

The probabilities are that the new golf instructor who comes to the club Wednesday morning for the first time will be kept pretty busy.

For the first time in many months Salt Lakers have something in the social line to which to look forward at the present time.

Surely one would suppose that the recording angel, exact as he is, would be as lenient as possible when the matter of that Good Friday luncheon was not made a subject of record here.

Several of the girls are getting a passion for having double weddings, that is having their weddings at similar hours of the same day.

Society girls (the ultra type) are wondering since when they have been interested in Froebel and just what kind of a product Froebel is.

Another one of the popular young physicians is soon to enter the ranks of the benedictines, and although the matter has been kept quiet, it is known that the fair maiden whose ministering hand and friendly smile has won her a reputation in San Francisco to obtain her trousseau.

A quiet little Sunday supper with a few chattering dishes and all the accompaniments will be given this evening. But lest the staid world should not understand the idea of entertaining about sixty or seventy of one's friends Sunday night, no record will be made of the matter.

SOCIAL DOINGS OF THE PAST WEEK

Mrs. Ledyard M. Bailey entertained yesterday afternoon at a buffet luncheon in compliment to Miss Anne Stirling, who is here from Denver spending a short time with Mrs. William Igleheart.

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. McEnery have already made a choice of a home in San Francisco, and the probabilities are that the deal making the purchase will be consummated before they sail for Europe next month.

Mrs. J. C. Koyne who has spent the past month in Denver, is expected home during the week.

Miss Katherine Wall and Miss Mabel Crowley will leave early in June for Portland, where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Glen Miller of this city will attend Easter services today at St. Peter's, in Rome. After that fortnight in the "Eternal City," she goes with friends to Milan for the close of the opera season there.

Mrs. John T. Hurst and Mrs. S. M. Day of Ogden are in town, guests at the Breeden home.

Miss Helen Critzer entertained yesterday for Miss Nell Cullen.

Mrs. Vivian Jones is entirely recovered and is again able to be out.

Mrs. T. C. Bailey is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Post at their home, 963 Third street.

Miss Daisy Harroon has gone to San Francisco for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bush entertained on Tuesday in honor of James White of Mercur.

The members of the Thistle club and their friends will give a dance in Electric Workers hall next Friday evening.

For the past week J. W. White of Mercur has been visiting his sister, Mrs. F. C. Bush.

Miss Nina Knudsen entertained the teachers of the Emerson school at her home on Fourth East street Friday evening, and announced her engagement to Mr. S. Clinton Willey of Denison, Tex.

Mrs. William Carroll has moved from 228 East Fourth South to 366 South Sixth East.

Captain and Mrs. F. M. Bishop entertained Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Ham Naylor of Richfield.

Miss Mildred Ham and Miss Maude Hampton entertained about twenty young people Friday evening at sixty-three at Miss Hansen's home, 323 G street. The first prizes were won by Miss La Prele Hatch and Mr. Thompson. Following cards music and games were enjoyed after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. John McDonald entertained about sixty or eighty at a Kensington Tuesday at the McDonald home on Fifth South street. A musical programme was rendered and later a buffet supper was served. The rooms were decorated in cut flowers, pink and white being used in the sitting room and American beauties in the drawing room. Mrs. McDonald was assisted by the members of her family.

Miss Ida Knowles gave a delightful party Thursday evening in honor of Fritz Jensen, who goes to Norway May 17. The evening was spent in playing games, music and social chat, after which a delicious luncheon was served. Those present were Marie Bydendrop, Florence Knowles, Della Meade, Martha Shaw, Emma Swan, Ida Knowles, Fritz Jensen, George Solomon, Leonard Meads, John Westwood, Arthur Solomon and Frank Knowles.

Mrs. George Z. Edwards entertained a number of little folks Wednesday from 4 to 7 in honor of her daughter, Urse's ninth birthday. After a number of games had been played the little friends were ushered into the dining room, which was decorated with apple blossoms. Each little miss found at her place a rabbit holding a basket of many colored candy eggs. Suspended from the chandelier was a huge egg which puzzled the little folks. After they had finished the dainty lunch, the egg sent a shower of fluffy little chicks down on the table, one for each little guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay S. Groo are now in their new home, 35 Eleventh East street.

Miss Katherine McDonald will go to Spokane to spend the summer shortly after school closes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boehmer are receiving their friends in their new home 42 South Fourth East street.

COMING EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIAL CIRCLES

The first marriage, so far as known, to take place in the little post chapel will be that of Miss Margaret Gray Lane and Lieutenant Edwin Oliver Saunders, which is to be solemnized at 9 o'clock Thursday evening. The marriage will be an elaborate military event. The service will be followed by a small reception. The bride will be attended by Mrs. Frank D. Ely as matron of honor and Miss Botha Buckingham as bridesmaid. Wayne Hemphill will be the best man, J. E. Buckingham of Omaha and G. W. Buckingham of Chicago will be the ushers. Little Bobbie Buckingham, the small brother of the bride, will bear the ring. The marriage will be followed by a reception, for which the following out-of-town guests will be here: Mr. and Mrs. L. H.
