PRIZE FIGHT INCIDENT AGAIN

Interruption at Union Service Last Night Causes Many to Smile.

JOSEPH F. NO CHURCHMAN

REV. JOSIAH M'LAIN SPEAKS OF SIN AND SOCIETY.

The Joseph F. Smith prize-fight incident was brought to the minds of the congregation at the union service meeting in the First Methodist church last night, although mention of it was by no means foreseen.

Rev. Josiah M'Lain, the speaker, was in the midst of an address dealing with sin, and more particularly with its presence in the church.

"The man who drinks and swears has no right in the church," interrupted Rev. Benjamin Young, who was seated with the congregation.

"Not because sin is a hindrance to society," Society has no power almost. Society doesn't make inquiry as to a man's life. The door is open. Of course the common thief or drunkard, the man who is arrested on a charge of being hauled to the lock-up would be barred.

WEATHERED THE STORM.

Denver, April 24.—The storm which began early yesterday morning continued until noon today. The down-pour changed from rain to snow about midnight and the plains of eastern Colorado were covered with about six inches of heavy wet snow this morning.

HALF OUR ILLS ARE CATARRH.

Thousands of People Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It is Catarrh.

Mr. David L. Jaycox, chaplain Clarinda, J. O. G. and chaplain G. A. R., 865 Broadway, Oakland, Cal., writes:

"I am an old war veteran. I contracted severe bladder and kidney trouble. I spent hundreds of dollars and consulted a host of doctors, but neither did me any good.

"Peruna has proven the best medicine I ever used. My pains are gone and I believe myself to be cured. I feel well and would not be without a bottle in time of need for ten times its cost."

Hundreds of war veterans have kidney and bladder trouble. Impure drinking water, sleeping on the ground, and all manner of exposures to wet and cold weather produced catarrh of the kidneys and bladder.

ALL DAMAGE TO WIRES IS FIXED

SALT LAKE NOT CUT OFF

ZION IN CONTINUOUS COMMUNICATION WITH THE EAST.

Every trace of the terrific blow of Sunday midnight, so far as the efficiency of the telegraph and telephone service between Salt Lake and Ogden is concerned, was erased by 2:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the Western Union had restrung the twenty-two wires blown down in the storm, and the Postal Telegraph and the telephone companies were able to report clear track.

The first direct communication between Salt Lake and Ogden by telegraph was established about 9 a. m. It was the work of about five hours to get all the tangle of fallen poles and wires straightened out.

The Western Union was the heaviest loser by the windstorm. Manager A. H. May could venture no estimate of the damage in dollars and cents owing to the fact that the loss of regular business meant as much as did the replacing of wires, etc.

At no time was Salt Lake "cut off from the world," although Ogden was for several hours in that predicament. Not only did the Associated Press maintain a service over a Western Union wire east, via Grand Junction, but the Postal Telegraph, according to Manager H. S. Shaw, operated a wire east via Park City. Both the Postal's Salt Lake-Ogden wires, like the Western Union's twenty-two, went out during the fierce blow before midnight.
