

MINERS DECLARE EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Also Recognition of Their Union by the Operators.

TROUBLE AGAIN BREWING

AGREEMENT WILL EXPIRE APRIL 1 NEXT.

Philadelphia, Sept. 5.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, was in this city today in his capacity as a vice president of the American Federation of Labor to join with First President Danahy of the federation and others in the settlement of a dispute involving typewriters and printers. He will leave for Shamokin tonight.

It can be stated on the highest authority that the convention of anthracite miners which will draft new demands for presentation to the coal companies on the expiration of the strike commission's award on August 15, will be held in Shamokin between Dec. 3 and 10. It was learned here today that the December convention at Shamokin will make the following demands:

First—A recognition of the miners' union by the coal operators, the recognition to take the form of a signed agreement.

Second—The substitution of an eight-hour workday for the nine-hour workday awarded by the strike commission, which is now in force throughout the hard coal fields.

Third—An increase in pay over the minimum wages now paid to men and boys who are not contract miners, but are generally classed as day laborers.

Fourth—A uniform scale of wages for workmen, not actually miners, at all collieries.

"Are the members of the union so eager for the recognition of their organization and for an eight-hour workday that they are prepared to precipitate a crisis if they are refused them?" Mr. Mitchell was asked.

"I cannot answer that question. You see the miners have not yet held their convention and it would be presumptuous for me to say in advance what they will or will not do."

GRAIN NEARLY HARVESTED

Threshing Reported Under General Headway in Utah—Chinch Bugs Harm Late Grain.

The report of the department of agriculture for the week ending last Monday covering Utah, says:

The showery weather with considerable cloudiness and frequent thunderstorms characterized the week. These storms, though often of great violence in their electrical features, yielded, as a rule, to the comparatively light showers of the following days. The rainfall was unusually much greater, but in the surrounding mountainous regions, but no damage for consequence resulted. Though the days were usually quite warm, the nights were, in general, cool, especially toward the close of the week when the temperatures in the northern counties fell low enough to form frosts that damaged corn, potatoes and other tender vegetation in some localities. The cereals, however, were not injured owing to their advanced state of growth.

"Grain harvesting was nearly completed throughout the section and threshing was under general headway. Yields continued up to the average, excepting on arid lands. Late sown grain was matured rapidly and was nearly ready to gather. Prospects for good yields were bright as the crop was in the best of condition. In a few localities insects caused considerable damage. Corn was generally very dry, but in some sections, though wormy in some sections. The range was generally very dry and the supply of irrigation water was becoming very scarce. Stock, however, was in fair condition."

FLOODS IN NEW YORK.

Reports Coming in Show the Damage Was Extensive.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Reports are coming in from some of the villages in Chenango and Otsego counties which indicate that the flood of Sunday was much more extensive than at first reported. In ten or fifteen towns it was probably not far from 100 high water bridges have been swept away. Some of these were large and expensive structures. Not a single bridge remains on the Oneida Valley railroad, running from Oneida to New Berlin. Much of the roadbed has been washed away and it will be months before the line will be again in running order. It is impossible for the rural free delivery messengers to make their routes. Losses running from $100,000 to $200,000 in small villages in the eastern part of Chenango and western Otsego are reported.

REBUTTAL EVIDENCE IN THE TAGGART CASE

Wootter, Sept. 5.—Witness on behalf of Major J. E. Taggart was called in court here today to rebut evidence offered in behalf of Mrs. Grace C. Taggart, in their divorce suit. Depositions from army officers were read to show that the alleged quarrel between the Taggarts at Fort Leavenworth had been exaggerated.

MARSHALL FIELD AND MRS. CATON MARRIED

London, Sept. 5.—Marshall Field and Mrs. Arthur Caton of Chicago were united in marriage at noon today at St. George's church, Westminster. Canon Herbert Hensley-Henson of St. Paul's cathedral, assisted by the Rev. Samuel Kirshbaum of St. Margaret's, performed the ceremony. The church was closed to the general public and only a small congregation composed of immediate relatives of the couple and Ambassador and Mrs. Whitehouse, Lord and the staff of the American embassy witnessed the ceremony.

Sixty Years' Experience of an Old Nurse.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for sixty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teaching its value is insinuated into the child's mind, curing diarrhoea, griping in the bowels and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price, 75 cents a bottle.

Mister, can you tell me who is the best specialist in Salt Lake? Yes, sir. Dr. C. W. Higgins at St. Elmo Hotel.

ONE WOMAN PERISHED.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Late reports from Newburgh state that the damage from the floods is very serious. One woman perished. At Edineston the damage is estimated at $100,000 and the town is paralyzed.

NO DIFFERENCE.

Old People Just as Happy as Young. Age cannot wither nor custom state the infinite variety of life.

When the right food makes one new each day there seems as much simple happiness in an old as when young, but bounding health is the requisite and right food produces that.

A happy woman of 77 tells her experience: "For three years," she says, "I was greatly troubled with a nervous affection of the stomach, which at last brought me to such a condition that I could neither sleep nor eat with any sort of comfort. I grew very despondent and felt that my hold on life was very uncertain. It was difficult for me to find food that I could digest. My doctor kept me on a diet of rice for a long time, but it did not seem to give me any strength."

"I am glad that at last I decided to try Grape-Nuts food, for it has done a wonderful work for me. Before I had used up the first package I began to take a new interest in life, and I rapidly increased in health and strength. My stomach has regained its normal tone and in the two years that Grape-Nuts has been my only food, I have not had a sick day. I am 77 years old and Grape-Nuts has restored to me the pleasure of living. I am sorry I did not begin sooner to use it. I cannot praise it too highly." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. A 19 days' trial is sufficient.

TRAMPS MUST WORK.

This is the Edict to be Promulgated by Utah County Commissioners.

Provo, Sept. 5.—The county commissioners are instituting a vigorous campaign against the tramps that are infesting the county and committing depredations and depredations. If the project under consideration is carried into effect a large number of tramps will be appointed and placed along the lines of the railroad to arrest all tourists beating their way. They will be taken before a justice of the peace, charged with vagrancy, and when sentenced, will be placed at work on the county roads.

The tramps were over the remains of August Blumenthal, held yesterday in the first ward meeting house, were attended by large congregation of relatives and friends. The speakers were Rev. T. H. Scruggs of the Baptist church, Elders and W. W. Wright and Bishops Ralph Poulton and O. H. Berg.

Labor day was joyfully spent at the Provo lake resort yesterday by a large number of people, who joined the clerks' association in the observance of the day. Athletics and sports were in vogue, picnicking, etc., made the day pass pleasantly. Senator Simont delivered an interesting address on "Labor."

A heavy rainstorm in Provo canyon last evening caused the water pipes to be filled with water, and the water in the system is being conducted.

A communication has been received from Fish and Game Commissioner Sharp by the board of county commissioners, stating that 50,000 native mountain trout fry from the state hatchery has been assigned to Utah county. The matter has been referred to County Fish and Game Warden Jones, who will get the fry and distribute them.

A marriage license has been issued to James Johnson, aged 22, and Jennie Eastmond, of American Fork, aged 21. Judge Booth is in Ogden holding court today.

A complaint has been filed in Justice Noon's court at Rocco Rita, charging Adam Ekins with an unlawful use of water from the Upper East Union ditch. Mr. Ekins will have his hearing Thursday.

After hearing from both sides in the matter changing the line of Lehi and Fairfield school districts so that the Pelican Point country on the north side of the Lehi river, now from Fairfield district and added to Lehi district, the county commissioners have decided to make no change. The territory sought to be obtained by Lehi is where Bostonia is expected to be built. Fairfield has not wanted to lose this prospectively valuable territory.

Sheriff and Mrs. Harmon entertained the county commissioners and their wives at luncheon today at their new residence on the court house block. That is, Commissioner Dunn and Commissioner Walker being absent, and Commissioner Dixon did not, and made the excuse that he had forgotten Mrs. Dixon. This on the occasion of severe criticism from the ladies present, and unless it is forgotten before the next election, the conversation will be held to hold office again.

ENJOINS UTAH COPPER CO.

Colonel Wall Brings Action in New Jersey and Secures Temporary Injunction.

(Special to The Herald.) New York, Sept. 5.—Some stockholders in the Utah Copper company have vigorously opposed to the plan of the directors to increase the company's capital and to make an issue of $2,000,000 in bonds.

A. Wall, a stockholder, obtained temporary injunction today restraining the company from increasing its capital. Wall's counsel contended that the business of the company does not warrant the step contemplated, and that an increase at this time would work to the detriment of the shareholders. The stockholders have met today in Jersey City to act on the proposed increase, but the injunction caused a meeting of the directors until Wednesday. The directors say that the plan of issuing the bonds will go through at the meeting despite the opposition of Mr. Wall and his friends.

PLAN A NEW ROAD.

Utah Sheepmen Tired of Paying Tax to Wyoming.

Coalville, Sept. 5.—The county commissioners have just returned from a trip in the mountains near the Wyoming line, where they went to lay out a road, which the sheep that summer on the Utah forest reserve may go. A large number of sheep in this county are being driven to the reserve and have to cross a chop of the state of Wyoming. That state imposes a tax of 2 cents per head on sheep coming in there, and for the purpose of dodging that tax that the commissioners are planning a road that will reach the reserve without crossing the territory of our neighboring state.

While in the discharge of this duty, Commissioner Paskett had a narrow escape from a death grapple with a bear. While he and his party were hunting their horses, preparatory to moving camp, it was necessary to go through some pretty thick timber. Mr. Paskett came to a large tree that had been blown down by the storm. He was in the act of climbing over it, when suddenly from the other side of the tree, a light brown haunches rose a large grizzly bear. Mr. Paskett, who was unarmed, threw up his arms to scare the bear, and shouted, "Here's a bear!" Bruin didn't scare a cent, but he proceeded to cultivate a close acquaintance with the commissioner, and was within five feet of him. Mr. Callis, who was about twenty feet away, saw the bear and his perilous position. With commendable coolness and presence of mind, he instantly leveled his rifle, with unerring aim brought bruin down at the neck. For the prompt and effective action of Mr. Callis, the county commissioner would doubtless have a handsome reward from the results of an encounter with the bear whose hide now adorns his parlor floor.

BUTTE MURDERER TAKEN TO DEER LODGE PRISON FOR SAFE KEEPING

Butte, Sept. 5.—J. F. Barnes, who shot and killed Patrick Hanley early Sunday morning, and to lynch whom a mob attempted to storm the Silver Bow county jail early Monday morning and a second time early this morning, was today removed under guard to the state penitentiary at Deer Lodge, where he will be held until the popular agitation subsides.

Butte, Sept. 5.—Over 100 men at a 3 o'clock this morning made a determined but unsuccessful attempt, to lynch James P. Barnes, who late Sunday night shot and killed Patrick Hanley as the result of a slight argument. The jail was taken by storm, the would-be lynchers commanding the broad stairway leading to the doors of the court house and with drawn pistols fired over the heads of the crowd and the police who attempted to enter. Inside a mob battered at the big steel doors but without success. In the upper corridors were stationed a number of deputy sheriffs, with rifles and revolvers, and this tended to hold the crowd back. The mob finally set for dynamite, but those dispatched on the errand failed to return within an hour and the ringleaders abandoned the attempt and were persuaded by the police to disperse. Barnes holds two years in San Quentin penitentiary for shooting Bert Cooper at Chico.

Hanley was one of the most popular miners in Butte, and lynch talk and threats are still rife. At 4 o'clock this morning the police were in control of the jail.

TERRORIZED BY BANDS OF TARTARS

Riot, Pillage and Murder in the Caucasus—People in Wild Panic—Houses and Farms Being Abandoned.

S. PETERSBURG, Sept. 5.—A dispatch from Tiflis received today says:

The whole of the southeast Caucasus is now terrorized by Tartars. Refugees are pouring in here from Baku, Elizabthopol and Shusha.

Details from Shusha show that several hundred families have fled to the Caucasus and Armenians behind regular positions and that a considerable portion of the town was soon in flames.

According to an official estimate more than 200 houses were destroyed.

Baku, Sept. 5.—Troops under the direction of the governor are acting with the utmost vigor, but they have not succeeded in restoring order, although there is rather less firing.

Armed rioters today attacked the oil works in the suburb of Balakhan and after a hot fight set fire to them.

Tartar bands are scouring the country, murdering and pillaging. The country is in a state of wild panic and houses and farms are being abandoned.

Eulais, Caucasus, Sept. 5.—A conflict between robbers and peasants took place today in the village of Grandet. Eleven persons were killed or wounded.

Elisabthopol, Caucasus, Sept. 5.—Sanitary fighting has taken place between Tartars and Armenians in the village of Khankeid.

There is great alarm here. All the Armenians shops are closed and troops are patrolling the streets day and night.

AUGUST FIRE LOSSES.

New York, Sept. 5.—The fire loss of the United States and Canada for August, as compiled by the Journal of Commerce, aggregates $11,435,000, as compared with $2,712,300 for the same month last year, and $5,428,350 during August, 1902. The total for the first eight months of the current year is $17,725,750. There were 211 fires during August where the loss reached $10,000 or more. A noticeable feature of the past month was the numerous fires due to lightning, and in some instances these caused heavy losses.
