Little Frederick Muth Returned to His Parents in Philadelphia.

KIDNAPER LANDED IN JAIL

CAPTURE EFFECTED IN SENSATIONAL MANNER.

Philadelphia, June 18.—Little Frederick Muth, who was kidnaped from school on Tuesday last, was recovered from his captor in a sensational manner this afternoon. For several days the identity of the kidnaper has been known to the police, but despite the efforts of four hundred men who have been working on the case he was not located until today. He was accompanied by one of his men, Chief of Detectives Donaghy went to 48 North Sixth-street in West Philadelphia, and there found John Joseph Kean with his captives.

Kean attempted to escape, and was shot at by the detectives. The bullets missed their aim, but Kean surrendered and was taken to police headquarters. The kidnaper is 47 years old, is described as a former stock broker who had recently been a real estate agent. He has a wife and three children, and it is believed that his desperate financial condition drove him to his crime.

Demanded $5,000. In communications to the father of the child he demanded $5,000 for its return, and in a letter written on Friday declared he would kill the child and himself if the money was not forthcoming. Kean's terms were accepted in a "personal" inserted in all Saturday papers.

Child Unharmed. The boy, who is only 7 years old, was apparently unharmed except that he bore evidence of suffering from hunger and exposure.

When the kidnaper and his victim were brought before Superintendent of Police Taylor, the boy still had in his hand the school books he had when he was taken from school by a decoy note purporting to be from his mother. The house in which they were found is an unoccupied dwelling on the outskirts of the city.

HOUSE ADJOURNED AS A MARK OF RESPECT

Washington, June 18.—A black draped desk in the hall of the house of representatives today told the story of the passing of Rufus Lester, late of the representative in congress from the First Georgia district.

Previous to any announcement, Mr. Wadsworth of New York asked unanimous consent, which was granted, that the agricultural bill, with senate amendments, be recommitted to the committee on agriculture.

Mr. Payne of New York, by unanimous consent, then fixed Tuesday and Wednesday as suspension days instead of today, in view of the early adjournment of the house.

Mr. Bartlett of Georgia announced the death of his late colleague, stating that he had been a member of the house for nearly eighteen years. Late in the afternoon resolutions, which were agreed to.

MOB TRIED TO KILL ITALIAN BANDIT

New York, June 18.—The attempt of an Italian burglar to rob a woman of a pair of diamond earrings nearly cost two lives early today. The would-be robber's victim was terrified out about the face and head by a keen-bladed knife with which the thief attempted to cut the jewels from the woman's ears, and scarcely five minutes later the robber himself and a policeman who had arrested him were fighting for his life against a crowd of hundreds of Hebrews who had gathered to witness the assault.

The robber was kicked and stoned and repeatedly knocked down before the policeman succeeded in safely landing him in a cell. The victim of the assault was Mrs. Kupfer, who had been calling on friends last night and was returning to her home when attacked by Joseph Carpaena.

A man who is in perfect health, so he can do an honest day's work when necessary, has much for which he should be thankful. Mr. L. C. Rodgers of Branchton, Pa., writes that he was not only unable to work, but he couldn't stoop over to tie his own shoes. Six bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made a new man of him. He says, "Success to Foley's Kidney Cure." F. J. Hill Drug Co., the Nevers Substitutors.

BUNKER HILL DAY.

Ring of Bells and Firing of Guns in Old Boston.

Boston, June 18.—Accompanied by the roar of guns, the snapping of fire crackers and the ringing of bells, the celebration of the one hundred and thirty-first anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, always a local affair, began at midnight. At that hour Mayor Fitzgerald lighted an immense bonfire on the Charlestown playground. At 7 o'clock city officials and invited guests sailed down Boston harbor to meet the king of the carnival and escort him to his landing place at the navy yard. The parade under the auspices of the Seventeenth of June Carnival association and consisting principally of allegorical floats, followed. The United Irish societies had an independent procession. An electrical parade in the evening wound up the day's events.

KANAB HAS IN NEW INDUSTRY

Kanab Man Ships 24,000 Pounds of Mohair to Factories on Atlantic Coast.

WILL SELL DENVER ROAD

SAMUEL NEWHOUSE ELECTED PRESIDENT OF D. & I.-M.

Utah has a new industry added to her long list of resources. The first car of mohair to leave Utah was shipped last week to Maine. The Rio Grande and Santa Fe secured the shipment, consisting of 24,000 pounds of mohair. The shipping point was Kanab, and the consignor, R. Hamblin of that point. Mohair, as every one knows, is shorn from Angora goats. Not over 1,000,000 pounds are grown in the United States, but tons used in the manufacture of plush, shawls and dress goods are brought to the United States annually from Asia Minor and other foreign countries. Mohair sells readily at prices ranging from 35 cents to $1.25 per pound. The price is regulated by the quality of the product itself. Each goat nets at least 100 pounds of mohair, making goat-raising far more profitable than sheep raising.

Has Large Flock. R. Hamblin has a flock of 3,000 Angora goats on his ranch at Kanab. His breeding stock was brought from South Africa, where the finest goats in the world are raised in the Karoo and Transvaal countries. Mr. Hamblin paid $125 apiece for his bucks in South Africa. On their arrival in this country $200 customs duty was paid on the animals. The goats are easily raised, requiring little attention. Rocky cliffs and rough grounds are their delight. Their meat is thought by some persons a fine delicacy than lamb. With the shipment of mohair from Utah an entirely new industry has commenced in this state.

WILLING TO SELL.

Samuel Newhouse Votes to Put Road on Market.

Samuel Newhouse is willing to sell the Denver and Inter-Mountain railway system. This road operates by steam from the Platte river to Golden. Mr. Newhouse owns a controlling interest in the road. He was unable to attend a recent annual meeting, but Attorney Charles Parsons voted Mr. Newhouse's stock. By the vote cast the board of trustees have been re-elected with the power to sell or lease the road. The road's possessions are worth over $500,000. The tramway company of the road is not sold or leased to any party probably will electrify the line between the Platte river and Golden. Mr. Newhouse is a farmer and has a large estate. With these improvements the road will be the tramway's greatest rival, and a consolidation of the two roads will be possible.

PLEASED WITH ROAD.

The Denver Terminal railway company, which proposes building a system of inter-city lines from Denver to towns in the northern part of Colorado, held an option on the Denver and Inter-Mountain until May 15. As the former company was defeated in its fight for a franchise, it relinquished its option. At the annual meeting of the Denver and Inter-Mountain, C. C. Parsons first vice-president, H. Brown second vice-president, Frank W. Loveland treasurer, William Morrison secretary and Caldwell Yeaman attorney. These officers constitute the board of directors.

T. C. Peck Names Features of Trip Over Salt Lake Route.

T. C. Peck, assistant general passenger agent of the Salt Lake Route, has reached Los Angeles, his home, after an extended trip over the main and branch lines of the Salt Lake Route. In an interview Mr. Peck said:

"I believe that the prettiest stretch of track I ever rode over is a hundred miles from Cimarron to Las Vegas. There is not a rough spot in the track for the train to jolt over. It is pleasing to look at, for it is as clean as the floor in this office. There is not a speck of dirt flying from the roadbed, and an overabundance of paper and waste has been cleaned up."

"I was surprised when I inspected the mission depot at Las Vegas. The ground has been smoothed off and oiled until it is better than a wooden floor. There must have been sixty people looking the depot over yesterday between the stopping and starting of the train."

The secretary reduced the suspension to six months.

GRAFTERS WANT ANOTHER CHANCE

House Not Likely to Stop National Bank Political Contributions.

TILLMAN MAKES CHARGES

FAILURE OF THE CHICAGO NATIONAL BANK.

Washington, June 18.—Senator Tillman today again called up his resolution providing for an investigation of the question of national bank contributions to political campaigns and also relative to the recent failure of the Chicago National bank.

Speaking to the resolution, Mr. Tillman said that Senator Aldrich had waived aside the resolution on the ground that the senate had recently passed a bill prohibiting the banks from making campaign contributions, but Mr. Tillman contended that such action on the part of the senate was not sufficient. Believing that the banks were the principal source of revenue of the Republican political committee, he did not believe that the house would pass the bill prior to the election of next fall. Hence, he still felt the necessity for the investigation provided for by his resolution. He insisted that the resolution should be retroactive, but confessed that he had little hope in that direction.

Bankers to Get Immunity.

"The bankers will get an immunity bath for past offenses," he predicted. Speaking of the Chicago bank failure, Mr. Tillman presented extracts from testimony of Banker Fenwick of Chicago, taken by the house committee on banking, to the effect that the disaster was due to the fact that the bank had no reserves, which the president of the bank, John R. Walsh, was interested. He claimed that this testimony showed that the comptroller before the failure that the bank in effect loaned $15,000,000 to its president.

Denial by Hopkins.

Senator Hopkins replied that Mr. Tillman had been misled by irresponsible Chicago men and declared that the South Carolina senator's "trade" had proved another illustration of the fact that "a little learning is a dangerous thing."

He charged the South Carolinian with a desire to injure the Chicago banks and to exploit himself. "I say to the senator that he could not serve Wall street better," he said, "for Wall street wants to get control of the Wall interests."

San Francisco, June 18.—Two men were injured, one perhaps fatally, by the collapsing of a wall at the corner of California and Kearny street today. The injured: John Benson, Giuseppe Papa.

The men were carpenters engaged in constructing a one-story frame structure on the site of a burned building. The flames had swept away the outer walls of the structure, but a fire wall had been left standing. The carpenters were at work when, without warning, the tons of brick in the structure came toppling down on the half-completed frame structure. Benson's skull was fractured and he is in a critical condition. Papa sustained bruises about the head and body.
