CONFERENCE VISITORS.

EVEN IF THE weather man has slipped a cog and let some good weather break into conference week...

Since the last conference, the hearing of the Smoot investigating committee has developed some unknown facts...

Live Wires. After it secures a franchise that suits it perhaps the light company will be magnanimous enough to permit a peacable citizen to occasionally walk on the streets that will then be owned by the company.

In considering the effect in France of the German emperor's Morocco speech one might make allowances for the German idea that the Kaiser, Max Wilhelm thought it would be funny to pretend he wanted to embrace individuals and collective France...

Among matters that may be regarded as definitely settled is the belief that Mr. Smurthwaite of Ogden would make a public protest against church officials during conference. Present indications are that Mr. Smurthwaite will have to content himself with a seat in the visitors' gallery.

Really, it was absurd to expect the Weber committee to take up a little matter like a charge of polygamy when so much important business had to be transacted.

As the bicycle is a competitor of the street car the lot of the wheelman will be a sad one when the street car company gets a franchise that suits it. The city will make the wheelman keep on its sidewalks and the company will make him keep off its streets.

Mr. Harlan's Bad Day. (Telegraphic Message.) Chicago, April 4.—A political tornado today overwhelmed one of the most ruggedly unique leaders in this country as well as in Illinois.

Appeals to fear of corporate wealth worked against Mr. Harlan. Miscegenation of the colored vote worked against Mr. Harlan.

When estimates of the Socialist vote worked against Mr. Harlan. The prohibitionists worked against Mr. Harlan.

After the returns showed him to be about 25,000 votes shy Mr. Harlan conceded his defeat. Mr. Harlan believes the majority of the voters did not think as he thought.

By the way, Mr. Harlan was defeated by a man named Edward Dunne, a Democrat. Mr. Harlan is a Republican.
