

CHICKENS ARE IN GREAT DEMAND

Housewives Make a Great Run on the Poultry Market.

STRAWBERRIES ABOUT OFF

BLACKBERRIES ARE COMING IN PLENTIFUL QUANTITIES.

Quantities of chickens were sold yesterday for today's luncheon and when the stores closed last night the stock had almost been cleaned out.

The shoppers likewise made a raid on the vegetable market, but a couple of refrigerator cars, loaded with green stuff from the coast, arrived yesterday morning and relieved the market.

Strawberries are scarce and the dealers say that the crop is small. Blackberries are coming in plentifully and shipments of raspberries were received yesterday from Cache valley.

Eggs are wholesaling at $5.50 and $5.75. The retail prices remain the same and the demand is steady. Utah cream cheese is coming into market in good shape and is selling for 20 cents a pound.

GREATEST TELEPHONE MAN IN WORLD PAYS VISIT TO SALT LAKE CITY

F. P. FISH, President American Telephone & Telegraph Company.

The most prominent telephone man in the world is a Salt Lake visitor. He is F. P. Fish, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, the corporation that owns a controlling interest in all the Bell telephone companies in the United States and Canada and that reports 99,000 in telephone equipment. Mr. Fish is here on one of his occasional visits of inspection.

Although he did not arrive in Salt Lake until nearly 8 o'clock last evening, Mr. Fish, immediately after dinner, held a conference with President George J. Wallace and General Manager D. S. Murray of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company at Knottwood. He will remain in Salt Lake today, continuing and concluding his business with Messrs. Wallace and Murray tonight or tomorrow. Mr. Fish will go on to San Francisco. He expects to return to his headquarters within the next few weeks.

It is little to be said about the telephone business, said Mr. Fish last night, except that it is growing at a very rapid rate. More people are using the telephones all the time, more users are being found for them and it does not seem possible that the time can be very distant when it will be found in every household.

The toll lines are being kept at the rate of something like a thousand miles a day and the business, of course, is increasing proportionately.

MAYOR MORRIS WILL TAKE VACATION; HEWLETT ELECTED TO FULFILL HIS DUTIES

Mayor Richard P. Morris notified the council last night that he intends taking a trip to Los Angeles, and will be absent from the city a week or ten days. He said it would be necessary for that body to elect a mayor pro tem, to serve during his absence. He proposed to elect a pro tem, but this was not done as several of the members objected.

Mayor Morris will start for Los Angeles this evening. His trip will be of one or two days, and for rest from the cares of state.

Then A. J. Davis dropped down to six votes, having voted for Preece and a trip to Los Angeles for him. Then Hartenstein thanked his supporters and withdrew from the race. On the next ballot Preece was chosen by a vote of 8 to 7.

He then proposed to elect a pro tem, but this was not done as several of the members objected.

NATIONAL BANK CLOSES DOORS

burg & Midway Coal company, the Kansas City, Coal & Coke company, the Southwestern Fuel company, the Wiley Coal company, and the Marceline Coal company.

Mr. Devlin also owns a number of large coal yards in Kansas City. He is a stockholder in twenty-five banks, his bank stock, it is estimated, amounting probably to one million dollars.

Another property owned by Mr. Devlin is the Topeka, Marquette & Northern railroad, a line carrying in forty-two miles long, which connects with the larger roads in Kansas.

Mr. Glead's Statement. Charles S. Glead, general manager at Kansas City of the Missouri & Kansas Telephone company, is perhaps as familiar with the affairs of the Devlin property as any business man. Mr. Glead is not the attorney of the Central National bank, but he is the attorney of the Associated Press today, Mr. Glead stated, that so far as can be ascertained by hasty appraisements, the value of the Devlin estate is between six and seven millions of dollars.

Valuable Collateral. The indebtedness is secured by the stocks and bonds of the twenty-six mining, mercantile and railroad companies. The debts probably are all known. The value of the stocks and bonds up as collateral is very small, or if it is greatly depreciated by mismanagement, then the creditors will lose accordingly.

No formal inventory of either debts or assets has been found. One of the assets controlled by Mr. Devlin was the First National of Topeka. It is to be the time of Mr. Devlin's illness the bank loaned Mr. Devlin's companies $500,000, for which there was much collateral.

After Mr. Devlin fell ill, it came in from the various companies and were paid by the bank, so that the Devlin indebtedness ran up to about one million dollars. This crippled the bank and this morning it did not open.

It was hoped that the parties most deeply interested would advance money to the consolidated company so that the Devlin paper in the bank could be kept up every morning and hold conversations that are entirely satisfactory. It is no unusual occurrence for conversations between Boston and Milwaukee and Atlanta, Georgia, to be engaged in.

My visit here is made in the course of business. I am in Salt Lake for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the Rocky Mountain Bell telephone company is giving the people of this part of the country the service they need and ought to have. I am prepared to do anything in my power to bring this about in the event it has not already been done.

It must be said, however, that the Rocky Mountain Bell territory is very well developed. On Jan. 1, 1905, twelve per cent of the people here were Rocky Mountain Bell subscribers, and that constituted a very high percentage. I am informed that the number has increased materially since the first of the year.

Chicago Office Locked. Chicago, July 3.—The whole trouble involving both Mr. Devlin's affairs and those of the First National bank of Topeka came to a head here today. A party of approximately two weeks ago, which rendered Mr. Devlin incapable of transacting business. At 10 o'clock, Mr. Devlin's Chicago headquarters, no party was permitted to speak for him. The offices were closed. At the Chicago Exchange bank here it was said today that the First National bank of Topeka carried comparatively small account with the Corn Exchange bank, and that beyond regret of the failure there was no particular interest felt in the affair.

Last Official Report. Topeka, Kan., July 3.—The report of the condition of the First National bank at Topeka in the state of Kansas, as of the close of business May 23, 1905, showed resources and liabilities amounting to $2,351,304. Individual deposits subject to check were $1,229,943, and demand certificates of deposits, $350,958.

Receiver Appointed. Washington, July 3.—The comptroller of the currency, J. T. Bradley, receiver of the First National bank of Topeka, Kan., upon receipt of the report from the vice-president of the bank that its doors had been closed.

REID SAYS HE WAS ROBBED. Cheyenne Fighter Claims He Was Given Raw Deal by Dock Springs Sports.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 3.—The recent fight at Rock Springs between "Happy" Reid of Cheyenne and Jack Brennan of Rock Springs, in which Brennan received the decision in the fifth round, has a peculiar ending, and the referee and sports of Rock Springs are being criticized by persons familiar with the battle. In the fifth round the referee, who had successfully avoided Brennan's viciously clever foot work, Brennan struck Reid with his head and shoulders and the front spectators, and with his hips and legs on the floor. Reid attempted to regain his feet, but was seized by the referee, and although he called loudly to be let up so he could resume the battle, the referee counted him out. The fight was thus ended, claiming it was a deliberate steal.

Reid challenged Brennan for a return match and the fight will be pulled off in either Rawlins, Douglas or Casper. Brennan is a twelve-pounder, heavier than Reid and is stronger in every way, but at that the Cheyenne man is so clever that it is thought he can easily defeat the niner in fifteen or twenty rounds.

Reid Newhouse has challenged the winner of the fight, but the chances are that a fight will be arranged between Reid and Newhouse.

M'CORNICK DUE TODAY. Prompt Action Expected on Agricultural College Muddle.

It is expected that a movement toward settling the difficulties in the cultural college will begin in the next few days. President W. S. McCornick of the board of trustees is expected in Salt Lake today, and it is understood that he will call a meeting of the board.

On account of Mr. McCornick's absence, no action has been taken in the matter. No plan of action has been decided upon, but it is expected that the board it is expected that the situation at the college will be relieved.
