Ogden News.

Ogden, Thursday, Feb. 16.

EXPLOSION WAS TERRIFIC.

As a Result Peter Peterson Will Probably Lose His Life.

Vernal, Feb. 12.—Word has reached here from Chilpeta, ten miles above Ogden, of an explosion on the canal being constructed there, in which Peter Peterson was dangerously, and perhaps, fatally, injured, and John Wardle also seriously wounded. The explosion was terrific. From what can be learned of the affair it seems that Peterson and others were working on the White River canal, where there has been necessary to blast with dynamite. An ordinary black powder can has been kept partly filled with water, which was used to blow out the powder, until it had become strongly impregnated with nitroglycerine. Peterson had been sharpening a drill and stuck it down through the ice that had formed there was a terrific explosion. Peterson was thrown into the air and landed on the side of a leg. It tore all the clothing from his body, leaving them a heap of rags. Wardle was thrown into fragments, and the flying pieces took all the flesh away from his head and neck. Peterson was very much shocked by the effects of the explosion. He is now in a hospital in Vernal, Utah, and is expected to die.

Suspicious of Ballots.

The contestant's attorneys put on first County Clerk David Matson and then C. Hollingsworth, former county clerk and state senator from this county. This line of testimony appeared to detract from the contention that the ballots were those of the Howell side. A most searching examination was made by Judge Matson and the jury directed to ascertain where the ballots had been taken out or inserted through the envelopes, being of poor quality, had the envelopes been tampered with.
