

NEW DEAL MEANS QUICKER SERVICE

Salt Lake Shippers to Benefit by Traffic Arrangement.

TAKES EFFECT AUGUST 8

CALIFORNIA FREIGHT WILL COME FAST.

Salt Lake and other shippers will begin to realize the benefits of the Salt Lake route-Southern Pacific freight terminal deal on Aug. 8.

The deal itself was outlined in The Herald two days ago. By its provisions the Salt Lake route has the right to use Southern Pacific terminals in Southern California to get and give freight in other words the Salt Lake route has the same freight facilities as though it had been built for years.

Such Interest Aroused. As things now stand this city after Aug. 8 will begin to get far heavier and far quicker freight shipments from Southern California than it has heretofore known.
