, who has introduced a bill to make marriage easy for years unnumbered the blushing brides have suffered under the rule that required applicants for marriage licenses to state their ages. Full well the brides knew the newspaper reports—hardened creatures—would seize with avidity upon the ages set forth on the applications and blazon the same forth to a callous world. The brides suffered not in silence. They have pleaded, they have coaxed, they have threatened. Some of them have wept. But the rule was of iron. No age, no license; and brides have been given the alternative of foregoing marital bliss or stating their ages. But now, thanks to the Joseph of blessed memory, the bride no longer need inform the world concerning the number of winters and summers she has seen and so on. The new rule merely requires that brides shall swear they are over 18 and that bridegrooms shall swear they are over 21. Breathes there a bride who will not confess to 18?
